

'Stop Petela' Is Cry As Lions, Eagles Vie

Special to The Daily Collegian

BOSTON — Penn State's football team will attempt to send Boston College down to its sixth straight defeat when the two teams meet on Braves field this afternoon. It will be the first appearance here of a Penn State football team.

Unbeaten Booters Harriers Oppose N. Carolina, NYU

The "rebels" of North Carolina University will attempt to upset the "yankees" of Penn State today at 11 a. m. in a battle of soccer forces at Chapel Hill, the Tarheels home.

A Scotsman, Bill Jeffrey, will lead the yankees as they strive to stretch their string of unbeaten contests to 21. A veteran of 24 full campaigns, Jeff looks on this foe as another average team which can be taken into camp, perhaps easily or with difficulty, but it is definitely possible. There are some who would say definitely probable.

Penn State's undefeated harriers invade New York today to take on a veteran N.Y.U. cross country aggregation at the Van Cortland Park course.

Coach Chick Werner's thinclads, victorious in matches with Pittsburgh, Cornell, and Michigan State, may not be at top strength today. Al Porto, State's No. 2 runner, came up with a thigh injury and may not make the run. The remainder of the squad, however, will be in top physical condition to travel over the tough file-mile N.Y.U. course.

The Lions will be without the services of Joe Lane, record-breaking center forward.

Two Records Set By IM Swimmers

Two new intramural swimming records were set in the independent semi-finals yesterday afternoon at Glennland pool, as Dorm 29 sunk Dorm 2, 20-17; and Jordan hall easily outscores Dorm 13, 28-12.

Enrico Rossi, Dorm 2's sprinter, set a new 60-yard breast stroke record when he lowered his own record by 1.8 seconds set last Monday, being clocked in 38.4 seconds. The other new record was set by Dorm 29's mermen in the 120-yard free-style. The team of Richard Mertz, Seymour Wexler, Henry Weiler and John Merges lowered the old record established in '48 by Phil Epsilon Pi. by 2 seconds, being clocked in 1:00:6 seconds.

On the other hand, the Lions have dropped three straight and encounters. Georgetown is the only mutual opponent.

Cub Soccermen To Battle Ogontz

A battle of freshman soccer players will take place today at 2 p.m. on the Beaver field baseball diamond where the campus Lion booters will meet a like edition from the Ogontz center.

Both Lion Cub teams are "firsts" since Ogontz is in its initial year as a Penn State center and Coach George Lawther's squad is the first frosh soccer team here since the war.

Frosh Gridders Encounter Navy

Coach Earl Bruce's frosh grid-ers will be out to make it two in a row this afternoon when they take on the flashy Navy piebes at Annapolis.

In their last game, the cubs showed plenty of punch in rolling over Bucknell's frosh, 21-6. The Navy piebes dropped their last game to the Penn freshmen by a 24-7 score.

Varsity Mermen

There will be a meeting of all varsity swimmers and swimming managers at Glennland pool at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday.

Kickoff time is 2 p.m. with the game being broadcast over WMAJ, starting at 1:45. Bob Prince will do the play-by-play. Victors over the Eagles by a 32-14 count last year, the Lions are a one-touchdown favorite to repeat over the winless Beantowners.

The Eagles' offense is pivoted about Ed Petela, a hard-running, 195-pound fullback. Likened to Army's Al Pollard by Nittany scout Al Michaels, Petela is most effective up the middle. Michaels told Lion coach Rip Engle that Petela is 50 per cent of the Boston offense.

Coach Denny Myers' crew started the season by tying Wake-

Forest, 7-7, but since then they have suffered consecutive losses to Oklahoma, Mississippi, Fordham, Georgetown, and Georgia.

On the other hand, the Lions have dropped three straight and encounters. Georgetown is the only mutual opponent.

BRING IN YOUR Hamilton

FOR FREE INSPECTION

YES, even a Hamilton should be checked over by an expert watchmaker occasionally—to make sure that you are getting the true and dependable performance built into it in the factory. It may need re-oiling—or perhaps a touch of the regulator will set it right.

My eight years experience in the Hamilton watch factory assures you of expert workmanship on your Hamilton. I take time to keep your watch on time.
