

Sororities End Rushing Today

Nancy George

Formal sorority rushing will end with coffee hours, tonight, and ribboning of women will take place Sunday night announced Nancy George, president of the panhellenic council.

Each sorority will entertain at two formal coffee hours, one from 6 to 7:30 and another from 8 to 9:30 p.m. Rushes may sign preference cards at the Dean of Women's Office from 9:30 to 10:30 tonight and from 9 a.m. to noon Saturday. Sorority bids must be turned in to the dean's office by 10:30 p.m. today.

Lists of prospective pledges will be issued to each sorority at 4 p.m. Sunday. A written invitation for each woman on the list must be turned in by the group and will be distributed by members of the panhellenic post office. At 7 p.m. one member of the sorority may call for each ribbonee.

A strict silent period between sorority members and non-sorority women will be enforced from Monday at 8 a.m. until Monday, October 16 at 8 a.m. when open bidding will begin.

AIM To Give Football Hop

The Association of Independent Men will sponsor the "Touchdown Hop" in Recreation Hall from 8:30 to 12 midnight this Saturday after the first football game of the season. Admission will be free.

The forming of an independent orchestra was long the goal of the independent governing body and was finally realized when the present aggregation was formed and played at two of AIM's dances last Spring. This year, the band has been enlarged to 19 pieces, including three violins. Nine members of the freshman and sophomore classes are now playing with the band.

Inaugural Ball To Be Informal

An informal Inaugural ball in honor of President Eisenhower will be held in Recreation hall Thursday night to conclude inauguration celebrations on campus, announced Curtis Wessner, co-chairman of inauguration proceedings.

Cwens To Hold Dungaree Drag

Recreation Hall will wear its oldest clothes on Oct. 14, when the annual Dungaree Drag is held. The "Drag", sponsored by Cwens, sophomore women's honorary, is a girl-ask-boy affair. There will be dancing from 9 to 12 p.m. to the music of Gene Magill's orchestra.

Dungarees and slacks will be height of fashion that night, and all the girls are asked to make corsages for their dates. Anything from vegetables to tissue paper and tin foil may be used for the corsage. Prizes will be awarded.

There will be entertainment and refreshments during intermission. Tickets are $1.50 per couple.

It's fun to knit

It's fun to knit your own socks, sweater, or mittens. And it's so easy and economical, too.

So, put your spare time to good use by knitting now the things you and your friends will need to keep them warm this winter.

You can choose from our wide variety of pattern books. Then select the yarn you'll need from our complete line of exciting, new colors. Or select one of the many yarn packs, already to knit, complete with pattern and yarn — for socks, sweaters, mittens, and ties.

We carry Bernat, Beehive, Columbia, and Botany yarns in wool and nylon . . . and many other new and different knitting materials. We also have a wide selection of knitting books, needles, and knitting bags.
