

Big Three Of Army Attack

THREE OF THE MEN who make the Army mule kick are halfback Jim Cain (left), Captain and all-American end Dan Foldberg (right), and fullback Gil Stephenson. Foldberg, now in his final season with the Cadeis has been called "the best offensive end I've ever coached," by Earl Blaik, while Cain and Stephenson are two mercury-footed touchdown couriers.

Jeff Opens 25th Year Against Bisons Today

While the Nittany gridmen will meet one of the most powerful teams in the country at Michie Stadium today, the situation will be reversed at Lewisburg, Pa., where the State soccer men, also boasting one of the most powerful teams in the country, are favored over Bucknell.

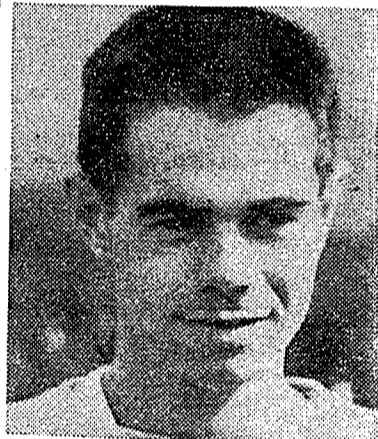

Coach Bill Jeffrey will direct a team composed mostly of veterans in the initial fray of the 1950 season. A well-experienced forward line will be supported by a defense spotted with 1949 holdovers.

Three sophomores will see their first action as a Jeffrey unit. Frank Fulmer will start at right halfback with Kurt Klaus his running mate at center half. Jay Simmons will be at the left fullback spot.

All other starters are lettermen. Ron Coder will be the goalkeeper. Jack Kurty will probably play right fullback and team with Simmons. Jack and Coder are both seniors. The left halfback slot will be in doubt until gametime, and may be either George Emig or Jack Charlton. Emig is a senior and Charlton a sophomore.

The forward line will be highlighted by Captain Harry Little, who after watching the toss of the coin, will step into his inside right position. Little was chosen as all-American in 1949. At inside left will be Ron Coleman, a junior. Joe Lane will be at center forward again this year. Joe is a senior.

The wing positions will be occupied by Clarence Buss, who will run on the right, and Gus Biggott who handles the chores on the left side.

Vet X-Country Team Boosted As Good Bet

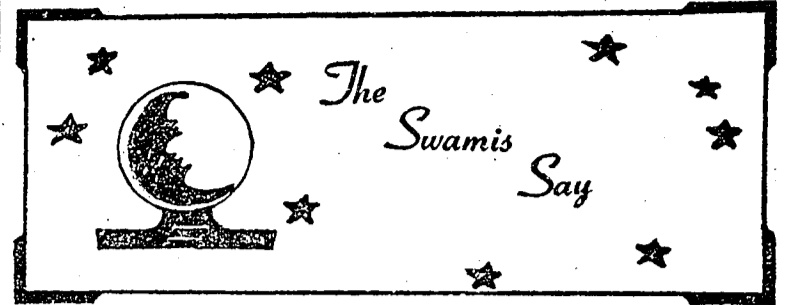

With eight varsity lettermen returning to action for Coach Chick Werner's cross country squad the outlook for the 1950 harrier season appears promising, to say the least.

Don and Bill Ashenfelter, Al Porto, Bob Parsons, Bob Freebairn, Jack St. Clair, Bill Gordon, and Jack McCall, all veterans of the successful 1949 season, and newcomers Dudley Foster, Jack Horner, Vic Singer, and Dave Pierson will rate the Nittanies as favorites for all dual meets and one of the top choices for the NCAA crown.

Werner's harriers will face Michigan State, Manhattan, N.Y.U., Cornell, and Pittsburgh in dual competition.

The swamis' averages were dealt a sudden jolt last weekend which sent them tumbling downward. Sports editor Ray Koehler, Marv Krasnansky, and George Glazer are in a three-way deadlock for top position with a .555 average, while Art Benning trails with .500.

Head football coach Rip Engle is in the guest swamis' chair this week.

"THEN THE DATE'S OFF!"

If this were literally so . . . we'd put our excess profits into a new stadium and any needed new buildings for your school . . . but really, . . . a TOOTSIE ROLL or two does please any student . . . and his date. Delicious, chocolaty flavor. Truly, good candy!
