

Mademoiselle Names Eleven To College Bd.

Mademoiselle has appointed Betty Anders, Barbara Baker, Janet Bleutge, Mary Bowen, Mary E. Clymer, Jo Hoffman, Janet Pivrotte, Nancy Sue Sharbaugh, Carol Thompson, Janet Rosen and Greta Ann Weaver to represent Penn State on the magazine's College Board. They are among the 700 appointees who competed this year with students from colleges all over the country for positions on the Board.

As College Board members, they will report to Mademoiselle on campus news, fads, fashions during the college year. They will also complete three magazine assignments in a competition for one of twenty guest editorships, to be awarded by the magazine next June.

The Guest Editors, who are chosen from the College Board on the basis of the year's three assignments, will be brought to New York City for four weeks in June to help write and edit Mademoiselle's 1951 August College issue. They will be paid round-trip transportation plus a regular salary for their work.

While in New York City, each Guest Editor will take part in a full calendar of activities designed to give her a head start in her career. She will take a battery of vocational tests, interview a celebrity in her chosen field, and take field trips to newspaper offices, fashion workrooms, radio stations, stores, advertising agencies and printing plants.

4 Teams Enter Novice Debate

Four teams will represent the College at the Temple Novice debate in Philadelphia this weekend.

The Novice features debaters who have never before competed in an intercollegiate event. In all, 80 teams from 40 eastern universities and colleges have entered. The national debate question, Resolved: "That the non-Communist nations should form a new international organization," will be the topic debated.

Representing the College will be two affirmative and two negative teams. One affirmative team will be comprised of Robert Alderdice and Gifford Phillips and the other of Edward Shanken and Robert Matasick. The negative teams will be Gene Kolber and Edward Lefkowitz and Lionel Wernick and Sanford Hertz.

Prof. H. G. DeBoer of the Speech department will accompany the group. Richard Schweiker, manager of last year's team at the College, will be a Penn State judge at the meet.

In last year's Novice, the College won 11 of the 16 events they competed in. One team was undefeated in four starts and gained the highest rating of the 76 competing teams.

Phys Ed Mixer

The School of Physical Education will hold a mixer for all physical education students and faculty members at the TUB from 7:30 until 9:30 tonight.

The recreation department will supervise the games and dancing, and refreshments will be served. Admission is free.

'Life' Opening Unsure

"Time of your Life," Players' production scheduled to open tomorrow night at Center stage, may be postponed until Saturday night or possibly next weekend.

Economics Group To Re-Set Mixer Date

The student activities committee of the Economics and Commerce department will meet this week to set a new date for the student-faculty mixer, Prof. R. H. Wheery, head of the group, announced yesterday.

Snow-storm

One alternate route, through Sunbury, was also closed off because of floods, sending many students back into Harrisburg to stay overnight.

In Lock Haven, the Susquehanna river rose six feet above flood level on Sunday and completely covered the business district and a great part of the residential district. Bald Eagle creek and its tributaries joined in the flood that left the town covered with water and mud deposits.

The Red Cross moved in to aid the community, and many homes were without heat or power. Rescue workers were working from Saturday night until Monday morning, when most of the waters had subsided. Friday night, the area was hit by an 80-mile-an-hour gale.

Power Lines Downed
In Altoona, the storm downed most of the power lines, and 95 per cent of the city was still without power late Sunday night.

Normal service is still disrupted, and officials of the Penn Electric company said that they can give no estimate as to when complete service will be restored. Homes in the area may be without service for quite a while, although emergency service is being given to hospitals, bakeries and dairies. Repair crews from the Bell Telephone company came from all over the state in an attempt to restore service to the area.

Widespread Damage
Washington, Pa. was completely blanketed over in a 38-inch snowfall, but by Monday morning, most of the main sections of town were cleared.

Erie was hit by 27 inches of snow and a 55-mile-an-hour gale, while Butler had 33 inches of the white stuff. York was without power for several hours as heavy winds lashed the city and blew off roofs and knocked down power lines.

IM Boxing—

TKO Scored
In the evening's finale—a 155-pound clash—Bill Nichol, of Alpha Gamma Rho, won by a TKO over George Watson, of Sigma Phi Sigma, after 30 seconds of the third round. Nichol, a tall lad who knows his way around a boxing ring, had his opponent in trouble most of the way, but it was Watson's well-taped right knee that proved to be his downfall.

As Watson returned to his corner after the first round, he showed signs of having hurt his knee, but shook off Referee Eddie Sulk's suggestion that the fight be halted.

He hobbled through the second round, and then in the third, after tripping and falling to the canvas, had difficulty maneuvering on the twisted knee, and Sulk stopped the bout.

Financier To Speak

John Haskell, vice-president of the New York stock exchange and New York financial executive, will speak to students in the Economics and Commerce department on "The Growing Importance of Training in Economics" at 2:10 p.m. today in 121 Sparks. The meeting is open to the public.

A graduate of the U.S. Military academy, Haskell has a distinguished military career.

Four Students In Accidents

Four students at the College were injured during the extended weekend caused by the storm.

Marjorie Smulyan and Leann Goldne tried to get into the swing of the thing last night and joined Ben Gruszecki and Meyer Bushman in sledding down Locust lane.

Miss Smulyan received a sprained ankle for her troubles, and her three companions promptly sat her in the sled and made off for the College hospital. From there she was taken to Simmons hall, and her escorts contacted the hostess. The party then took Miss Smulyan to the fourth floor by the elevator and took her to her room.

Auto Accident
In an auto accident Monday night, three men were injured and taken to Lewisburg hospital for treatment. The men, John Groff, Nittany dorm 43, Marvin Norin, 320 S. Pugh street, and William Eckman, 244 S. Atherton street and a fourth passenger, Frank Wunderle, Nittany dorm 41, were two miles west of Mifflinburg on Route 23 heading back to State College, when a car skidded across the road and hit them head-on.

Groff received facial and head injuries, Norin received a broken arm and Eckman had a broken knee cap. Wunderle escaped uninjured. All four of the students were from Philadelphia.

Wernermen Win

Al Porto finished in 38th place, running the four miles in 22:25.

The Lion conquest was Penn State's third NCAA title in ten years, but it was the first clean sweep for Coach Werner's teams in his 18 year tenure as head coach.

Druetzler Second
Michigan State's Warren Druetzler led the Spartan contingent by placing second with a time of 20:39, less than 8 seconds behind Kansas' Semper.

The Lions won the team title by placing men in the 5-7-12-13 and 16 spots for their total of 53 points while Michigan State finished close behind copping the 2-8-11-15 and 19 positions for a total of 55 points.

Wisconsin finished in third place with a total of 65. A big gap separated the Badgers from Kansas which copped the fourth spot with 91. Notre Dame followed with 110, Purdue with 148, Michigan Normal with 194, Lawrence with 208, and Albion with 248 to round out the team scoring.
