

BY RAY KOEHLER Sports Editor

An uninitiated onlooker to Saturday's soccer clash between Penn State and Western Mary-land may have likened the scene to a group of boys in short pants manipulating a ball the size and color of a small pumpkin with the conscientious dexterity of a Nijinsky.

But to a close follower of Nittany soccer it meant just one thing—Coach Bill Jeffrey, in his 25th term as booting mentor on the Nittany campus, has come up with another smashing offensive squad which will once again threaten for national honors.

Although the score of 3 to 1 in favor of the Lions was relatively small for a Penn State soccer team, it still did not come any-where near giving an indication of the Lions' odds on superiority against the Green Terrors.

Over three-quarters of the time the Nittany squad, gener-ated by the magnificent play-setting of All-American Harry Little and Clarence Buss, was operating deep within enemy territory. When, on occasion, the southern team did manage to bring the ball up over the midfield line, it was only to find their best laid plans smashed by a trio of rugged defensive killjoys in Frank Follmer, George 'Red' Emig, and Kurt Klaus.

Before the game it was not a question of which team was going question of which team was going to win but, rather, would Western Maryland have the defensive po-wer to stop Jeffrey's hotshots which so far this season have been paced by a blond whirlwind named Joe Lane. Difficial statistics for the first the toga of Bob Blaik as the Nit-bean paced by a blond whirlwind named Joe Lane. Difficial statistics for the first the toga of Bob Blaik as the Nit-pass defense in anticipation of an the toga of Bob Blaik as the Difficult to strove to tighten its pass defense in anticipation of an the toga of Bob Blaik as the Difficult to strove to tighten its pass defense in anticipation of an the toga of Bob Blaik as the Difficult to strove to tighten its pass defense in anticipation of an the toga of Bob Blaik as the Difficult to strove to tighten its pass defense in anticipation of an to blaik as the Difficult to strove to tighten the toga of Bob Blaik as the Difficult to strove to tighten its pass defense in anticipation of an to blaik as the Difficult to strove to tighten tighten tight to the formation to strove to tighten the toga of blaik as the Difficult to strove to tighten the toga of blaik as the Difficult to strove to tighten the toga of an togation of an togation the togation of an togation the togation of an togation the togation of an togation to the togation of an togation the togation of an togation togat

In the two games that the Li-ons have played to date, they have Last week. the former Harris-

Lou Spealer, a wee bit of a mon ges for another air bombardment but an official who is in complete at Syracuse. control of the game at all times. agreed—"Looks like Jeff's boys really have it again. Although different as Penn State's scouts they didn't hit today they'll pol-strive to mould Rados into a reaish up within the next four or five games."

its clean play afield. That small item is in itself a credit to Jeff's coaching technique. He (above), a transfer who's spending his year of ineligibility by impersonating rival quarterbacks in scrimmage sessions.

Ex-Notre Dame Gridder Tests Lion Pass Defense IM Golf Entry

Tony Rados, a strapping six-footer who is good enough right Lions Ouigained, now to play for the Nittany Lions -but can't—is Penn State's top ons have played to date, they have scored 14 times with Lane, the burg Catholic High ace mastered Baltimore Bullet, personally ac-the mannerisms of Syracuse's Bernie Custis as the Lion coaches Following the contest referee endeavored to prepare their char-

DU, PKS, Acacia Mermen Submerge IM Swim Foes By JOHN SHEPPARD

Delta Upsilon, Phi Kappa Sigma, and Acacia easily submerged respective opponents in a tri-dual meet yesterday afternoon at Glennland Pool as the second round of competition for the fraternity mermen got under way.

In the opener Delta Upsilon outscored Theta Chi, 25-16; Phi Kappa Sigma dunked Alpha Chi Rho, 37-3; and Acacia edged Al-First IM Grid Win pha Zeta, 24-13.

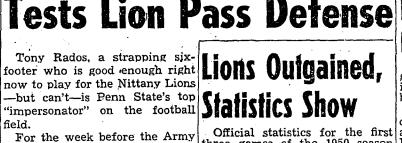

DU's Bud Nicholson displayed some spectacular low board diving for the winners. Bob Richardson, PK's winged-mermen, sparked his team to victory with a double triumph. Richardson won the 60-yard free-style, diving and was also on the winning relay team. Acacia also produced a double winner in Tom Schrettler. Sigma Phi. In the opener, Omega Schrettler won the 60-yard freestyle and diving honors. PKS and

On today's IM swimming agenda six fraternity teams will see I action. Sigma Nu will meet Lambda Chi Alpha; Alpha Sig-ma Phi faces Tau Kappa Epsilon; I and Phi Epsilon Pi is pitted against Chi Phi. Both SN and Chi Chi Phi. Both SN and ASP will be aiming for their second wins of the campaign.

Intramural touch football moved into its eighth round last night. Sigma Nu, last year's IM football champs, started the current led them to a 12-0 win over Alpha Sigma Phi. In the opener, Omega Psi Phi spent most of the game in Delta Tau Delta's territory, but but will compete against each DTD edged out their rivals in overtime, 1-0. Dorm 38 downed nity finals on Oct. 26. Dragons won by forfeit from Dorm 21.

Tonight's grid ir on activities matches the Brownies against McElwain Hall at 7 o'clock; Phi Kappa Psi meets Phi Kappa at 7:45; at 8:30 the Newman Club tangles with the Trilobites; and at 9:15 Alpha Epsilon Pi vs. Sig-ma Phi Sigma.

Dance Programs

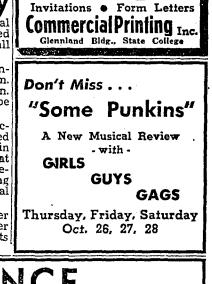

tion.

To date the Lions have lotated slowly. However, in the construction of the second and least 45 fraternities to be repre-289 through the air, while the sented in the tournament, along with a large number of individual yards, 759 overland and 260 via independent entries. The airlanes. The Blue and White the scored 7 touchdowns and 6 person. Fraternities may enter has scored 7 touchdowns and 6 person. Fraternities may enter for 48 points, while two men each while independents.

extra points for 48 points, while two men each while independents the opposition has tallied 12 times and converted 10 for 82 points.

Orsini Paces Backs Halfback Tony Orsini is the

Deadline Today All entries for the intramural golf tournament must be turned in to the IM office in Rec hall by 5 o'clock this afternoon. The medal tourney will get un-der way Saturday at 1:30 p.m.

I de la Maria Maria

. . .