

AEPi, Phi Delts Garner Opening IM Football Wins

Alpha Epsilon Pi, Phi Delta Theta, Phi Kappa Tau, and Phi Kappa Psi came through with victories last night as the 1950 IM touch football season got under way.

Sigma Chi was the victim of the AEPi's by a count of 6-0 in the evening's finale. In the openers, Phi Delta Theta squeezed by Lambda Chi Alpha, 7-6; Phi Kappa Tau scored early to dump SAM, 13-0; and Phi Kappa Psi outpassed Phi Gamma Delta, 6-0. In IM play, all losing teams are immediately out of the running.

The second round of intramural touch football will get under way tonight with eight more fraternity squads seeing action.

Starting at 7 p.m., Delta Upsi-on will meet Triangle; at 7:45, Sigma Pi vs. Tau Kappa Epsilon; at 8:30, Pi Kappa Alpha vs. Phi Sigma Delta; and at 9:15, Acacia vs. Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

This fall's intramural action will break all records for number of men participating. In touch football 47 fraternities and 47 independent teams have entered. In swimming 45 fraternities and 14 independents, and in tennis singles competition 90 fraternity men and 40 independents are enrolled.

Tony Orsini

Anthony (Tony) Orsini has more than his share of big days to remember when he reminisces over his many high school athletic feats.

His latest and greatest big day, however, came three weeks ago, when he slipped an engagement ring on th third finger left hand of his lady love.

Although Tony is looking forward to a successful season in his last year of collegiate football, the loose-hipped halfback will have to go some to outdo his 1947 achievements. In that year he was awarded the Nobe Frank player of the year award, presented annually to the outstanding football player in the Harrisburg area; then, too, in 1947, he received the Oldtimers' Scroll as the outstanding athlete in central Pennsylvania.

Scores 30 Touchdowns
Of course, he likes to think back to the school record he set, by scoring 30 touchdowns in one year.

Besides his four letters for varsity football, Orsini pulled in three for track, two for baseball, and one for basketball.

Tony had to overcome a big handicap this year to get back into Rip Engle's starting lineup. Three weeks ago he separated his right shoulder in a scrimmage. The injury kept him sidelined for about a week and a half.

Earl Bruce's Frosh Squad Absorbing Winged-T System

Coach Earl Bruce's freshman football squad, just a jumble of high school players two weeks ago, is now beginning to assume the shape of a well-balanced team with Penn State's new winged-T formation forming the framework.

After two weeks of intensive drilling in the intricacies of the new system, the frosh are beginning to develop the smoothness and timing that is essential to a good T team.

With two good intra-squad scrimmages under their belts, Bruce has been able to get a pretty good line on his men.

Bob Szajna has looked good in the past week's scrimmage and appears as the leading candidate for the all-important quarterback slot. Behind him are signal-callers Frank Minana and Hugh Jones.

Dave Yeakel, 215 pound center, is fighting off the bid of Rudy Radasinovich for the starting pivot position. Amon Hassen and Pete Schoderbek are running ahead of Cy Brown and Don Mitchell at the guard positions.

Tony Kustinavage and Ron Bressan are in leading contention for the starting tackle roles, while Jimmy Russell and Don Malinak are the No. 1 men at the terminal posts.

The backfield lines up with Szajna at quarter, Don Eyer at halfback, Nick Firda at wingback, backed by Jimmy Finn, Pete Shopa, and Wayne Wolfkeil at fullback.
