Outbreaks Occur Between Students

Minor outbreaks of fighting between College students and high school students occurred on Monday and Tuesday nights according to Chief of Police John R. Juba.

Police report that the State College High School students threw stones at fraternity houses Monday night and then returned again on Tuesday night. The high school students at first denied the fighting, but later admitted that some of them did suffer minor injuries as a result of the disturbances.

They also said that statements saying the fraternity members had jumped the students was not true.

Ind. Ed. Conference

More than 300 vocational education directors, industrial arts instructors, and vocational instructors attended the third annual Conference on Industrial Education held at the College last Saturday.

The theme of the conference, sponsored by the department of industrial education, was "Improving the Teaching of Related Content in Programs of Industrial Arts and Vocational Industrial Education."

Alumnae Club Gives Portrait

The State College Alumnae Club has presented to the College a portrait of Harriet Aurelia McElwain, for whom McElwain hall, women's residence hall, was named.

The portrait, which was painted from photographs by A. W. Case, associate professor of fine arts at the College, has been hung in the lobby of McElwain hall.

Members of the committee that arranged for the portrait are: Mrs. Helen S. Galbraith, associate professor of applied arts; Elizabeth Laird, head hostess for McElwain hall; Edith G. Zinn, formerly assistant dean of women; and Julia G. Brill, professor of English composition.

NAACP Hears Talk By Sociology Prof

Only a law that is shown to be useful to both whites and Negroes will meet with any kind of success, according to Edward Abramson, assistant professor of sociology.

In a speech before NAACP Tuesday, Dr. Abramson said he felt that the best place to begin the fight against racial discrimination is in the more recent organizations such as labor unions and political parties where traditions aren't so concrete.

Be Happy - Go Lucky!

In learning words and what they mean Semantics is the key. How sad that ancient Greeks knew aught OF L.S./M.F.T.

By Jo Levy Northwestern University

Enjoy your cigarette! Enjoy truly fine tobacco that combines both perfect mildness and rich taste in one great cigarette - Lucky Strike!

Perfect mildness? You bet. Scientific tests, confirmed by three independent consulting laboratories, prove that Lucky Strike is milder than any other principal brand. Rich taste? Yes, the full, rich taste of truly fine tobacco.

Only fine tobacco gives you both real mildness and rich taste. And Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. So enjoy the happy blending that combines perfect mildness with a rich, true tobacco taste. Be Happy—Go Lucky!
