Johnny Long To Play At Jr. Prom Friday

Johnny Long and his orchestra will play for the semi-formal junior prom in Rec hall this Friday, Nov. 10, from 9 to 1.

Tickets for the dance go on sale Friday morning at 8 o'clock at the Student Union desk in Old Main at $4 per couple.

Upperclass women were granted two o'clock permissions, and freshman women one o'clock permissions for Friday night for the dance at a meeting of the WSGA Senate Wednesday night. All women will have one o'clock permissions Saturday, Nov. 11.

Decorations for the affair will follow a French theme, with a blue backdrop, and stars in the canopy. Along the sides will be street lights, and above them, verandas with striped awnings.

George M. Trahan of New York, who does dances for colleges in all of the eastern states and has done all past big dances in Rec hall, is decorator. M. C. Mattee, caterer, is in charge of refreshments.

According to Don Carlson, chairman of the junior prom committee, programs for the dance are the prettiest in the school's history. They are made with a cellophane cover through which can be seen a silhouette of a dancing couple on a white background.

Other members of the committee beside Chairman Carlson are Polly Potter, Peter Sarontopolus, Stewart Lerner and John Haines. Dave Mutchler, president of the junior class, and Ann Porter, secretary-treasurer, are ex-officio members.

Chaperones, selected by members of the committee are: Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. DeBoer, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Eiland, Mr. and Mrs. David Freedman, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Friedland, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Garber, Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Gregory, Mr. William W. Hamilton.

Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Hermann, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Kaufman, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Leffler, Mr. Walter J. Lindquist, Mr. Roy S. McKnight, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Mutchler, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Parsons, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Sowko, Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Thiel, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Werner, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Williams, and Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Wischnia.

46 Fraternities, AIM Plan Varied Weekend Parties

Forty-six fraternities and the Association of Independent Men are planning houseparties for Saturday night.

AIM will hold its annual houseparty at the University Club and will feature an "Out of This World" theme. Dancing to the music of Ray Evert and his Artists in Melody will start at 8:30 and last until midnight. Dress will be informal.

Informal dances will hold the spotlight in many of the fraternity houses with Alpha Chi Rho holding a "Club Melody" dance, Alpha Phi Delta having a "Cabaret" dance, and Beta Sigma Rho going oriental with a "Chinese affair." Others having informal dances Saturday night will be Tau Kappa Epsilon getting on the bandwagon with a dance based on a circus theme, Phi Sigma Delta holding a "Ghouls Paradise" dance, Phi Epsilon Pi going places with a "Pullman Party," Lambda Chi Alpha dancing in "Melody Lounge," and Delta Sigma Phi having its annual "Pink Elephant Ball."

Other fraternities holding informal dances but with no themes are Alpha Chi Sigma, Phi Delta Theta, Phi Kappa Psi, Sigma Alpha Epsilon; while Sigma Pi is having a formal pledge dance and Sigma Chi is holding a formal pledge dinner dance which will be open to the public after 9 p.m.

Bowery Brawl

Theta Chi will cavort at the "Bowery Brawl" with decorations and costumes from the New York Bowery in 1890's; Pi Kappa Alpha will follow a desert motif in its "Bedouin Ball," Pi Lambda Phi will be jazzing it up with "Jazz at the Pi Lam," and Pi Kappa Phi will go Parisian in its "French sidewalk cafe" dance.

Delta Theta Sigma's houseparty will feature a hayride, while Delta Tau Delta and Phi Sigma Kappa will each have Sadie Hawkins dances. Delta Upsilon will stay sober with a prohibition dance called "Moonshine Mix,"

Kappa Delta Rho will resemble an insane asylum with its "Bedlam Ball," and money will be scarce at the Phi Kappa Sig's "Poverty Party."

Delta Chi will borrow a Roman theme from the ancients for its houseparty; safety pins will be plentiful for diapers in Alpha Tau Omega's "Kiddy Kapers" dance, and the Kappa Sigs will go native for their Indian party. Phi Kappa will have a "Song Title Dance" with costumes to represent popular songs, while Beta Theta Pi with its "The Song is You" dance will have a similar theme. Alpha Zeta will have a square dance with costumes in farm style; Phi Gamma Delta has a "Corn Dance" scheduled, and Alpha Sigma Phi has a "Barn Party" planned with straw hats and dungarees to be the costume of the night.

Cartoon Dance

A "Cartoon Dance" will be the feature of Phi Kappa Tau's houseparty Saturday night with costumes to carry out the motif of various comic strip characters, Chi Phi will go back to the cave men with an "Evolution Dance" with costumes ranging from the cave men to visitors from Mars, and Sigma Nu will head for the Pacific with its "South Sea Island Party."

8 Ways To Woo Women

Soft lights ... filmy decorations ... couples slithering across Rec hall to the music of Johnny Long ... Another Penn State big weekend!

But, even a long-awaited Junior Prom can turn into a drudgery if a co-ed's date doesn't show a little consideration. So, here are some pointers for the college Romeo:

(1) Be prompt, but not early. A few minutes grace is usually appreciated for those last minute nose-powderings.

(2) To prove his thoughtfulness, the truly considerate fellow brings his date a corsage. And, it is always good practice to ask the girl what color flowers she would like. Too many evenings start off sourly with pink roses on an orange gown.

(3) Nittany vale weather being rather English, it is good Emily

Post to arrange transportation (other than walking) to the dance.

(4) Nail polish, curly hair, neatly-pressed gown ... it takes a girl days of concentrated effort to get ready for this big moment. Of course, she'll appreciate a subtle, well-phrased compliment, e.g., "Darling, you're adorable, but, gad, you look ghastly in heliotrope."

(5) A clinging vine might be suitable adornment for the bricks of Old Main, but, at a prom, any girl likes to exchange dances.

(6) No girl, (lest she be Ginger Rogers) expects her date to be
