

Majorette Adds To Orange Glow, Lends Punch To Halftime Show

Frosh Trackmen Jolt Pitt, 19 1/2-35 1/2

Pittsburgh's highly touted freshman runners showed little justification of their press notices as the Penn State cross-country team went on to win handily, 19 1/2 - 35 1/2, at Pitt Saturday.

In a fine display of team work, three of Norm Gordon's charges, Don Bagby, Bob Hollen, and Carl Godshall, swept across the finish line simultaneously to win in the fast time of 16:57 over the rain-soaked, hilly three-mile course.

Godshall, Garret Duel

Bagby and Hollen stepped out in front from the start and were never headed. Godshall, however, had a real battle. For two miles he jockeyed with the Panther 1949 PIAA cross-country champion, Ted Garret. After two miles Garret folded and Godshall moved up with his front-running mates. The trio then rolled the last mile together and finally joined hands to jog past the last line.

Pitt's Delligatti copped fourth, seconds ahead of State's Pete Judd, who garnered the fifth and last scoring position. However, he had to be content with a tie with the loser's Betts. Judd fought a valiant stretch duel and appeared to have won the verdict but officials ruled a dead heat.

Summary: 1, Hollen, Bagby, Godshall, PS; 4, Delligatti, Pitt; 5, Judd, PS and Betts, Pitt; 7, Garret, Pitt; 8, Cressman, PS; 9, Omrod, PS.

Jordans Swim To IM Victory

Delta Tau Delta, Dorm 13, and Jordan Hall merlads copped swimming victories in a tri-dual meet yesterday afternoon at Glennland Pool.

In the opener Delta Tau Delta won by forfeit over Phi Kappa Tau; Dorm 13 also won via the forfeit route over the Night Hawks; and Jordan Hall edged the Aquamen, 25-14.

Yesterday's meet officially opened the IM swimming campaign for the independents. Jordan Hall's Ken Parker displayed some spectacular low-board diving for the winners.

Most of the races were close and the winners in many cases were determined by a hand.

Officials for yesterday's meet were announcer, "Dutch" Sykes; scorer, Bud Cupe, timers, Phil Klocek and Paul Flamm; and judges Ray Hagy and Bob Long.

On today's IM swimming card six fraternity teams are slated to see action. Delta Upsilon vs. Theta Chi; Phi Kappa Sigma vs. Alpha Chi Rho; and Acacia vs. Alpha Zeta. This meet will mark the beginning of the second round of competition for the fraternity mermen.

Syracuse really goes all out for the Orange. Even the street lights on the approach to the city are of that hue. The lights didn't look too bad Friday night, but most of the 700 Penn State fans got out of town before dark Sunday so they wouldn't be haunted by the eerie glimmers.

From outside the press box looking in, a casual glance would have observed Statemen Charlie Speidel, "Ike" Gilbert, Lou Bell, Ridge Riley, Ed Watson, and Marv Krasnansky looking like a coroner's jury during most of the game.

When the Orange held the Lions from scoring after hammering out a first down on the three yard line, a spotter handed the play-by-play announcer for Station WSAE a hastily written note. He glanced at it, and went back to his description of the goal line stand with renewed vigor. The note read "Make like Bill Stern."

Binoculars were in great demand during the halftime entertainment put on by the Syracuse university band, which features drum majorette Dotty Grover.

Dotty, in addition to being national sweetheart of Sigma Chi and a recent cover girl for Look magazine, can twirl a hot baton. When the stadium lights are completely blacked out, the blonde sophomore beauty does a flaming baton-twirling act. Syracuse thinks enough of her talent and beauty to give her a four year scholarship and a convertible.

Bob Koleser, who kicks through the uprights for the Orange, missed his second conversion of the season after 25 consecutive successful kicks. His miss followed a fifteen yard penalty which made the attempt practically a long field goal attempt. His first miss in this season cost Syracuse a tie in the 7-6 loss to Temple two weeks ago.

Action Again Flares Up On IM Gridiron Battlefield

After three postponements because of muddy grounds and altogether impossible playing conditions, intramural touch football play went back into action again last night. Phi Kappa Tau, Beaver

House, Phi Delta Theta, and the Aristocrats emerged as victors in their scheduled contests.

Phi Kappa Tau, with Ed Diddlebock taking over the passing assignment, downed Alpha Phi Delta, 7-0, for its second league win. Sigma Alpha Mu was the Phi Tau's first victim, 13-0. In the second game of the evening, Penn Haven dropped a 6-0 encounter to Beaver House.

Bill Aiken led the Phi Delta Theta squad to a 13-0 triumph over Sigma Phi Alpha with a brilliant exhibition of passing. The Phi Deltas also were aided by some fancy running on the part of Pickett. In the evening's finale at 9:15, the Aristocrats edged out Dorm 29 in overtime, 1-0.

Explaining this tie-breaking intramural rule: If the regulation game ends in a tie score the ball is placed on the fifty-yard line.

Each team is allowed three plays to move the ball into its opponent's territory. The plays are run off alternately, and the squad upon whose side the ball rests after the completion of the sixth play becomes the loser.

Tonight's schedule pits Dorm 33 against the Penn State Club at 7 o'clock; Sigma Nu, last season's touch football champs, meets Alpha Sigma Phi at 7:45; at 8:30 the Dragons play Dorm 21; and Omega Psi Phi battles Delta Tau Delta in the finale at 9:15.
