

Weekending With the Greeks

Military Ball weekend will be highlighted by many pledge dances at local fraternity houses tomorrow night. The affairs vary from closed formal dances to open bid parties. Most of them are scheduled to start at 9 o'clock.

Some of the houses will combine for joint parties. Zeta Tau Alpha will visit the Chi Phi fraternity for a joint pledge dance. Theta Chi and Theta Phi Alpha will hold a joint Christmas pledge formal at the Theta Chi house. Alpha Xi Delta and Pi Kappa Phi are joining for their pledge dance at the Pi Kappa Phi house.

Phi Kappa house and Sigma Nu issued invitations to formal pledge dances. Both affairs are open bid.

Delta Upsilon will hold their fall pledge formal. Theta Kappa Phi's pledge dance will be formal and closed bid.

Non-pledge dances have also been scheduled by some of the houses for tomorrow night. For the second consecutive year, Theta Xi has selected the spider theme for their Christmas dance. Tomorrow night's informal "Spider Spin" will feature Helen Booth's orchestra. Lambda Chi Alpha will hold an informal Christmas dance.

A "Snowflake Swirl" will take place at the Beaver House, and the dance will be semi-formal and open bid.

Engagements

Koerber-Brown

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown, of Drexel Hill, Pa., announce the engagement of their daughter, Geraldine, and John Richard Koerber. Miss Brown is a sophomore in physical education and a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority. Mr. Koerber, a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity, is a senior in physical education.

Pennsylvania Deans

The second meeting of the Pennsylvania deans will be held at the College tomorrow at 10 a.m., according to H. K. Wilson, dean of men at the College.

The deans will discuss problems which concern their group. Following the meeting will be a luncheon at the Nittany Lion inn.

Delta Delta Delta

Delta Delta Delta sorority entertained Phi Gamma Delta fraternity Nov. 30 in the playroom in McElwain hall.

Poor George. He was working late at Ethel's the other night and fell asleep in a packing crate.

She didn't want George

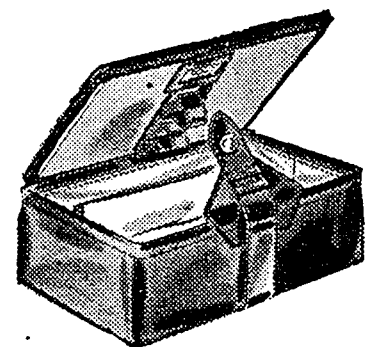

Next morning Duffy came in early before he had his coffee and crated George as a davenport. Mrs. Shultz-elberry in Hackensak, New Jersey received him yesterday. She's refused to keep him, fortunately, and he's due back Monday.

For your roomy, dad, mother, sister, brother, or your congressman

In the meantime, I've found some cuts of swell ROLFS gifts on his desk.

I bought one of these for my girl and she agreed to go with me to Mil Ball. It's good looking in about six colors to match any ensemble. Press, it's open—Snap, it's closed. Regular size $2. King size $3.

This is the popular FIT-ALL travel case. Roomy interior with oiled silk lining. Collapses to height of contents for the barest possible space. Automatic spring top snaps open and stays open until you shut it. With zipper or snap closing, in plenty of colors. For men and women. Only $7.95, plus tax

Remember, only 4 days to shop at home. You have 10 to shop at Ethel's. And selection is much better here than it will be the last 4 at home.
