

Belle Hop Ball To Begin at 9

The annual Belle Hop Ball will begin at 9 tonight in Recreation hall. Dancing to the music of the Statesmen will last until 12 o'clock. At intermission a queen will be elected from five finalists and presented with a trophy.

Candidates for Belle Hop Queen are: Nancy Buen, sponsored by the Sophomore class; Phoebe Erickson, Junior class, Marilyn Franklin, submitted by McElwain Hall Men's Club; Barbara Gwin, candidate of Chi Phi fraternity; and Carolyn Hamilton, sponsored by Kappa Delta Rho.

The candidates for queen were chosen from photographs by three judges. Those photos turned in at Student Union instead of the hotel administration office as specified in Collegian, were not judged because they appeared too late before the selectors who were in the Hotel Administration department.

Greeters Club, an organization of hotel administration students under the chairmanship of Bill Whittle, is sponsoring the ball for the second year in Rec Hall. Formerly it was called the Greeters Club dance, and was held in the Tub.

COME TO CHURCH

In a world and on campus alike, scientific discovery and its destructive uses has raised serious problems of control for the well-being of all people. It is this lack of engineering in the field of human relations and understanding that challenges us all today, and so you are invited to exercise the religious side of your nature as well as the purely intellectual, social and physical. Do this and your education is more complete.
