

Cabinet Hears

The Cabinet passed the amendment without dissent.

Zakor also brought up to the Cabinet a proposal to place a definite time limit on customs. Keller and Gabriel spoke again, both recommending that customs be placed on a trial basis, and that after the first week of classes, which would correspond to the first week of customs, Tribunal and possibly the Hat Societies Council meet to discuss the duration of customs.

Final Say

Cabinet still would have the final say as to the length of customs.

It was recommended in several different ways that the lifting of customs be attended by festive ceremonies.

No action was taken on the proposals, Cabinet taking the suggestion to "wait and see how they work."

Cabinet also considered a list by Allen for Cabinet Service Awards to supersede a previous list presented to Cabinet. The list contained 86 names of graduating seniors who have given outstanding service to the senior class and to the College. The list was passed unanimously.

Appointments

All of Davis' committee appointments were approved without any objections.

The request of John Clark, a student, that cabinet back the effort of Nittany Dorm area residents to obtain more street lights was referred to the newly-formed campus Safety and Upkeep committee.

Robert Fast was named chairman of the Student Union Committee upon the recommendation of James MacCallum, retiring chairman.

Mad Hats---

will be held in Old Main in front of Student Union desk during the same hours, 10 to 2, Krane said. He also emphasized that "Mad Hatter's Day" was for men and women both, and anyone may enter as an individual or as a representative of a campus group.

"Mad Matter's Day" was planned as the surprise event to keep Spring Week spirit rolling. Everyone was urged by both Krane and the Spring Week committee to join in the fun and vie for one of the $5 prizes.
