

Plays To Feature Last Speech Class

Portions of the play, "Our Town," by Thornton Wilder and "The War," by Anton Chekhov, will feature the semester's last session of the oral interpretation readings, at 8 p.m. Monday, in the living center of the Home Ec Building.

Ruth Johnson will read her own cutting of "Our Town," the Pulitzer prize winning play about a small American town.

Don Carlson will read from the Chekhov work. Carl Bruckner will act as chairman of this last class, the seventh semester.

Sunday Musicales Planned

A musicale, "Serenade in Spring," will be presented at the Nittany Lion Inn at 3 p.m. tomorrow.

Sponsored by the Friendship Class of St. Paul's Methodist Church, the performance will be directed by Mrs. Jo Hays. Program for the musical has not yet been announced.

Cars for IRC Banquet

Cars taking members of the International Relations Club to the IRC banquet at the Eutaw House, will leave from McElwain Hall on the Pollock road side at 6 o'clock tonight.

Paterno---

A veteran of World War II, Paterno was known at Brown for his punt returns as well as his passing and signal-calling. Engle has said that the most difficult part of the conversion from single-wing to winged-T would be the development of a quarterback. It is expected that Paterno will be a valuable aid in showing the freshmen and sophomores how it's done the T-way.
