

Co-Edits

Kappa Delta

Pledge officers of Kappa Delta sorority are Phyllis Myers, president; Jane Wolf, vice-president; May Ralph, secretary; Barbara White, treasurer; Kathryn Wentz, parliamentarian; and Joan Fleming, junior Pan-Hellenic representative.

Delta Zeta

New pledges of Delta Zeta sorority are Barbara Correll, Mary Cressman, Esther Doner, Mary Lewis, Edna Peterson and Irene Stromyer.

The sorority entertained Phi Kappa Psi fraternity. A skit was presented and refreshments were served.

Phi Delta Theta

Phi Delta Theta fraternity entertained the cast and production crews of the Thespian show "Some Punkins." The group sang numbers from past Thespian shows.

Gamma Phi Beta

Gamma Phi Beta sorority will celebrate its 75 anniversary at a Founder's day program Monday night in the suite at Grange hall. The sorority was founded at Syracuse university on Nov. 11, 1874.

Alpha Omicron Pi

Alpha Omicron Pi recently pledged Amanda Brown, Nancy Lou Thomas, Jean Troutman, Nancy Graham, Jacqueline Erskin, Marilyn Minar and Lynn Meyer.

The sorority entertained the Phi Kappa Tau fraternity at a costume dinner party which had a Halloween theme.

Alpha Chi Omega

New initiates of Alpha Chi Omega are Geraldine Brown, Toni Dileo, Sally Durfee, Ginger Hamilton, Margaret Hepler, Virginia McMillin, Barbara Potts, and Nancy Showers.

Officers of the new pledge class are Grace Metford, president; Katherine Weber, vice-president; Carolyn Green, secretary-treasurer.

Joan Dey is a new pledge of the sorority.

Alpha Tau Omega

Alpha Tau Omega fraternity entertained the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority at a dinner dance. Gene Wittmer's orchestra played for the dance.

Alpha Tau Alpha

New initiates of Alpha Tau Alpha, agricultural education honorary, are Raymond Ard, James Bochy, Philip Cook, Donald Dletz, Fred Dillner, William Downs, Elbin Farabee, Richard Grajewski, Rolland Herring, Richard Howe, George Jacobs, Russell Kaniuka, Joseph McGahan, Robert Milliken, John Mostowski, Everett Nicklow, Douglas Pease, Arnold Pennay, Ivan Reimold, Elwood Richter, Robert Shaffer, Harold Shaw, Edward Smucker, John Spacht, Joseph Warzinski, Jerome Webster, James Zeigler, and Gerald Smith, a graduate student.

Brua To Be Head Of Coed Committee

Audrey Brua, vice president of Mortar Board, has been appointed acting chairman of the Coed Coordinating committee for the spring semester. She will undertake the duties of the official chairman, Anne Forrest, who will be away from the College at that time.

The annual student-faculty reception which the committee is planning will be held May 2.

The committees for the reception are: invitation committee—Ruth Sher and Jeannine Belle, refreshment committee—Audrey Brua and Grace Porello, decoration committee—Nancy Worthington and JoAnne Straley, and publicity committee—Sally Klausman and Lynn Levitt.

The co-ordinating committee will meet tomorrow at 10 o'clock in Mrs. Furst's office in Atherton hall. Mrs. Furst is their advisor, and Miss Mary Brewer from the Dean of Women's Office is faculty representative.

Another Cup...

—Collegian Photo by Stone

JANET ROSEN, president of Mortar Board, presents the Mardi Gras trophy to Betty Worth (left), of Alpha Omicron Pi Sorority. Alpha Omicron Pi won the cup for the second consecutive year for selling 1120 tickets at their Mardi Gras booth, "Around the World with the AOPi Dancing Girls". Kappa-Delt sold the second largest number of tickets, and Gamma Phi Beta was third.

AIM To Sponsor Dance Sat. Night

An informal dance will be sponsored by the Association of Independent Men Saturday night at the University Club.

Ray Evert and his Artists in Melody will provide music for dancing from 8:30 p.m. to midnight. Refreshments will be served, and there will be no admission charged.

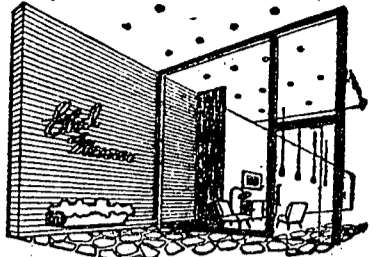

Decoration theme for the affair will be "Out of This World," suggested by the new Cole Porter musical which opened in Philadelphia last week. Richard Mills,

Geographical Society

The Penn State Geographical society's new officers are Louis Tomlinson, president; LeRoy Lewis, vice-president; Robert Messinger, secretary; Henry Weimer, treasurer; and Edward Huggler, publication editor.

Committee chairmen are William Stockdale, special; Robert Biemesderfer, athletics; LeRoy Lewis, program; and Robert Chilcote, publicity.

secretary of AIM board of governors, is chairman for the dance. Members of the committee include Robert Huling and Donald Deit-horn.

thru the Looking Glass

with George

This California influence is wonderful. You build a big picture window facing the woods and dangle a carrot inside. Rabbits jump for it, stun themselves on the glass, and you have dinner. Don't even need a hunting license.

Which reminds me of the people who pile up in front of Ethel's clear glass door. Ethel doesn't have any purple hearts, but if you do try to walk thru the door, there is a Band-Aid in attendance.

Good hunting at Ethel's

Speaking of hunting, now that you've tracked down a date for Junior Prom, you'll find Ethel's is a happy hunting ground for things to make you popular with the other sex.

You'll find enuf jewelry, for example, to keep you fascinated for hours. Pretend pearls that any oyster would be proud to claim can be had for $1.50. Pearl earrings to match start at $1.25.

And pins! No wonder the government's short of silver, copper, and gold. In silver, there's everything from the dish running after the spoon, to pins with very delicate lacey effects. Most of these are a surprising $1.50.

If you're tired of carrying money around, wear it

Coins are popular whether you let them dangle from your wrist or neck. There are some big bold ones for the dashing personality as well as smaller coins. In an old gold finish, they're rich looking and go with practically every color and fabric. For a little "coin" (prices range around $1.50) you can look like an uninflated million.

If it's an evening bag, make a bee line to Ethel's now (don't forget to open the door). Since I mentioned them last time, the inventory has gone down. But there are still some lovely mesh, bead, and embroidered bags in stock. Take a look at Duffy's display in the small front windows for a sampling.

Don't shoot Ethel, I'm allergic to lead

Ethel will probably shoot me for mentioning her popular leather bound Rolfs cigarette cases that come in brown and assorted colors for regular ($2.00) and king size ($2.50) cigarettes because smart girls have practically cleaned out the stock—so I won't mention them this time.

Or cigarette lighters, handbags, jewelry cases, wallets, travel cases, cosmetic cases, key ring holders, or playing cards—because space is running out.

And so am I to meet my import. If she pulls all the stumps in the northwest field today, her pa's letting her take the family tractor. Better make an offer to that gal before she accepts a bid from the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Ethel Mesero's

112 E. COLLEGE AVE.
STATE COLLEGE, PA.

Silk Scarfs Are Setting The Style

NECK SCARFS

$.59 - $1.00 Each

HEAD SCARFS

$1.95 Each

In A Multitude Of Colors

DANKS & CO.

148 S. Allen Street

LETS GO LION

A VOTE FOR THE LION CANDIDATES

IS A VOTE FOR Better Student Government

Our Candidates for Election November 16

Experienced . . . Capable . . . Dependable

FRESHMAN CLASS

SOPHOMORE CLASS

GUS ORMROD

.... President

BILL BAIR

JACK WHITE

.. Vice President ..

ART ROSFELD

GUY WOODWARD

Sec.-Treas.

JO WATERHOUSE

THE LION PARTY WILL PROVE TO THE CLASSES OF '53 and '54 WHAT HAS BEEN PROVED In The PAST

—THE LION PARTY CONSISTENTLY GIVES OUR CAMPUS THE BETTER STUDENT LEADERS