

Science Group Initiates 13

The Kappa chapter of Sigma Gamma Epsilon, national professional earth science fraternity, recently initiated 6 undergraduates and 7 faculty associates.

Ceremonies preceded a banquet held in honor of the initiates, at which Prof. Arthur H. Reede, department of economics faculty member, was guest speaker. New officers also were elected.

Undergraduates initiated are Robert Aiken, Homer Harris, Stanley Luft, John Rigone, William Stewart, and James Wasson.

Initiated faculty associates are John Griffiths, John Hoffman, James Magor, Shiu-Chuan-Sun, Quinton Soprano, Ram Thakur, and Raymond Zimmerman.

Officers-elect of the professional fraternity include: William Sittig, president; Isaac Vandervoren, vice-president; John Kraft, secretary-treasurer; Robert Kuchinic, corresponding secretary; and Richard Higgs, Honor Society Council representative.

Leonides Gives Intramural Pins

Leonides pin awards were recently given for participation in intramural sports during the 1949-50 season because of the excellent record they made for the organization.

Those receiving pins were: Sally Greenberger, Nancy Hanna, Joan Barnett, Helen Griffin, Lolita Mountjoy, Evelyn Laning, Jane Lerew, Helen Rusinko, Jackie Schock, Phyllis Sones, Anne Stork, and Dorothy Wain.

The team placed first in volleyball and badminton and second in basketball competition.

Pup Is Worth Hill o' Beans

Carl Baird won "Freddy" the pup at the Beta Sigma Omicron booth at the Spring Carnival Friday. Baird guessed within ten the total number of beans, 1176, in a huge coke bottle.

"Freddy's" name has been changed to "BZ" since he is now residing at the Beta Sigma Rho fraternity. Although his pedigree is questionable, reliable sources say he is "mostly collie."

NROTC Awards

Medals were presented to three midshipmen of the Naval ROTC unit at the College Thursday morning in front of Old Main.

Those receiving medals were Richard K. Pulling, reserve officers association medal; Robert J. Schuster, accommodation of the fourth naval division for the highest grade in naval navigation; and Augustus D. Pierce Jr.,
