 courtyard and built a bonfire to burn their dinks and name cards. Then the freshmen went to senior walk where several speakers tried to get the attention of the crowd. The freshmen dispersed shortly after Gene Kolber, an officer of Druids, had urged them to do so.

A sign was noticed on the balcony of Thompson hall this morning urging all frosh to march in mass to the pep rally to be held tonight in front of Old Main. The sign was removed shortly before noon yesterday.

PSCA Work Party

The Penn State Christian Association will hold a work party tomorrow afternoon.

The purpose of the party will be to paint a schoolhouse in a neighboring community. All students wishing to join the party should sign up in the PSCA office, third floor Old Main by 5 p.m. today.

The car taking the students to the neighboring town will leave Old Main at 1:15 p.m. tomorrow.

Hoyas Hit---

 completed 67 out of 148 attempts. Mattingly will probably see plenty of game time before the afternoon is over.

Hardiman, a senior, and Mattingly, a junior, will be working with a flock of sophomores headed by scatback Jim Thompson, 165-pound left halfback; right halfback Clem Riegers, and hard-hitting Gino Paglucia, fullback. Backfield reserves include Jack O'Mahoney and Ralph Charney, sophomores, and Bob Versperille, a senior.

Despite the transfer of Noppinger to tackle the Hoyas will field two smooth pass catchers in Gus Fornaciara and Dick Losh. A 6-foot, 3-inch giant, Noppinger was an all-East end last year but has been playing like a veteran at his new post.
