

Engagements

Glaser-Haring

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Haring of Morton have announced the engagement of their daughter, Marion, to John Glaser of Lansdowne. Miss Haring is a junior at the college and a member of Phi Mu sorority. Mr. Glaser is now attending school in Cleveland, Ohio.

Final Rush Week To Begin Sunday

The final week of sorority rushing will begin Sunday when the sororities will be "at home" from 2 to 5 p.m. Rushees must be invited by the sorority to attend.

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday coke dates will be held in the afternoons, while from 11 to 12 a.m. women may visit any sorority without invitation. This is being done so that rushees may visit sororities they missed during open houses.

Rushing will end Friday evening when each sorority will hold two coffee hours. Members will call for rushees, and cars may be used.

Preferential cards may be filled out in the office of the Dean of Women Friday from 9:30 to 10:30 p.m. and Saturday from 9 a.m. to noon. Sororities will pick up list Sunday at 4 p.m., and ribboning will follow at 7 p.m.

Pi Lambda Phi

Pi Lambda Phi fraternity announces the initiation of the following men: Edward Schaitkin, Marvin Horoff, Gene Kolber, Chic Lintz, Al Tarlow, Harry Taback, Ronnie Youngerman, Jerry Clair. Officers elected include: William Zeidner, rex; Marv Slomowitz, archon; Phil Lurie, k. of e.; Marv Horoff, scribe; and Ron Wahl, marshal.

Ball Carriers--

(Continued from page three) product of California State Teachers College, seems to have the inside edge for the task, mainly on the basis of his showing against Cornell. Shattuck will, however, have to beat off the efforts of Jim Pollard, a hard-driving junior, and Herb Kurtz, a 6-foot, 2-inch, 200-pound senior.

Dougherty, who rolled up 519 yards last year, can count on relief from Chan Johnson, a junior and the fourth backfield letterman, and George Jacob, a fast-stepping senior.

Back in action after almost two weeks of inactivity, Orsini has shown the drive and speed that could make him one of the most potent weapons in Engle's bag of tricks. Tony is backed up by speedster Earle Mundell, and Bob Pollard, a sophomore with great promise.

Coed Voting Week To Begin Oct. 9

Election week for WSGA and WRA members will begin Oct. 9, announced Barbara Sprenkle and Mary Ellen Grube presidents of the associations.

A mass nomination meeting will be held on Oct. 9 when the slate of the nominating committee will be announced and additional nominations may be made from the floor.

Nominees will be introduced to all women students during house meetings on Oct. 10.

The primary elections will be held on Oct. 11 and the final votes will be cast Oct. 13.

The WSGA election will fill the freshman and sophomore vacancies in the Senate. The sophomore member will serve as treasurer. An additional freshman senator will be appointed.

Four members of the WRA Executive Board will be elected. The unfilled positions are secretary-treasurer, sophomore representative, and two freshman representatives.
