

AIM Elects Bard To Head Governors

After four ballots, the Association of Independent Men finally elected Richard Bard as chairman of the new Board of Governors.

Other officers elected Wednesday night were William Zakor, vice chairman; Richard Mills, secretary; and Howard Fitting, treasurer.

With 41 voting members present, a tie resulted on third ballot for the chairmanship when one member abstained from voting. On the fourth ballot, Bard won by a slight majority. Three other candidates were previously eliminated on the first two ballots.

Bard is a pre-law student and editor of next year's student handbook. He has been active in AIM for the past two years.

Next year marks the first year of AIM operation under the new constitution. The constitution setting up the Board of Governors, was approved at a meeting last week.

Davis Urges Cooperation
Robert Davis, retiring president of the Council, urged the new Board of Governors to cooperate with the administration and promote the activities of independent men.

The title of Honorary President of the Board of 1950-51 was conferred on William Norcross, retiring vice-president. Davis explained that Norcross would have been recommended by the nominations committee for chairman but for the fact that he is transferring to another college.

A motion was passed to congratulate all retiring officers at the AIM Moonlight Promenade Saturday night.

The AIM banquet was discussed at the meeting. The banquet will be held at the Eutaw House next Wednesday night. Outstanding students in various fields will be given awards at the dinner.

Food Freezing Talk Tonight

Home freezing will be the subject for a discussion to be given this evening, from 7:30 to 9:30 in 4, Home Economics Building.

Ruth H. Cook, assistant professor of home-community relationships and home economics education, explained that this would be an opportunity for local families to get the answers to their food freezing problem.

The discussion will be open to the public and is offered by the College as a part of the Community Adult Homemaking program. It will be led by Dr. Rebecca Gibbons, former head of the department of foods and nutrition at the University of Nebraska and local food plant operator.

Late AP News Courtesy WMAJ Primary Voting Reported Light

HARRISBURG — Voting was light in yesterday's Pennsylvania primaries despite the fact that the control of the GOP machine was in the balance. Both factions of the Republican party were surprised by the poor turnout.

Army Scandal

WASHINGTON — Public hearings start today in Washington on the 157 million dollar scandal which Congressional investigators say they found in the army finance center in St. Louis. The hearings will include the probing of military personnel at the St. Louis office.

MI Elections Scheduled

Student Council elections for the School of Mineral Industries will take place today and tomorrow on the first floor of the Mineral Industries building. Six seniors and three juniors will be elected.

Senior Awards, Gift of Class On Ballot Today

Eleven traditional honor awards and three recommendations for the senior class gift will be voted upon today and tomorrow by the class of 1950.

The three class gift proposals are: an ambulance for the College, a Hall of Fame for recognition of outstanding students, and added funds for a student press.

Students voting will take place in 204 Old Main from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. both days. Women will also be able to vote at the desks in the main lobbies of Simmons and McElwain and the offices of Grange and Women's Building.

The men will select five names from a list of 15 prepared by the Class Day committee.

The ballot will be marked by numbers in the order of preference.

The man receiving the most first place votes will be named Spoon man; second place votes will go for the Barrel man; third place, Cane man; fourth place, Pipe man; and fifth place, Class Donor.

For the women, first place votes will count in electing the Bow girl; second place, Slipper girl; third place, Fan girl; fourth place, Class Poet; fifth place, Mirror girl; and sixth place, Class Donor.

The women's awards are given on the basis of service to the College, personality, honor, sincerity, versatility of activities and scholarship. There is no list submitted to the voters to fill the women's position. The women themselves will fill out their ballots in the order of their preferences. A complete list of the women in the senior class will be posted at the balloting places.

At class day, the winners will be awarded gold pins symbolizing the awards they have won.

For the men, Spoon man selection is usually based on outstanding leadership and scholarship. The Cane man, popularity
(Continued on page four)

Student Hurt In Collision

Alvin Grasse, 6th semester aged student, was thrown from his motorcycle Monday night when he collided with a car driven by Joseph Shisler, a sophomore in industrial arts.

Grasse suffered a broken leg, a puncture wound in the head, and lacerations of the face. He was taken to Centre County Hospital.

Borough police said that Shisler will probably be charged with a violation of the vehicle code.

Pershing Rifles Win Competition

Company B, Fifth Regiment, Pershing Rifles brought home all the honors as it swept the drill competition at Lehigh University Saturday.

With several months of constant practice behind them Company B, under the leadership of Capt. Conrad Davis, captured first place in standard drill and trick drill. Captain Davis was awarded a medal for being the outstanding commanding officer in the Fifth Regiment.

Ronald Young was presented with a medal for being the outstanding cadet in Pershing Rifles at the College.

Col. Everell Chadwick, Fifth Regimental Commander, announced the results of the elections for the new regimental commander and his staff. The new staff will be Col. Carl E. Barefoot, commanding; Maj. Charles E. Miller, executive officer; Captain Kenneth W. Yon, S-3; Lt. Jack W. Enterline, finance officer; and Lt. Wesley E. Blaha, S-4.

Carlson To Head New Hat Society

Donald Carlson was named first president of Androcles, new junior hat society, at a banquet of the group Monday night at the Eutaw House.

Chosen vice-president and secretary-treasurer, respectively, for the first year of the society's existence were Curtis Wessner and Samuel Vaughan.

Attending the banquet were Androcles members and members of the founding Hat Society Council. Guest speaker was Ted Allen, retiring all-College president.

LaVie Distribution

All student teachers and other students who will not be on campus the first eight weeks of the Fall semester must have their pictures taken for the 1951 La Vie this semester. William Zakor, 1951 editor, announced yesterday.

The students in question should have their pictures taken at the Penn State Photo Shop between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. starting today and continuing through Saturday, May 27.

Carnival Opens Tomorrow

Never worry, never fear, Carnival will soon be here. In fact, the big event is only one day away.

When the booths officially open at 2 p.m. tomorrow, Alpha Xi Delta will be there to "Give Us a Lift." Several of the Alpha Xi's will be on hand to have their weight guessed and this time you can pick up the girl to guess her weight.

"Fish in the Sea" at the Kappa Delta booth. Carnival-goers will cast their fishing lines over a six-foot octagonal posterboard for small prizes. Phi Kappa Psi will entertain you with the "Phi Psi Arcade." Flying saucers, cut-a-card, and bean bag games are included.

Straight Arrow
Phi Kappa Tau and Chi Omega team up to present the "Phi Tau-

Chi O Review." The eight-act review will last 20 minutes and a small band will give it a professional touch.

Delta Sigma Phi will hide its members behind a transparent curtain to protect them from the rubber-tipped arrows, shot by you local "Straight Arrows."

Leonides' game of chance is the "Speedway" and the College Cop will let you play the "Window Shade Game."

Engineers and mathematicians arise! Now is the time to test your practical knowledge. Just drop around to Beta Sigma Omicron's "Beta Beanery" and guess how many beans there are in a three-foot coke bottle.

Alpha Zeta and Zeta Tau Alpha have built the "A to Z Playland" especially for you. It's got everything from a basketball shoot in

Spring Week Begins Tonight With Parade, Coronation In Schwab

A parade of campus and town organizations, climaxed by the crowning of Miss Penn State in Schwab Auditorium will officially open the 1950 Spring Week tonight.

The parade, which will start at 7 o'clock at the College dairy barns, will go through town and end up at Schwab for the "Coronation Review," starting at 8 o'clock.

Shortlidge Road Made One Way

One way traffic, moving from North to South, has been established on Shortlidge road between Pollock road and E. College avenue. The change is effective today.

George W. Ebert, director of the physical plant at the College, explained that the action was taken to relieve congestion in response to requests from Student Tribunal and All-College Cabinet.

The change will mean that traffic may only move from Pollock road in the direction of College avenue.

Ebert explained further that parking on Shortlidge Road in the dormitory area will be permitted only on the west side. Parking facilities are available to the east of Simmons and McElwain Halls.

Photo Contest Is Extended

The deadline for entering the amateur photography contest sponsored by the College Alumni Association and the Camera Club has been extended to May 30, Ross B. Lehman, executive assistant alumni secretary, announced yesterday.

The contest is open to all students and faculty members. Prizes will be awarded for the best photographs of indoor and outdoor collegiate life and for campus and local scenes. Photos should be turned into the Alumni Office, 104 Old Main.

The deadline was extended so that students and faculty members would have additional time to develop and send in their photos, according to Lehman. He also said that photos taken during Spring Week would now be eligible to compete in the contest.

IFC Deadline

Noon tomorrow is the deadline for the IFC key orders. Present and past members of the IFC may order the keys at Student Union. The price of the keys is $2.40 and must accompany the order.

The four Miss Penn State finalists selected by the Spring Week committee from submitted photographs are: Jane Mullen, sponsored by Chi Omega, Joan Marshall, sponsored by Delta Gamma, Mary Anne Hanna, sponsored by Sigma Alpha Epsilon, and Candy Griffith, sponsored by Kappa Kappa Gamma.

To Receive Gifts
Miss Penn State will be selected by judges Wilmer E. Kenworthy, assistant to the president; "Rip" Engle, head football coach; Grace Henderson, dean of the School of Home Economics; James Coogan, assistant director of public information; and Edward Leos, College photographer.

She will be crowned by Marlene Carozzo, "Miss Pennsylvania of 1949." In addition to flowers and corsages, Miss Penn State will receive many gifts from various local merchants.

The "Coronation Review" is under the direction of Sidney Manes and will be emceed by Hank Glass. Also on the program is the Glee Club Quartet, a duet, a comedy routine, and a musical combine.

Many Organizations
The parade before the show will include a caravan of cars advertising the various Carnival booths of campus organizations, a decorated float for each of the Miss Penn State finalists, the Blue Band in complete uniform, the State College high school band, the American Legion Drum and Bugle Corp, the ROTC band, volunteer marching units from the Army, Air, and Naval ROTC, and riders on horses from the College stables.

Dorothy Werlinich, member of the Spring Week committee in charge of the parade, requested that all cars advertising Carnival booths line up on East Park avenue near the corner of Shortlidge road at 6:30 p.m. She also urged all organizations in the parade to meet at the College dairy barns at 6:30.

Speech Contest To Be Held

The men's debate team will have their annual term-end public speaking contest in 121 Sparks at 7:30 tonight.

All members of the debate squad are eligible to compete for the gold watch charm gavels, prizes for the two winners. The men will be divided into three sections, and two finalists will be chosen from each section. Finals will be held May 24.

Subject of the speeches is, "Should the United States Nationalize the Basic Non-Agriculture Industries?" Judges for the contest are: Prof. William Hamilton, Harold J. O'Brien, Melville Hopkins, Robert E. Sinclair, and Bruce Colt, of the speech department.

La Vie Pictures

Seniors in the Schools of Physical Education, Mineral Industries, and Chemistry and Physics can secure their copies of the 1950 La Vie at Student Union today and tomorrow.