

Jeffrey men Oppose Bucknell In Opener

The twenty-fifth Bill Jeffrey coached soccer team will take the field tomorrow in the opener of the 1950 season at Lewisburg, Pa., the home of Bucknell university.

The Lions will be top-heavy favorites as they attempt to make Bisons No. 15 in their string of consecutive victories. The undefeated streak began early in the 1948 season and will continue, Jeffrey hopes, for a long, long time.

Last year, State swept through an eight game season and tied the Pacific Coast champion, San Francisco, for national honors in the Soccer Bowl in St. Louis on Jan. 1. This year the schedule has been enlarged to ten contests.

The chances of adding these ten games to the credit side of the ledger seem better than fair since eight former lettermen return to bolster the Nittany Valley powerhouse. Five of these men will form the forward line in tomorrow's opener, which would serve to indicate that the offense will be very strong this year.

Captain Harry Little will lead this unit from his inside left spot. His running mate will be Ron Coleman, the only junior in the lineup. Joe Lane will open at the center forward slot. Gus Biggott will handle the chores for the left wing position and Clarence Buss will work on the right.

The halfback line will be composed mostly of sophomores. Frank Fulmer will see his first collegiate action on the right side. Kurt Klaus will start at center half for his initial game. The left halfback position will be in doubt right up to gametime and it may be either veteran George Emig or sophomore Jack Charlton.

Another sophomore, Jay Simmons will open his collegiate career tomorrow at fullback. Jack Kurty will probably open at the other fullback post. Bill Yerkes, a veteran performer will not be able to make this trip, temporarily weakening the defense.

Ron Coder will be the goalkeeper. Ron has been impressive in the pre-season drills and appears to be headed for a great year.

Former Lion Ace Gets Soccer Job

Major Robert O. Graham, Jr., former Penn State all-American soccer star, has been appointed soccer coach at Stanford University it was announced by Al Masters, graduate manager of athletics at Stanford.

Graham played his soccer for Bill Jeffrey and was a member of the undefeated championship team in 1934. In 1935 he was selected as left fullback on the all-American team.

Graham is now a member of the regular army and is serving as assistant professor of military science and tactics.

Students Offered Canoe Race Bid

Penn State canoeing enthusiasts have been invited to participate in a 40-mile canoe race on the Susquehanna River Saturday, Oct 14, as a part of the annual Lock Haven Flaming Foliage Festival.

Invitations sent to 33 colleges in the State, as well as to a number of boat clubs, have requested that entries be sent to Charles Engle, Emporium, Pa.

The two-man crews will take off at the Keating landing and finish downstream at Lock Haven. The winning entry will be awarded a $200 Old Town canoe or its cash equivalent. Cash prizes will also be given to second and third place winners.

Entrants under 21 years of age must show parental consent on their blanks.

Frosh Open Grid Season In Away Game Tomorrow

Penn State's freshman football team will leave for Kingston shortly after practice this afternoon for the opening game with Wyoming Seminary tomorrow afternoon.

Coach Earl Bruce will take 35 men to Kingston to play Penn State's first freshman game in nine years.

If the Nittany Lion squad receives the opening kickoff, Bruce will probably start Don Malinak and Jimmy "Digger" Russell at ends, Ron Bressan and either Tom McCurdy or Joe Pascarella at the tackles, Amen Hassen and Pete Schoderbek at the guards, and Dave Yeakel at the pivot post.

In the backfield, Bob Szajna will take over the signal calling role at quarterback with either Don Eyer or Nick Firda at wing-back, Jimmy Finn at left half and Pete Shopa at fullback.

The defensive squad will line up with Malinak and Russell at the terminal posts, Hugh Brown and Tom McCurdy at tackles, Schoderbek and Don Mitchell at guards and Rudy Radasinovich at center.

Bill Gallihue, Firda, Wayne Wolfkeil and Dick Jones will round out the defensive backfield. Szajna, Finn, Frank Minana and Eyer will take care of the frosh's kicking chores.

Bill Jeffrey's soccer team enrolled Penn State's only unbeaten record during the 1949-50 sports year.
