

Alumni-

(Continued from page one)
star of State, "Tiny" McMahan, Sr., class of '24.

Organ music by George Ceiga will entertain the diners.

For alumni other than council members, another event is scheduled for 10 a.m. Bill Jeffrey will bring his soccer squad, undefeated in 19 games, to Beaver field and take on the Red Raiders from Colgate.

The Home Economics school will hold its annual alumni coffee hour from 10 a.m. to noon at the Home Ec living center for all Home Ec graduates.

Kickoff time of the Penn State-Temple football game at Beaver field is 2 p.m. Coach Charles A. "Rip" Engle will parade the first T-formation team in the history of the College before an alumni representation of about 9,000.

Coach Chick Werner's cross country team, rated as one of the best squads in the country, will take on Michigan State, one of State's leading opponents for the national title. The five-mile run will start and finish on the track around the football field.

PSCA Holds Tea

After the game, the Penn State Christian association will hold a tea to celebrate its 75th anniversary. The affair will be held in 304 Old Main. Most of the campus fraternities will hold alumni dinners and meetings at the dinner hour and sororities will hold open houses all day.

Starting at 8 p.m., the annual alumni cider party will begin at Rec hall, and at 9 p.m. Gene Magill and his orchestra will provide the music for the alumni dance. The cider party and dancing will last until midnight.

Councils-

(Continued from page one)
Sophomore is Donald McCormick. There was no information available on the candidates from industrial engineering. Aeronautical engineering had no nominations.

HOME ECONOMICS — Freshmen are Irene Buck, Margaret Morrison, and Martha Worthington. Sophomores are Grace Anderson, Agnes Barth, Patricia Blaney, Lee Coy, Scott Frear, William Fitch, Emily Kastos, Nancy Kern, Elizabeth Loux, June Maylon, Sally Miller, Barbara Narton, and Bernette Novak.

LIBERAL ARTS — Freshmen are Ronald Isenberg, Evelyn Kielar, Jerry Maurey, and Ann Quigley. Sophomores are Elizabeth Agnew, Robert Bethea, Arnold Bloom, Richard Clark, John Albert Dame, Thomas Farrell, Elinor Forman, Bernadine Fulton, Irvin Goldberg, William Harrell, William Hirsch, Melvin Ruben, Douglas Schoerke, William Slepik, Ruth Springman, Patricia Wertz, Joanne Williams, and Donald Wood.

MINERAL INDUSTRIES — Freshmen are Louis Ray Fefolt, Arthur Hussey, and Richard Lemyre. Sophomores are Robert Decker, Jay England, David Evans, William Fairfield, David Fleming, William Hay, Pete Mandel, Frank McCall, Allen Meldrum, Russell Peterman, William Winterburn, and Richard Young.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION — Freshmen are Ann Barker, Richard Jones, Carole Kowallis, Duane McIntyre, Raymond O'Neil, Margaret Powell, and Joy Schiller. Sophomores are Peter Longmire, Richard Phillips, Robert Roessler, and Herman Sledzik.

Bill McMullen

Extends a Hearty Welcome to the Alums

BILL McMULLEN,
Florist

135 S. ALLEN

4994

State Party To Nominate Soph, Frosh Class Heads

Protestant Groups Mark Reformation

Reformation Sunday will be observed by several local student foundations tomorrow in their evening meetings.

The Lutheran Student association will be host to guests from many of the Lutheran churches in Centre county as well as the local congregation at its Reformation Sunday service at 7:30 p.m.

The Westminster foundation will hear a talk, "Our Heritage from the Reformation" by the Rev. A. E. Newcomer, Jr., pastor of the local Presbyterian church.

This group will meet at 6:20 p.m. in the foundation's fireside room. After their supper meeting at 5 p.m., the Roger Williams fellowship will have a panel discussion "What Do Baptists Believe?"

The Wesley foundation will meet at 5:30 p.m. for their supper and at 6:30 the Wesley players will present "The Lost Book" to the students and the Methodist Youth fellowship, the high school student fellowship, M. Edward Girod will direct the play.

The Young Friends will have a supper meeting at 5:30 p.m. and hear a talk on "Amish Life and Customs."

The United Student fellowship of the Reformed church will meet at 6:30 to hear a discussion on "Whom Shall I Marry My Mate To?"

The Canterbury club of the State party clique members will begin nominations for sophomore and freshman class officers in an open session tomorrow night at 7 o'clock in 119 Osmond.

From these nominees the clique will elect candidates who will represent the State party in the sophomore and freshman class elections Nov. 16.

Election and formal designation of State party candidates will probably take place Nov. 5, Bryson Craine, ward leader chairman, said yesterday.

Nominations will be made from the floor, and it is probable that the steering committee, composed of party executives, will recommend likely candidates. However, clique members will make the final choice by ballot.

Sophomore and freshman clique officers will also be elected tomorrow night from those nominated for these positions last week.

Home Arts Students Have Jewelry Display

Jewelry made by students in home arts courses is featured this week in display cases on the first floor of Home Economics building.

The jewelry consists of bracelets and necklaces fashioned of copper and pewter in simple designs. The work was done under supervision of Beth K. Wham, instructor in home arts.

Episcopal church will meet at 6:30 p.m., and there will be a student supper at 5:30.

The student fellowship of the Evangelical United Brethren church will meet at 6:15 p.m.

PSCA Frosh Council To Discuss Dating

The freshman council of the Penn State Christian association will meet tonight at 7:30 o'clock at fireside discussions in the homes of some professors of the College.

Those who will serve as hosts will be Russell Dickerson, William Mathers, Harriet Nesbitt, James Moyer, Seth Russel, Henry Yeagley and Chaplain James Smith. They will discuss dating problems from the Christian point of view.

give
once...
serve all

PSCA
WSGA
WSSF

Scholargram Prog.
T.B. Fund
March of Dimes
Cancer Fund
Heart Fund
Salvation Army
State College
Community Fund

drive
starts
OCT. 28

CAMPUS
CHEST

Welcome Back Alumni!

We still have the best
fountain snacks and service
in town...

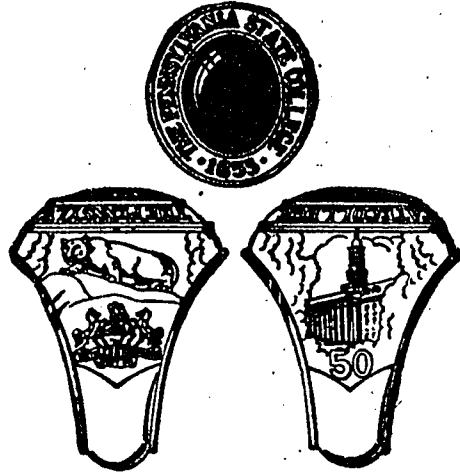

so gather the gang and come on down.

You're always welcome at...

Rea and Derick

Alumni

Something NEW has been added

The NEW Official
PENN STATE CLASS RING

Take time to *SEE this ring

at

BALFOUR'S located in Athletic Store
*otherwise write

outdoor wonders...
these

Sportchecks!

Famous old Paul Bunyan has nothing on you when you're in Van Heusen Sportchecks. Big checks, small checks—every kind of check except the one the old man sends the first of the month. Fine cotton gingham, $4.95. Lustrous rayon, $5.95—both completely washable. All wool Vanaca flannel, $7.95.

Van Heusen shirts
"the world's smartest"

PHILLIPS-JONES CORP., NEW YORK 1, N. Y.

Van Heusen
PRODUCTS

exclusive with

HUR'S MEN'S SHOP

E. College Ave.

State College