

Summer Sessions Chorus Tonight

Summer Collegian

Final Issue Until Fall

STATE COLLEGE, PENNSYLVANIA, TUESDAY, AUGUST 8, 1950

Band, Orchestra To Give Annual Concert Tomorrow

500 To Get Degrees Saturday

Tomorrow's The Pay-Off

Collegian photo by Bill Boyles

PART OF THE BRASS section of the Summer Sessions Band which will share the spotlight with the Summer Sessions Orchestra tomorrow night in Schwab Auditorium.

Dunlop, Karhan To Direct Popular Summer Program

The annual concert of the Summer Sessions Band and the Summer Sessions Orchestra is scheduled for Schwab Auditorium tomorrow at 8:30 p.m. J. D. Dunlop, band director, and Theodore K. Karhan, orchestra conductor, will lead the two groups.

A large crowd is expected at the event which has become traditional to the Summer Sessions. A part of the Recreation Office's summer program, there will be no admission charge.

The concert will be divided into two parts. The opening half of the program will feature the 60-piece orchestra conducted by Mr. Karhan, assistant professor of music and music education. Their selections are: "Overture to Rosamunde," Schubert; "Three Dutch Tunes," Valerius-Kindler; "Gavotte from the Classical Symphony," Prokofieff; "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring," Bach; "Three Dances from Henry VIII"; and "Clear Track," Strauss.

After intermission, the 75-piece band, under the direction of Mr. Dunlop, assistant professor of music education, will take over. It will present "Brass Pageantry," Osting; "Pique Dame Overture," von Suppe; "Dark Eyes," arr. Lang; "The Britisher," Chandler; "Robin Hood Overture," De Koven; "The French Quarter," Morrissey; and "Cole Porter Selections," arr. Bennett.

Entirely on a voluntary basis, the two groups are made up of students who give up their spare time to rehearsals because they enjoy playing. This concert is their only public appearance.

Receives Degree

Frederick B. Marbut, professor of journalism at the College, has been awarded a doctor of philosophy degree at Harvard University.

As a part of the requirements for the degree, Dr. Marbut submitted a thesis on "The History of Washington Newspaper Correspondence to 1861."

1951 LaVie

Students who will receive bachelor degrees on Saturday, Aug. 12, should have pictures taken for the 1951 LaVie before leaving campus. Pictures are taken at the Penn State Photo Shop and activity cards are completed there, according to William Zakor, LaVie editor.

1500 Students Expected For Post Session

About 1,500 students are expected to register at Carnegie Hall for the three-week Post Session Monday, Aug. 14, from 8 a.m. to 12 noon. Classes will begin at 1:30 p.m. the same day. Registration procedure is as follows:

1. Information desk—Obtain application-registration forms, petitions to carry special programs, changes of schedule, student correspondence file, and catalogs. This is section 1.

2. Matriculation cards and student number—New students obtain matriculation card and student number. Former students report here only if they do not have a valid matriculation card in their possession at the time of registration. This is Section 1M.

3. Faculty—Obtain approval of representation of department in which work is taken. This is Section 2.

4a. Program—Regular undergraduate students obtain approval of adviser or dean of school.

4b. Regular graduate students obtain approval of official adviser and dean of the Graduate School, and general graduate students obtain approval of official adviser.

(Continued on Page Six)

Thief Takes Wallet, Shoes

State College police are investigating a series of fraternity robberies that have occurred almost nightly during the past week. They are searching for a thief who steals money and, curiously enough, shoes.

The police and fraternity officials are puzzled about the theft of the shoes and feel that their man is a kleptomaniac. On several occasions, he has been observed and upon being chased, has dropped odds and ends of shoes.

Other pieces of clothing and more valuable articles have not been bothered. On some raids, the thief has stolen wallets and on others only the money, leaving the billfolds.

On Thursday night, $50 and several pairs of shoes were taken.

(Continued on Page Two)

Art, Crafts Exhibit

Work of the summer school craft classes, murals completed during the inter-session by art education students, and newly done paintings will be exhibited in rooms 1, 3, 7, and 8, Temporary Building, from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. tomorrow and Thursday.

In charge of the exhibit are Jack Bookbinder, guest instructor from Philadelphia, Edward Matil, assistant director in art education, and Sybil Emerson, associate professor in art education.

Summer Sessions Chorus To Give Annual Concert in Schwab Tonight

The Summer Sessions Chorus, directed by Frank Gullo, assistant professor of music at the College, will present its annual concert in Schwab Auditorium, tonight at 8 p.m.

Mary R. Walker, of Philadelphia, a summer sessions student who teaches elementary music and art at the Gay Street School, West Chester, will be the featured soprano soloist with the chorus. She is a January graduate of West Chester State Teachers College.

Other Soloists

Other soloists included in the program will be tenor Jack Morley, Genesee; Joanne Broberg, Osceola Mills; William Streett, Delmar, Del.; and Joanna Norris, Lewisburg. A male chorus taken from the Summer Sessions Chorus will also be featured.

The main bulk of the program will fall to the 90-voice student directed choral techniques and advanced conducting chorus. Joan O'Hara and James Madenfort, both of State College, will accompany the group.

First Section

The chorus will present the first section of the program. It will include "Of Thee I Sing," Gershwin; "Sing and Rejoice," James; Song of the Halutzim, arranged by Gaul; "Willie, Take Your Drum," Strickland; "Praise to the Lord," Christiansen; "Ole Ark's A-Move-rin," Cain; "Cindy," arranged by Wilson; and "The Donkey Serenade," Friml.

Mary Walker, soloist, will present several selected numbers, and the male chorus will sing "Ich bin guten Doktor," "If with All Your Hearts," from "The Elijah" by Mendelssohn, will be presented next by Jack Morley, soloist.

The entire chorus will then sing "I Got Plenty O' Nuttin'" by Gershwin. Mary Walker will pre-

Lowry To Deliver Address At 27th Summer Program

Dr. W. McNeil Lowry, chief of the Washington Bureau, James M. Cox newspapers, will deliver the address at the 27th Summer Sessions Commencement program Saturday, Aug. 12. The exercises will start at 10:30 a.m. at Recreation Building.

Approximately 500 will receive diplomas. The candidates are about evenly divided with half receiving Baccalaureate and half Advanced Degrees, according to W. E. Kenworthy, assistant to the president.

The speaker, who has held his present position since 1947, has given addresses at Tulane University, New York University and to various civic groups. He served as a lieutenant in the Navy during the last war.

Dr. Lowry has also been active in education. From 1934 to 1942 he was a member of the department of English, University of Illinois. In 1942 he was appointed an expert consultant on information policies with Headquarters, Army Service Forces, of the War Department.

Shortened Program

In an attempt not to prolong the ceremony, only those receiving Doctorates will be presented their diplomas individually. Candidates for M. A. and B. A. degrees will receive their sheepskins symbolically. One student marshal from each school will accept honors for his entire group. Individual diplomas will be picked up at the Recorder's office after the ceremony.

D. H. McKinley, associate professor of economics and college marshal, has announced plans for the academic procession. All candidates will meet on the Mall between Sparks and Burrowes. Those receiving Doctorates will form directly in front of the li-

(Continued on Page 7)

New Dorms Named, Ready For Completion

The new men's dormitories and the dining hall are expected to be ready for occupancy when the fall semester begins in September, College officials announced yesterday. Meanwhile, Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower, president of the College, reported that the Trustees have named the units after three men who played an important part in the College's early history.

The officials said that the unit facing Recreation Hall has been completed and that the west unit will be finished some time this month. The alterations to Watts, Jordan and Irvin Halls, to which the new dorms will be attached, will also be completed before the fall term begins.

Emergency Plans

However, if some of the rooms in the east unit are not ready for occupancy when the semester opens, students assigned rooms in that unit will be provided with accommodations in accordance with emergency plans now being prepared, the officials said.

Eisenhower announced that the unit across from Recreation Hall

(Continued on Page Two)

Art Students To Exhibit Oil, Water Color Paintings

A dual exhibit of oil and water color paintings will go on display today, continuing through Thursday, Aug. 10.

More than 100 paintings, representing the work of 75 students who studied oil paintings through the Main Summer Session under Hobson Pittman and Dean Stambaugh, will be exhibited today in the Mineral Industries Art Gallery. The display will be open to the public from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. daily. Pittman will present his annual gallery lecture and prize winners will be announced at 8 p.m. tomorrow.

Joseph T. Fraser, director of the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts, Philadelphia, will head a lay jury of three members which will select paintings for awards. The jury will consist of Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower, president of the College; Dr. Marion R. Trabue, dean of the School of Education and director of Summer Sessions; and Dr. Robert G. Bernreuter, professor of psychology.

Public To Vote

Visitors to the gallery today and tomorrow will have a chance to choose their favorites and the artist of the canvas receiving the largest number of votes will receive a special prize.

Included in the oil paintings this year are scenes from State College, Lemont, Boalsburg, Bellefonte, Pine Grove Mills, and nearby communities. Other paintings deal with the abstract, non-objective, and the surrealistic. Some portraits are included.

Approximately 60 water color paintings will be placed on exhibition during the annual water color display which also opens today in 303 Main Engineering

(Continued on Page Six)