

Frosh Marched To Rally

(Continued from page one) about 6:30 o'clock and then marched across the parking lot to Hamilton hall. There they were stopped momentarily by several other hatmen but they quickly swarmed inside.

Once inside, they met opposition from Frank Simes, head of the West dorms resident counselors, who told them at the main door to McKee hall that everyone who did not live in the dorms should "get out."

Frosh and upperclassmen were massed before the Lion shrine after most of the dorms had been scouted by hatmen, and a short rally was held with Edwin Lefkowitz leading cheers. Fast told the crowd they were to march to Fairmount and Allen streets to join the Blue band in the parade to the pep rally in front of Old Main.

The crowd—about 600 strong at this point—then marched past the Pattee library, down the Mall, and south on Allen street to join the parade. At the marshalling area, freshmen loudly objected when All-College Vice-President Harry Kondourajian announced that frosh would march behind hatmen in the parade. Positions were changed and the parade went on in an orderly fashion.

Many freshmen who did not leave the dorms immediately at the call of hatmen later went out to join the rally. However, not all left their rooms.

There was no violence and not much rough-neck activity. At least one water bomb was dropped and glass was broken in three Thompson hall fire alarm boxes.

One upperclassman, mistaken for a frosh by hatmen, began throwing punches. After released, he protested to a Collegian reporter that he did not think anyone had a right to enter another man's room and molest him.

Some roughing up was done by freshmen who dragged their fellow frosh along to the rally. Hatmen made use of a siren to alert frosh.

Lock Doors

A number of doors were found locked and hatmen, after vain attempts to force an entry, left quickly.

Several reports that the raid had interrupted Friday night study hours at McKee hall were heard.

Fast said the real reason for the raid was to get frosh out en masse for pep rallies.

Class Changes

Child Family 18, taught by Dr. William Smith, will meet in 121 Sparks at 2:10 p.m. beginning Monday and Tuesday. Both sections of the course were scheduled to meet in 105 White hall.

Engle To Address Freshman Group

Football coach Charles "Rip" Engle will speak at the meeting of the PSCA Freshman council Monday night at 7:30 in 304 Old Main.

The council has been organized into five committees under Lois Keener, chairman of all PSCA freshman activities. Tentative meeting dates for these committees are: contact committee and publicity committee, Wednesday at 4 p.m.; recreation committee, Thursday at 4 p.m., and devotions committee and program committee, Friday at 4 p.m.

'New Era' Used For Lawn Theme

"The New Era" will be the theme of this year's fraternity lawn displays during Homecoming Weekend, it was decided by Interfraternity council at Tuesday's meeting.

The theme will probably feature the angles of Engle, Eisenhower, and prohibition.

Harold Leinbach, council president, appointed Clair George, Tau Kappa Epsilon, council parliamentarian at the meeting.

John Booth, Kappa Delta Rho, inaugural participation committee chairman, announced that Beta Theta Pi, winners of last year's Interfraternity Pan-Hellenic sing, will sing at the inaugural ball.

Foreign Students

Foreign students on campus for the first time should report to Mrs. Rebecca Doerner, 3 Willard Hall immediately.

Information concerning the arrival of these students at the College must be forwarded to the immigration authorities.

Meetings

Today
GRADUATE STUDENTS club, 8 p.m. 304 Old Main, preliminary organization.

Monday
ALPHA KAPPA PSI business meeting, 7 p.m. 218 Willard hall.
PENN STATE FARMER, 7 p.m. 109 Ag building, Junior board and candidates.
4-H club square dance, 7 p.m. 100 Horticulture building.
COLLEGIAN junior editorial board, 7 p.m. 8 Carnegie hall.
COLLEGIAN senior editorial board, 8 p.m. 8 Carnegie hall.

Beaver College Head To Speak

Dr. Raymon Kistler, president of Beaver College, Jenkintown, Pa., will speak at chapel services tomorrow at 11 a.m. in Schwab auditorium. The subject of his sermon will be "The Need of the Hour."

The chapel choir, under the direction of Willa Taylor and accompanied by George Ceiga at the organ, will present special musical selections including the anthem "The Lord is My Light" by Gretchaninoff.

Dr. Kistler, a graduate of Westminster college and the Pittsburgh Theological Seminary, is well known as a churchman, lecturer, author, and educator. Before he became president of Beaver college in 1940, he was pastor of the Central Presbyterian church in Rochester, N.Y.

Dr. Kistler, in addition to his duties at the college, serves as president of the Pennsylvania Council of Churches, regional director for the Japanese Christian university, president of the Cheltenham Township civic association, and director of the Abington Y.M.C.A. He has long been active in church and civic work and has traveled in Europe, Africa, and Palestine.

Blue Band To Make First Appearance At Grid Fray

The first presentation of this year's Blue Band will be made at Beaver Field for the Georgetown football game today. The 96-piece band will make its initial appearance at 1:50 p.m. to play the national anthem before the kickoff.

The half-time program will feature the Alma Mater, welcome to the Hoyas, and a special routine in honor of Rip Engle.

The band will accompany the football team on two trips this year, West Point and Pittsburgh. Drum major Jay Lucas, will begin his fourth year leading the band this afternoon.

Directors are James W. Dunlop and Prof. Hummel Fishburn.

Members of the Blue Band are David Fishburn, James Bartolotto, C. Richard Brewer, Wesley Kriebel, William Stackhouse, Harry Ennis, Clark Breeding, Harry Neuhard, trombones. Donald Felker, Thomas Stayer, John Swartz, Robert Hartmann, Richard Bingaman, Edward Kleypis, William Stambaugh, and Darrell Rishel, baritone.

John Seiforth, Donald Cutler, Robert Swisshelm, Myron Mueller, Ralph Egolf, Ernest Stable, Scott von Wolfardt, and John Hule, French horns. Hubert Hangh, George Georgieff, John Moore, Carl Patchin, C. Mark Plank, John Ritchey, Frank Chiappetta, and Walter Greenawald, basses.

Raymond Dombrowski, Robert Katz, Leo Curto, Russell DiMarco,

Norman Charles, Darwin Bristline, E. Tyson Brown, Charles Brouse, Donald Miller, and Richard Kartlick, tenor and baritone saxophones.

Richard Shirk, Thomas Richards, William Shrum, Richard Harris, Richard Gray, Ronald Cline, Charles Miller, and Arnold Papparazo, drums; George Parker, Richard Stinson, Richard Young, and Ted Garner, piccolos.

Joseph Streamer, Richard Crosby, Donald Mattern, Thomas Hahn, John Wolfe, John Reitmeyer, George Hill, Edward Roch, Ernest Skopper, Richard Boerlin, Robert Betts, Michael Kandra, David Bronstein, Rudy Piacentino, Samuel Shilling, William Potts, Stefan Schreiber, Royal Fisher, John Flynn, Richard Jacobs, John Jenkins, and Lawrence Wexlin, clarinets.

Marlin Ristenbutt, Lewis Rovasek, Edward Reeder, Richard Tolada, Eugene Magill, Keith Hyatt, Allan May, William Hess, David Margolf, Ira Yoder, Robert Marsh, John Leister, Jack Logue, Robert Gohn, Kenneth Fehr, James Colonna, Ronald Sauer, Eugene Thomas, Jack Ludwick, and Samuel Moldovan, cornets.

Football Fortunes In A New Era

Amid talk of a "new era in Penn State football," Rip Engle will unveil the 1950 edition of the Nittany Lions. But more than being the 1950 edition, the team that will represent Penn State on the football field this afternoon will be a new volume.

THE FOOTBALL stories of 1950 will be filled with new names, and talk of winged-T. Many of the stories may not be too pleasant to read. And the games they tell about may be even less to play in.

Very simply, the task facing Rip Engle this year is not an easy one. Faced with the loss of the bulk of last year's team, the problems of switching State from its traditional single-wing to the winged-T, and of converting a hoard of single-wing players to the new formation, Engle has faced a job that might have licked lesser men.

Some men might have looked at what Rip Engle was blessed with when he took over the job, tossed their hands skyward, and walked off. Instead, he has with dynamic spirit and intensity of purpose molded a unit that, if nothing else, will be a fighting one every inch, every minute of the way. That's the way Rip Engle teaches football, and that is the way his boys will play it.

PENN STATE faces a long climb back up the road that leads to football supremacy. The way will not be easy or strewn with garlands. The going will be rough and uncertain. There's only one thing within the realm of certainty—and that is; that given the proper cooperation from the administration, the alumni, and the student body, Rip Engle will produce a winner for Penn State.

—Marv Krasnansky

The Daily Collegian

Successor to THE FREE LANCE, est. 1887
Published Tuesday through Saturday mornings inclusive during the College year by the staff of The Daily Collegian of The Pennsylvania State College.

Entered as second-class matter July 5, 1934, at the State College, Pa., Post Office under the act of March 3, 1879.

Dean Gladfelter Editor Owen E. Landon Business Mgr.

STAFF THIS ISSUE

Night Editor: Ron Bonn; Assistant Night Editor: Pat Nutter; Copy Editor: Rosemary Delahanty; Assistants: Bob Fraser, Lee Stern, Dot Bennett.

Advertising Staff: Manager: Judy Grossman; Assistants: Stefanie Herlitz, Pete Johnson, George Duff.

THE CENTRE COUNTY FILM LABORATORY

122 West Beaver Avenue
State College, Pennsylvania

Home of Distinctive Photography

EVERYTHING

PHOTOGRAPHIC

- A Complete Line of Photographic Supplies
- One Day Photo Finishing Service
- Film Rental Library
- Guaranteed Camera Repair

We Finance Those High Priced Items

STARLITE

DRIVE-IN

ON BELLEFONTE ROAD

Shows 7:30 and 9:30 p.m.

SHOWING TONIGHT
DOUBLE FEATURE

"SONG OF INDIA"
Sabu

"RIMFIRE"

James Milligan & Mary Beth Hughes

Also Selected Short Subjects

SUNDAY and MONDAY

"FOREVER AMBER"

with

LINDA DARNELL
CORNEL WILDE

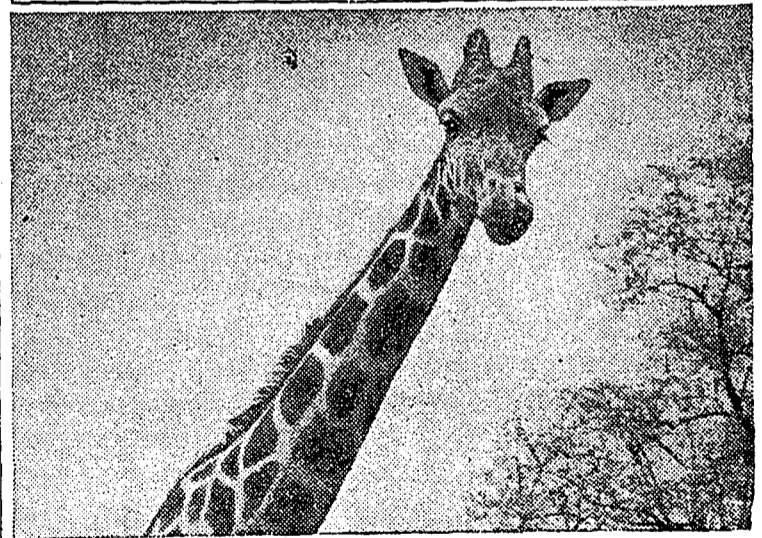

Also Selected Short Subjects

"A pleasant drive—
a Pleasant Time"

at

STARLITE DRIVE-IN

J. Paul Sheedy* Switched to Wildroot Cream-Oil Because He Flunked The Finger-Nail Test

SHEEDY WAS NERDY! He was the worst neck on campus, and everybody looked down on him the minute they spotted his messy hair. Poor Paul was gonna zoo somebody until he heard about Wildroot Cream-Oil. Now, he's head and shoulders above every guy at school! Non-alcoholic Wildroot with Lanolin keeps hair neat and well-groomed all day long. Relieves annoying dryness, removes loose, ugly dandruff. So don't overlook Wildroot Cream-Oil hair tonic. Necks time you visit the nearest drug or toilet goods counter, get a bottle or tube of Wildroot. And giraffe your barber for professional applications. For a generous trial supply, free, send this ad with your name and address to Dept. DC, Wildroot Co., Inc., Buffalo 11, N. Y.

* of 327 Burroughs Dr., Snyder, N. Y.

Wildroot Company, Inc., Buffalo 11, N. Y.

