

Deadline For Ball Queen Is Saturday

Saturday is the deadline for submitting pictures of candidates for the title of Belle Hop Ball Queen. The ball, an annual affair, will be held at Recreation Hall on October 21. It is sponsored by the Greeters, an organization of hotel administration students.

Rule for entering girls in the contest are:

1. Any group or organization on campus may sponsor a coed.
2. Groups wishing to enter girls will bring or mail pictures, but not snapshots with the name of the girl and the organization sponsoring her to the hotel administration office, Home Economics Building.
3. The pictures will be judged by a panel of impartial judges, and five finalists will be selected.
4. The winner, to be selected from the five finalists, will be chosen by popular applause at the ball.
5. The winner will be awarded the Belle Hop Ball's cup.

Phi Kappa

New Phi Kappa pledges include: Paul Eckert, John Feeney, Charles Frame, Walter Hall, Richard Hochreiter, Robert Luckesavage, William O'Malley, Carl Sova, Joseph Ryniewicz, Thomas Stegner, Robert Stern, David Walsh and Joseph Zohora.

Because the entire team with one exception is a veteran outfit, they have decided not to elect a captain for the entire season, but name a new one for each meet. Al Porto, of Ambridge, will captain the team against the Panthers.

Penn State teams have an enviable record of never finishing any worse than fourth in the national championships. The Lion thinclads copped the coveted title twice since Werner has been coach. The national championship teams of '42 and '47 may be surpassed by the performance of this year's team if the recent time trials are any criteria of what is to come.
