

Gross To Stick With Same Starters

(Continued from page four) center, scored 232 points last season, while Dick Suprunowicz tallied 211. The two other starters, Tom Jockle and Tom Huggins, had 117 and 110 points, respectively.

Both the Lions and Syracuse have yet to see defeat. The Nittanies hold a win over Ithaca college while the Orangemen can boast conquests of Toronto and Rider college.

Penn State coach Elmer Gross scouted the Syracuseans in their game with Toronto. All he had to say was, "they're loaded!" That was the night Guley's squad ran up 101 points.

Commenting on his team's chances tonight, Gross said, "They have an awfully good team. I just hope the Rec hall jinx holds up."

"If we can shoot at a 33 per cent clip and rebound like we did against Ithaca, we've a good chance to upset them," he continued.

Gross will start the same five men that opened against Ithaca. Captain Lou Lamie, who scored 24 points against the Bombers, and Frank Moore will start at guard; Jay "Tiny" McMahan will again be at the pivot post, and Hardy Williams and Ten Panoples will start at the forward posts.

Just what defense Gross will employ against the high-scoring Orange squad is still a question. Chances are that the Lions will use the combination press and zone which was so effective against Ithaca in the opener.

Once again, the public will be barred from Penn State's indoor athletic events. Whereas campus enrollment now tops 11,000, Recreation hall seats only 5500.

Fine Work Lauds Alma Mater; Blue-Grey Tilt Beckons Rip

Rip Engle's alma mater, Western Maryland College, cited the Penn State football coach today for outstanding achievement in the field of athletic coaching.

A citation, signed by the institution's president, Lowell S. Enzor, was tendered the 43-year-old Engle "in recognition of outstanding achievements . . . in the field of athletic coaching."

Engle, who'll leave the campus soon to join the North coaching staff for the Blue-Gray post-season football game at Montgomery, Ala., is a graduate of Western Maryland College.

He played and coached at the Westminster, Md., institution before moving to Brown University, and thence to Penn State. He has been associated with athletic coaching since his graduation in 1930.

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

Number 8...THE SEA GULL

"I'm not as gullible as I look!"

Maybe our little over-water friend is just fishing for a compliment. On the other hand, he may have reference to all these quick-trick cigarette tests you hear about nowadays.

Well, he's not the only one who's been at sea. Frankly, how can you judge a cigarette by a swift sniff? Or another cigarette by one fast puff. What's all the rush about, anyway? When it comes to making up your mind about cigarette mildness, we think you'd like to take your time.

That's why we suggest:

The sensible test—the one that you make on a day after day, pack after pack tryout for 30 days. It's the 30-Day Camel Mildness-Test! Simply smoke Camels—and only Camels—for 30 days. Let your own "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste) be your proving ground. When you've tried Camels as a steady smoke, you'll know why . . .

More People Smoke Camels than any other cigarette!
