

$4100 In Scholarships Awarded Classes— To Forty Agriculture Students

Over $4100 in scholarships was presented to 40 agriculture students at the Ag Hill party Saturday night.

For the first time, the scholarships were presented directly to the students by the donor or a representative.

Sears Roebuck scholarships of $100 each were awarded to Edward Adkins, James Allison, Willis Conable, William Clayton, Harold Dubois, James Hudson, Adam Kois, Victor Plastow, Floyd Rough, Conrad Shuman, William Sipple Jr., Paul Stone, Roger Strait, Raymond Struble, Donald Taylor and Lowell Lewis.

James Haughwout was the winner of the $300 Borden award.

Pennsylvania Power and Light scholarships of $100 and $200 were awarded to John Davis, Barry Rumberger, Edward Fehnel, Donald Gilbert, William Wagner Jr., Kermit Knauss; Howard Killian, John Blanchard, James McKeehen, Raymond Ard, Charles Zellner and Joan Burlein.

The $100 Arthur C. Bigelow award was presented to Carl Everett.

William Griffith and Stanley Wampler were recipients of Kroger scholarships valued at $200 each.

The first presentations of the Harry W. Skinner award were made to Paul Waitkus, Elvin Orton Jr., James Boodley, and Margaret Harbough.

Other winners were Harold Brannaka, Mowery-McClay scholer. Besides the work he did under Hulme, Chuck spent six months in New York learning how to treat athletic injuries.

While at Buffalo Chuck played with many of the Detroit Tiger's recent standouts, among them Fred Hutchinson, Jimmy Outlaw, Vic Wertz, and Art Houtteman.

When Chuck left State and signed for a sizeable chunk of the Detroit treasury, it was on the verge of the baseball season on campus. He was 22-years-old when he signed, and the whole thing was not given much publicity. In fact, it was so hush-hush, though not intentionally, that Chuck's teammates elected him captain for the coming season the day before he left.

some to both faculty members and students."

Two-Day Limit

Kenworthy pointed out that their would be no chance before Feb. 1, the date of final registration, for students to complete their pre-registration, except on the two days specified.

If pre-registration is not completed either on Dec. 4 or 5, the student would have to go through the board of control in the Armory, Kenworthy pointed out.

An alphabetized time schedule will appear within the next few days, similar to the schedule now used for final registration. The schedule will list time schedules for each alphabetical group.

Ray Watkins, scheduling officer, said that time tables would be on sale in approximately two weeks.

COME TO CHURCH

Ezekial wrote, "For I will take you from among the nations, and gather you out of all countries, and bring you into your own land And a new spirit will I put into you. And I will put my spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and you shall keep my judgments and do them" This is the hope of Israel through the ages, and this hope Christians realize through Jesus Christ. "O come, let us worship the Lord our God!"
