Contracts Given For ME Addition

Two wings will be added to the Mechanical Engineering building at the College. Contracts for the buildings, which totaled $790,126, were awarded by the General State Authority.

General construction work was awarded to Henry E. Baton Inc., of Philadelphia and is expected to cost $496,500. Heating equipment costing $96,160 will be installed by Riggs Distler and Company of Philadelphia.

The Hughes Corporation, of Luzerne, was awarded the plumbing contract of $72,090. Electrical appliances, costing $110,507, will be installed by the Electrical Construction Company, of Pittsburgh.

The Otis Elevator Company, of Philadelphia, will install elevators at a cost of $24,869.

Cabinet Ignores—

It was here that Dean Wilson was called upon.

John Erickson, senior class president; Huber Stevens, president of the Home Economics School Council; Marlin Brenner, chairman of the Board of Dramatics and Forensics; and Richard Bard, president of the Association of Independent Men, all concurred with Dean Wilson. Harry Kondourajian, early in the discussion, suggested that a committee be formed to further investigate the matter, but no one seconded the proposal.

Engagements

McGinnis-Heidemann

The engagement of Jean Heidemann to Allen McGinnis was announced this summer. Miss Heidemann, who is from Baltimore, Md., is a senior in psychology. She is a member of Kappa Delta.

Mr. McGinnis, a graduate student in wood utilization, is from Philadelphia. He was president of Kappa Sigma.

Murch-Whitney

The engagement of Luella Whitney, a senior in bacteriology, to Robert Murch, who received his masters degree in chemistry last June, was announced this summer. Miss Whitney, who is from West Springfield, Pa., is vice-president of Alpha Xi Delta.

Mr. Murch who lives in Midland, Mich., is a member of Alpha Chi Sigma.

Rupp-Kern

On September 11, the engagement of Mary Kern to Frank Rupp was announced. Miss Kern, a senior in Home Economics education, is from Erie, Pa. She is secretary of Alpha Xi Delta.

Mr. Rupp is a Penn State graduate in metallurgy. He is a member of Acacia, and his home town is Florence, Alabama.

Weiser-Blum

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Blum of Philadelphia announce the engagement of their daughter, Norma Rae, to Gerard J. Weiser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gaston Weiser of Cairo, Egypt. Miss Blum, a member of the Phi Sigma Sigma sorority, graduated from Penn State in June 1950 and is doing graduate work at the University of Pennsylvania. Mr. Weiser, also a graduate of State, is a member of the Phi Epsilon Pi fraternity.

Coed Committee To Be Organized

The Coed Coordinating committee will be organized this year, Ann Forrest, senior WSGA senator, announced last night.

In the past Chimes, Chimes, and Mortar board members were represented on the committee; but this year WRA, Pan-Hellenic council, WSGA, and Philotes will also have representatives. The vice presidents of these organizations will attend the meetings.

The purpose of the committee is to plan for the Student Faculty Reception which is held in the spring.

On The Clothesline

White Bucks, Tweed Jackets, Appear in Coed's Fashions

By PEG KING
The new look in a coed's Fall wardrobe isn't so new after all when it's pointed out that college men have been wearing the same kind of clothes for years. From the soles of his favorite white bucks to the shoulders of his tweed jacket, brother's clothing has been translated by the female of the species into something to hang in her closet.

Even the well-known trench coat which has braved many a storm on the back of a man, hasn't escaped the female invasion. But, showing their flair for color, the girls have chosen to wear them in bright reds, greens, and blues.

Mens-wear Flannel Popular
Mens-wear gray flannel, the ever-popular fabric now appears in a coed's version in skirts and jackets from the classrooms of Sparks right down to the booths in the Corner Room.

That distinguished gentleman, the letterman, will learn that he's not the only one who can wear heavy sweaters in the well known blue and white hues. Whether he likes it or not, he's almost bound to find his own proudly displayed heavy sweater copied many a time as girls once again try to prove that it isn't entirely a man's world.

Tartan Plaids Sweep Campus
Tartan plaids have come into their own for all collegiates. Both the male and his female counterpart are helping sweep the campus by storm with outlandishly colorful plaid jackets. But, we're waiting for the brave man who sports a plaid dinner jacket.

The famed green dink sported by freshmen too has been adopted by the coed as a polo hat. Whether in bright corduroy, plaids or colorful felt, it's sure to make a hit on campus.

All in all, it's a man's world this Fall. Or is it?

Boerlin To Head Harrisburg Confab

Irving C. Boerlin, supervisor of audio-visual aids at the College, will serve today as temporary chairman of the Audio-Visual Instruction Directors' Conference in Harrisburg. Problems related to the administration of audio-visual programs in schools and colleges of the commonwealth will be discussed.

Also representing Penn State are Dr. A. W. VanderMeer, associate professor of education, and David Pugh, in charge of instruction under Central Extension.

The conference is scheduled to last through tomorrow and will be highlighted by a dinner meeting. The organization was founded April 15, 1950 by a group meeting in State College.

Frosh Party Set

An overnight cabin party for all freshman will be held next Saturday with Dr. T. Z. Koo, professor of oriental culture at Iowa State, as speaker. Interested persons may sign up today at the PSCA office, 304 Old Main. The group will leave 2 p.m. Saturday from Old Main.
