

Today is Froth Day

The Daily Collegian

"FOR A BETTER PENN STATE"

Today's Weather:
Clear and Mild

VOL. 50 — NO. 139

STATE COLLEGE, PA., TUESDAY MORNING, MAY 16, 1950

PRICE FIVE CENTS

Carnival Comes To Penn State In Two Days

Town and Gown Carnival time is breathing down the necks of the local citizenry. Just two days remain before the mottled gray asphalt of South Allen and East Beaver will disappear beneath gay canopies, flaming banners, and other polychromatic devices for absorbing itchy money.

Kappa Alpha Theta, spelling like an eighth semester engineer, plans to come out with the KAT Kountry Klub. The klub kounts on kockeyed golfers to kough up the kabbage for the privilege of putting small balls at small holes in a large green. Prizes.

Cheesecake

Cheesecake rears its delightful head at Alpha Omicron Pi's Cinderella booth, where several young ladies will dangle gams before the populace, which will try to guess which of the shoes in the booth go on which of the feet.

Alpha Phi Omega comes through with the old corny standby where you try to hammer a nail into a board in three bangs. Watch those bent nails . . .

Triangle's booth goes under the name of 8-ball. It's another standard midway takeoff, with various prizes.

Alpha Chi Rho's big wheels plan a big wheel booth with balloons tied to the wheel. Three darts to a customer.

Wet Sponges

Fun for the sadistic is the order at Alpha Tau Omega's Sponge Toss. Would-be ATO's will poke disconsolate heads through a large canvas, and the paying customers can throw wet sponges, at them.

Balloons are also the feature at the Sigma Delta Tau booth, where you can make them go bang with well-placed darts.

Pi Lambda Phi will play dart poker with you. The cards are hung in the back of the booth, and the darts make the hands.

Prof Competes In Primaries

Arthur H. Reede, professor of economics at the College, today faces the first hurdle in his candidacy for Representative in Congress from the 22nd district as Pennsylvania voters go to the polls in this year's primary elections.

Reede, if successful, will oppose the Republican incumbent, James E. Van Zandt, at the November elections.

In today's race he faces two other Democrats, Thomas V. Bowen, of Altoona, and Gust J. Mederia, of Grampian. The district includes Blair, Clearfield, and Centre counties.

Reede is a graduate of the College and has worked in the fields of education, economics, business, international relations, and social security legislation. He also served in World War II.

Reede has come out in favor of some form of farm price support, a stronger program for re-employing the unemployed, an increase in unemployment benefits, a stronger UN, stronger industrial safety legislation, increases in pensions, and a broadening of pension lines.

Froth On Sale Today; Dedicated To Seniors

Froth's "this is it" issue goes on sale today on town and campus newsstands.

Dedicated to graduating seniors, the magazine features several articles on the doubtful pasts and still more doubtful futures of these vanishing Americans.

May Queen Reigns . . .

LOVELY LORAIN STOTLER is crowned by a garland of flowers as she sits on her throne and surveys May Day Festivities held on Saturday. The Queen, a brunette senior, is attended by Jo Hutchon, Maid of Honor. One of the heralds, Ann Porter, stands by.

Miss Stotler and her court were honored at the Coronation Ball held in Recreation Hall Saturday night.

Senior Hat Societies Tap 92 Upperclassmen

Sixty-eight junior men were tapped yesterday by Skull and Bones and Parmi Nous, senior men's hat societies. In addition, Parmi Nous tapped 24 graduating seniors. The two societies honor activities men in athletics, dramatics, government politics, forensics, publications, and other fields.

Tapping lists were released yesterday by Morton Snitzer and Negley Norton, Skull and Bones and Parmi Nous presidents, respectively.

Skull and Bones Men

Those chosen for Skull and Bones are: Herbert Axford, Robert Bailey, Edwin Barnitz, Martin Brenner, John Dalbor, Robert M. Davis, William Detweiler, John Erickson, Russell Herman, Carrol Howes, Thomas Karolcick, Harry Kondourajian, Joseph Lane, Carl Liachowitz, Robert I. Miller, William Norcross, James Richards, Neil See, Robert Sharretts, John Smidansky, David Schmucker, Hugh Stevens, Richard Weisburg, Curt Wessner, Clarke Young and William Zakor.

Juniors tapped by Parmi Nous are: Henry Albright, George Avery, Richard Bard, Homer Barr, Philip Benedetti, John Boddington, Clarence Buss, Ronald Coder, Owen Dougherty, Robert Fast, Nathan Feinstein, Victor

Fritts, Charles Godlasky, Otto Grupp, Marlowe Hartung, Patrick Heims, Emerson Jones, Raymond Koehler, John Kurty, Louis Lamie, Owen Landon, Harold Leinbach, Harry Little, Robert Longnecker, David Ludwig, William Mathers, Edward Merek, Walter Miller, Vincent O'Bara, Harry Papacharalambous, Robert Parsons, Frederick Phillips, Michael Rubino, Henry Schoenfeld, Rudolph Valentino, Samuel Vaughan, Walter Vilsmeier, Rodney Waters, Charles Williams, Harry Woolever, William Yerkes, and James Yerkes.

Graduating Seniors Tapped

Selected in the graduating-senior category by Parmi Nous are: Lloyd Amprim, Allen Baker, Seymour Barash, Anthony Bowman, Spencer Boyer, Martin Costa, Joel Fleming, Louis Gilbert, Richard Hannah, Raymond Hederick, Frederick Leuschner, Robert Louis, Sidney Manes, Ralph Meier, Augustus Pierce, Richard Pulling, Francis Rogel, Harry Schaffer, Thomas Smith, Albert Tkac, James Maurey, Joseph Tocci, Daniel Wargo, and Philip Yedinsky.

Skull and Bones already tapped some senior men this month. Both senior hat groups have been active at the College for about 35 years.

AP News—Courtesy WMAJ

No Progress Seen In Railroad Strike

WASHINGTON—Although government mediators met again with union chiefs, there seems no sign of an early break in the strike of locomotive firemen against several big rail systems.

A federal spokesman commented: "It seems like the same old story of an immovable object meeting an irresistible force."

McCarthy Accuses Again

ATLANTIC CITY—Senator Joseph McCarthy has demanded the discharge by President Truman of both Secretary of State Acheson and Ambassador-at-Large Philip Jessup.

McCarthy said Acheson betrayed the United States in Asia by buying a plan for the Far East devised by Owen Lattimore.

Truman Boosts 'Fair Deal'

CHICAGO—In a major political address yesterday President Truman pledged a continued vigorous fight for his "Fair Deal" proposals.

This speech climaxed a 6,000-mile tour of the West. Mr. Truman appealed to all Democrats to rally behind his social and economic program to which Congress has given only partial support.

Parade Heralds Spring Events

Spring Week will officially open with a bang tomorrow night when a huge parade of campus queens, floats, bands, cars, and prancing horses will make its way to Schwab Auditorium for the "Coronation Review" and the crowning of Miss Penn State.

Miss Penn State, who will reign over all the Spring Week activities, will be chosen by an impressive five-member board of judges. The lucky coed will be crowned by Marlene Carozzo, "Miss Pennsylvania of 1949." The Coronation Review ceremonies are scheduled to start at 8 p.m.

The judges who will select Miss Penn State from the four coed finalists are: Wilmer E. Kenworthy, assistant to the president; Charles "Rip" Engle, head football coach; Grace Henderson, dean of the School of Home Economics; James Coogan, assistant director of public information; and Edward Leos, College photographer. The four coed finalists have been selected by the Spring Week committee from previously submitted photographs.

Parade To Start At 7

The huge parade, which will conduct the queen finalists to Schwab, is slated to start at 7 p.m. at the College dairy barns. It will travel down Shortlidge road past the women's dormitories to East College avenue.

Then right on College avenue through the main part of town to the College power plant on the corner of College avenue and Burrows road. Then the groups will file up Burrows to Pollock road and continue over Pollock to Schwab Auditorium for the "Coronation Review."

Each of the four Miss Penn State finalists will have a float. The four decorated floats are being built by the women's honorary societies, Alpha Lambda Delta, Cwens, Chimes, and Mortar Board. In addition coed queens from the current College year will appear in the parade with the Miss Penn State finalists.

Then will follow an outstanding array of organizations:

Bands To March

The Blue Band will march in complete uniform, along with the State College high school band and the American Legion Drum and Bogle Corp.

The various ROTC heads were contacted by the Spring Week committee, and they have agreed to have the ROTC band, plus volunteer marching units from the Army, Air, and Naval ROTC all participate in the parade.

All sororities, fraternities, and campus organizations which have booths in the Carnival were urged by the Spring Week committee to enter decorated cars (Continued on page two)

Instructor To Talk About Bolshevism

Father Constantine Auroroff, instructor of Russian, will speak on "The Essence of Bolshevism" in 124 Sparks at 7:30 tomorrow night. The lecture is sponsored by Alpha Rho Omega, honorary Russian society.

Dr. Seth Russell, assistant dean of the School of Liberal Arts, will preside and moderate. Father Auroroff was a member of the Social Revolutionary party in 1905-1907 and knew Stalin personally.

Instrumental in obtaining recognition for the Soviet Union, he was allowed to travel in Russia in 1934 as a result. He was the first native-born Russian-American preacher allowed to re-enter the country.

Class To Vote On Senior Gift Tomorrow

Graduating seniors will begin to vote for their class gift and for the awarding of traditional honors to the 11 outstanding men and women of the class tomorrow.

Voting for the men will take place in 204 Old Main. The women will vote in their living units at places to be listed in tomorrow's Daily Collegian.

Starting at 9 a.m. and continuing until 5 p.m., tomorrow and Thursday, seniors will cast ballots for one of three gifts: An $8500 contribution to the student press fund, the purchase of an ambulance for the College hospital, or the beginning of a fund to open a Hall of Fame in the proposed Student Union Building.

The contribution toward the press, if approved, might bring the needed amount to the fund that will enable all campus publications to be printed at the College.

College Needs Ambulance

The ambulance is a much needed addition to the College Health Service's facilities. At present, a station wagon belonging to the campus patrol is the nearest thing to an ambulance the College owns.

A suitable plaque would be put on the ambulance indicating the name of the class and other information, according to Joseph Reinheimer, chairman of the senior class gift committee.

The Hall of Fame would be used to honor graduates who have excelled in various fields and have made names for themselves after leaving the College.

A room would be set aside in the proposed Student Union Building to house the hall if the money is appropriated.

Men, Women to Vote

Men and women will have a chance to honor those members of the graduating class who have done outstanding work in various fields.

The men will vote for the traditional Spoon man, Barrel man, Cane man, Pipe Orator, and Class Donor, while the coeds will ballot for Bowknot girl, Class Donor, Slipper girl, Fan girl, Clas poet and Mirror girl.

The men will vote for five from a list of 15 while the women will list six outstanding women on a ballot, with the awards going to girls in the order of the number of votes they receive. In case of a tie, the girl with the highest number of first place votes will be the winner.

Riley Exonerated In Auto Accident

DOWNINGTOWN—A coroner's jury has exonerated Ridge Riley, alumni secretary of the College, of all blame in a May 4 fatal accident in which he was driver of the automobile involved.

A verdict of accidental death was returned by the jury in the case of Warren W. Jackson, 38, of West Chester, who was killed when struck by Riley's car.

The accident occurred in the early hours of the morning near Downingtown, as Riley and Penn State Coach Charles Spedel were returning to their hotel after addressing a Penn State alumni club in Coatesville.