

Patrol Foresees Heavy Driving, Issues Rules

According to Captain Philip A. Mark, Campus Patrol, congested conditions and new construction during the Summer Sessions will require campus driving to be held to a minimum. The Campus Patrol office has released driving and traffic regulations especially adapted to the Summer Sessions.

Faculty, staff members, and College employees holding permits and displaying the blue metal tags on their cars will be permitted to park on the central campus. This, however, must be done in established parking areas. Parking in service drives will not be tolerated. New faculty members may receive parking and operating permits by applying at the Campus Patrol office, 320 Old Main.

All night parking on the campus is permitted only in the west area behind the tennis courts. Patrol officers said that no all-night parking will be permitted on Pollock, Burrowes, Curtin, or Shortlidge Roads.

Student Restrictions

use of their cars on the campus, explained in the following rules:

Students are restricted in the
1. Driving on Central Campus roads is prohibited during all regular class hours, except for physically handicapped students who have been certified by the College Health Service and who have been granted special permits.

2. Cars may be used by students for special class or laboratory work if arrangements are made with the Campus Patrol office by the faculty member in charge.

3. All students may park only in the west parking area behind the tennis courts or at the designated area at Pollock Circle. Parking in these areas may be done without permit tags.

Reserve Army Students End Course Friday

Twenty-seven College Summer Session ROTC students with 2nd lieutenant ambitions in the U. S. Army Reserve Corps are on campus for a concentrated four-week make-up student course which will close Friday. It has been in effect since June 12.

Composed of students who lack a sufficient number of ROTC credits because of enrollment in other schools prior to coming to
