

The Daily Collegian

Successor to THE FREE LANCE, est. 1887

Published Tuesday through Saturday mornings inclusive during the College year by the staff of The Daily Collegian of The Pennsylvania State College.

Entered as second-class matter July 5, 1934, at the State College, Pa., Post Office under the act of March 3, 1879.

Collegian editorials represent the viewpoints of the writers, not necessarily the policy of the newspaper. Unsigned editorials are by the editor.

Dean Gladfelter Editor Owen E. Landon Business Mgr.

Managing Ed. John Dabbert; News Ed. Stan Degler; Sports Ed. Ray Koehler; Edit. Dir. Herbert Stein; Society Ed. Deane Krebs; Feature Ed. Janet Rosen; Asst. Sports Ed. Art Benning; Asst. News Ed. John Ashbrook; Asst. Society Ed. Bettina dePalma; Photo Ed. Wilson Barto; Senior Board: Jack Boddington, Bill Detweiler.

Asst. Bus. Mgr. Thomas M. Karolick; Advertising Dir. Harold L. Wollin; Local Adv. Mgr. Hugo R. Mandes; Promotion Mgr. Laura Mermelstein; Circulation Co-Mgrs. Edward W. Noyes, Gerald F. Yeager; Personnel Mgr. Edwin Singel; Classified Adv. Mgr. Shirley Fuller; Office Mgr. Loretta Stemplinski; Secretary, Winifred Wyant; Senior Board: Norma Gleghorn, Delores Horne, Mary Kauffman, Sue Halperin.

STAFF THIS ISSUE

Night Editor: Dave Colton; Assistant Night Editor: Clarice Lynch; Copy Editor: Dottie Laine; Assistants: Gerry Kassab, Lil Cassover, Evelyn Kielar, Bob Fraser, Gerald Wilson.

Safer Route

Sparks building has eight entrances. From the pictured crowd at the south entrance, one would judge that it has only one.

Many students—it seems like at least half of them—going and coming from Sparks use this south door. Similar conditions exist at the north east and north west entrances to Willard hall. As a result, between classes, stairwells at these entrances are crowded by heavy student traffic.

THE DANGERS this condition presents are apparent. News stories of injuries and deaths resulting from futile efforts of mobs to scrape through one exit are numerous.

The dangers can be alleviated by use of doors nearer to one's particular classes. Incidentally, they would be the quicker routes too.

— John Ashbrook

Dig Down Deep

The Campus chest drive is on. That means that sometime this week a solicitor for the campaign will approach you and ask for a contribution.

GOAL OF THE CHEST is $14,000. To meet this goal the chest is asking each student to give $2. Now this may seem a large sum to give all at one time, but just stop and consider how much you would give if you were to contribute individually to each of the ten agencies in the drive. If you gave only a quarter to each you would be giving $2.50 over the entire year. So actually you are saving 50 cents.

Remember that the Campus chest will be the only drive for funds on campus this year. Remember the good done by the participating organizations in the past. And remember to dig down just a little deeper when the solicitor asks you to contribute.

— Joe Breu

COLLEGE PLACEMENT

Radio Corporation of America, Radio Victor division, will interview January graduates in Chem. Eng., E.E., I.E., and M.E. on Wednesday, Nov. 6. Men interested in manufacturing should have an average of 1.5; those in design and development, 1.8 or better.

Westinghouse Electric Corp. will interview January graduates at all levels in Ch. Eng., chemistry, physics, Aero. Eng., E.E., I.E., M.E., ceramics, and metallurgy on Tuesday, Nov. 7.

Carbide and Carbon Chemicals division, Charleston W. Va., will interview January graduates in chemical engineering, chemistry, and a few in mechanical engineering on Friday, Nov. 10.

E. I. DuPont de Nemours & Co. will interview January graduates at all levels in chemistry, chemical engineering, industrial engineering, metallurgy, and physics on Monday and Tuesday, Nov. 13 and 14.

Ingersoll-Rand Co. will interview January graduates at all levels in M.E., I.E., and mining engineering Tuesday, Nov. 14.

Ins And Outs

Monday the Philadelphia Inquirer printed a front page editorial with the headline, "Guard Two-Party System by Voting Duff to Senate!" Now aside from the fact that the Inquirer may prefer to support one candidate instead of another, the reasoning which followed was as specious as we have ever seen.

THE TENOR of the Inquirer's argument was that since Democrats have held the presidency for 18 years, it was necessary to elect a Republican, Duff, as senator from Pennsylvania. It even went so far as to say that this was the most important issue of the campaign.

Following the same line of reasoning, the Inquirer should support Richardson Dilworth for Governor, since Republicans have held the post for 12 years, thus endangering the two-party system in Pennsylvania.

When the Inquirer says that one party has controlled the national government for 18 years it ignores the fact that Republicans did control the 80th congress and were as promptly swept out again by the electorate.

REGARDLESS of which candidate one supports, there must be some better reason for electing a man than that his opposition is the present office-holder. The Inquirer apparently thinks only in terms of offices and office-holders, if the only issue it can see is preservation of the two-party system by turning out the ins and putting in the outs every so often.

— Stan Degler

Safety Valve ...

Posters Versus Papers

TO THE EDITOR: This letter refers to the editorial entitled "Headline Seekers" in Thursday's edition of Collegian.

The Collegian is for students by students. Therefore students should have as much right to say what should be printed as the Collegian staff. How are 11,000 students going to be oriented to the Campus chest by posters alone or nearly so? Certainly students won't stop to read a lot of words on posters.

... the Campus chest campaign will be the paramount event on campus and one of the most beneficial and worthwhile ones. It is absolutely more than just an item for news interest, but an event from which news can be and should be produced. Furthermore those who think of All-College cabinet as publicity seeker should pause to think again.

— Francis Artley

Gazette ...

Thursday, November 2

FUTURE TEACHERS of America, 217 Willard hall, 7 p.m.

HORT CLUB-HOME EC. club mixer, TUB, 7 p.m.

WRA Swimming, White hall pool, 7 p.m.

WRA Outing, White hall, 7 p.m.

INKLING Senior Board and candidates, 8 Carnegie hall, 7 p.m.

FRENCH CLUB, Home Economics living center, 6:30 p.m.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE organization, 304 Old Main, 6:45 p.m.

A.C.S., student affiliate, 119 Osmond laboratory, 7 p.m.

FROTH ART STAFF, Froth office, 7 p.m.

FORESTRY SOCIETY, 105 White hall, 7 p.m.

NSA Meeting, 223 Sparks, 7 p.m.

DELTA SIGMA PI business meeting, LAMBDA CHI ALPHA house, 8:15 p.m.

PENN STATE marketing club, 228 Sparks, 7 p.m.

ALL-COLLEGE Cabinet picture, Penn State Photo Shop, 7 p.m.

PARMI NOVS picture cancelled.

COLLEGE HOSPITAL

Patients: Julie Krell, Norma King, Mary Ann Honess, Katherine Nicoll, Bernard Friedman, Richard George, Harry Knable, Charles Rohrbeck, Charles Wolf, John Podrasky, Kenneth Horton, Leonard Mattick.

Standard Oil and Development Co. will interview January graduates at the B.S. and M.S. level in C.E., M.E., E.E., I.E., and Chem. Eng. Friday, Nov. 10.

West Penn Power company will interview January graduates in M.E. and E.E. Wednesday, Nov. 15.

General Electric company will interview January graduates in I.E., M.E. and E.E. Wednesday, Nov. 15.

Armstrong Cork company will interview January graduates in C. and F., A. and L., Journ., I.E., M.E., E.E., and Ind. Ed. at the B.S. level; also chem., chem. eng., at the B.S. or M.S. level and chem. eng., and phys. at the PhD level Wednesday, Nov. 8.

Little Man On Campus

By Bibler

"By George, Henley, for the last month I thought you'd swiped my copy of 'Love Light'—and all the time it's been up here with my text books."

Hatmen Honor Eisenhower

Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower, president of the College, will be made an honorary member of Androcles, men's junior hat society, Donald Carlson, president of the society told the organization at its meeting Tuesday night.

Carlson said that the initiation would take place in President Eisenhower's office on Nov. 9. Shingles will be awarded to members of the society at that time, he added.

Business at the meeting included the naming of three men to represent Androcles in the colloquy, sponsored by the PSCA, to be held Nov. 10 to 12. The society will be represented by Carlson, Ray Evert and Edward Shanken.

In addition, plans were made for Androcles to assist Mortar Board, women's senior hat society, in decorating the goal posts for the next home football game, and a committee was named by Carlson to discuss tapping. Walker Miller was made chairman.

At the meeting, Carlson asked all Androcles members to wear their hats on Wednesdays. Carlson said that Hat Society council had asked all societies to wear their hats on that day.

New Students Should Exchange Matric Cards

New students on campus must exchange the temporary student identification cards for permanent ones at 4 Willard hall from Monday, November 6, to noon Saturday, November 18, A. W. Stewart, chief recorder, announced this week.

A fee of $1.00 will be assessed to anyone exchanging their card after the Nov. 18 date.

For Best Results Use Collegian Classifieds

Inkling Members To Meet Tonight

A meeting of Inkling editorial candidates and senior board members will be held tonight at 7:30 in 8 Carnegie hall.

Mainly because of administrative problems, the first issue of this campus magazine has been delayed for some weeks.

Inkling is not being planned as a big commercial venture, but rather as an outlet for creative talents, Sam Vaughan, editor, said. It plans to operate on "a limited circulation, a moderate amount of appropriate advertising, subsidy money from several admittedly interested sources, and the unqualified support of the English composition and literature department," according to Vaughan.

Forensic Council Named

Nine students have been appointed to the Forensic council by Robert Davis, All-College president.

The council, according to Marlin Brenner, acting chairman of the organization, acts as the governing body for intercollegiate and intramural debates, campus speech contests, and other forensic matters.

Those named to the council were Brenner, Shirley Gallagher, Rosemary Delahanty, Frances Markowitz, Clair George, David Lewis, Paul Litwak, Harry Kondourajian, and David Schmuckler.

Thirteen Years Old

For the 13th straight year, Ridge Riley is writing the Penn State Football Letter which goes weekly to more than 11,000 alumni. Riley, now alumni secretary, was sports publicity director when the weekly letter was conceived in 1938.

At The
JUNIOR PROM
look beautiful
in a new gown
by the
CHARLES SHOP

GUYS and GALS
Date, to See
Shadow and Substance at Schwab
TICKET
STUDENT UNION

COMMERCE and FINANCE STUDENTS
You can help others decide it's economical to save 31c of every $1.00
Why Pay? $1.00 (Suits, dresses cleaned and pressed)
We Say .69 (Suits, dresses cleaned and pressed)
You Save $.31 (More spending money)
LAUNDERETTE
210 W. College — Open 7:30 am to 6 pm