

Nittany, Mich. St. Harriers Vie For Leading X-Country Honors

By RAY GALANT

The winner of tomorrow's meet between Chick Werner's Lion harriers and the charges of Michigan State's Karl Schlademan will probably be top choice for national hill-and-dale honors.

Both teams scored easy victories in their opening meets. Werner's thinclads ran roughshod over the marathoners of Pittsburgh and Cornell, while Michigan State had little trouble taking Ohio State and Purdue into camp.

State, a perennial Eastern leader in the hill-and-dale sport, will field a veteran team against the highly-touted Spartans. With one exception, Dudley Foster, the only member of the team who isn't a senior, the team is the same one that represented Penn State in cross country last year.

Brothers Race

Bill and Don Ashenfelter, Al Porto, Bob Freebairn, Jack St. Clair, Dudley Foster, Bill Gordon, and Bob Parsons will carry the State colors against the Spartans.

Michigan State, last year's NCAA champion and the first team to win the triple crown in cross country when they swept the NCAA, senior AAU, and ICA-A titles in 1948, are again rated as one of the top harrier teams in the nation.

Although the Spartans have lost most of the runners that gave them the top position in the marathon sport, they will be paced by Warren Dreutzler and Don Makielski, two of the top cross country men in the nation.

Dreutzler, Makielski Tough

Dreutzler, NAAU Steeplechase champion, and Makielski will be the Spartans one-two punch. Francis Carey and Dick Roberts are the only other returning lettermen. Spartan newcomers are Wayne Scutt, John Walter, Walt Scoenegge, and Jerry Zerbe.

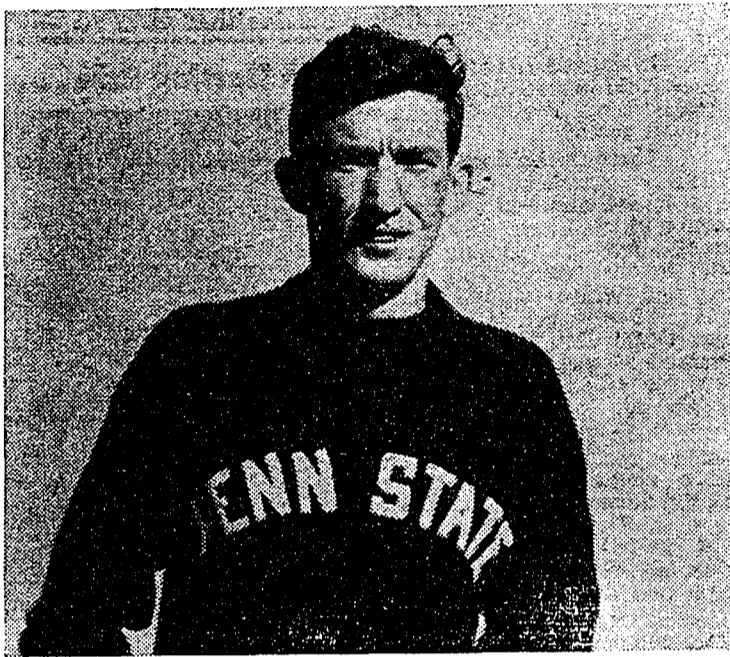

While Michigan State may have the edge as to outstanding individual performers, the Lions seem to have the edge in balance. Dreutzler or Makielski will be rated as the ones to beat for individual honors. Bill Ashenfelter, tomorrow's captain, who copped first place against Pitt and Cornell, will be State's No. 1 choice to beat out the Spartan duo.

Pro Basketball Game In Lock Haven Gym

Regional basketball fans will get an early NBA preview tomorrow night when two court powers, the Philadelphia Warriors and the Washington Capitals, clash in the field house of the Lock Haven State Teachers College at 9:15 o'clock.

Basketball greats such as George Senesky and Joe Fulks will appear, along with rookies Nelson Bobb, Ike Borsavage, Paul Arizin, and Tommy O'Keefe.

Will Captain Lions Against Michigan St.

BILL ASHENFELTER will represent State's biggest threat to steal individual honors from Michigan State's Warren Dreutzler tomorrow. Bill has paced the Lion thinclads to victories over Pittsburgh and Cornell with a first place finish in both meets.

Booters Oppose Colgate In Homecoming Contest

The undefeated Nittany Lion soccer team will celebrate Coach Bill Jeffrey's 25th Homecoming game by attempting to extend its winning streak to 20 games at the expense of Colgate at 10 a.m. tomorrow.

The National Co-Champions will be at full strength for the first time in two weeks with the return of scorer Joe Lane to action. The rangy center forward, who broke an all-time Penn State record by tallying seven times in the season opener with Bucknell, has been nursing an injured ankle.

New Raider Coach

The Colgate contingent will be brought to State College by a new coach, Tom Dockrell. Reports indicate that the Red Raiders will field an inexperienced club and lack of experience is something that the machine-like Penn State teams definitely find to their advantage.

The Lions have already taken four straight this season and are averaging five goals per game. The peak performance of the year was the Bucknell game which saw the loser's goal dented no less than 11 times.

Call Frosh Boxers

Orient Martella, freshmen boxing coach, has issued a call for freshmen boxing candidates. Ring aspirants are asked to report to ringside at Rec Hall at 4 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday, Oct. 31 and Nov. 1.

DTD Tops ZBT In IM Football; Phi KS, Lambda Chi Win Swim Meet

Delta Tau Delta, staving off a last-play comeback by Zeta Beta Tau which ended on the one-foot line, won their second straight IM football game last night, 12-7. Sigma Nu, last year's champs, triumphed over Phi Sigma Kappa, 13-0, in another fraternity battle.

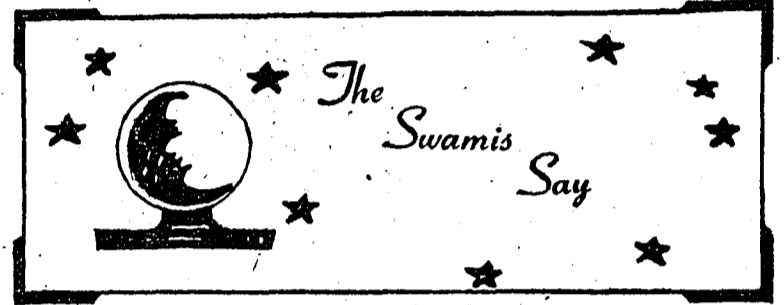

In the independent contests, the Dragons were victorious for the second time as they downed Dorm 39, 7-0. Dorm 26 topped the Blackhawks in an overtime game, 1-0. It was the initial win for the dorm men.

ZBT scored first in their thriller with DTD, and the half ended 7-6 when the victors scored but missed the extra point. In the opening minutes of the second period, DTD scored again and held on the lead.

Natators from Phi Kappa Sigma, Lambda Chi Alpha, and Alpha Sigma Phi captured swimming victories in the tri-dual meet yesterday afternoon at Glenland pool as the third round of competition for the fraternities got under way.

In the opener, Phi Kappa Sigma outscored Delta Upsilon, 24-17; Lambda Chi Alpha edged Alpha Zeta, 23-17; and Alpha Sigma Phi dunked Chi Phi, 22-19.

Bob Richardson, DU's winged-merman, sparked his team to victory with a double triumph. Richardson won the 60-yard free-style and also copped individual diving honors. Lambda Chi produced a double winner in Dick Wert. Wert won the 60-yard free-style and breast stroke.

Miss Grace Henderson, dean of the School of Home Economics, invades the ranks of the swamis this week to add a touch of femininity to the proceedings.
