

Basketeers Lose Twice On Midwest Road-Trip

Penn State's basketball team limped home yesterday afternoon after dropping two games on a three-game road trip which took them into East Lansing, Mich. and Detroit.

After splitting even in the Spartan tournament, defeating Ohio State and losing to Michigan State, the Grossmen lost their fourth game of the current campaign to Lawrence Tech, undefeated in seven starts.

The Nittany cagers resumed drills last night in preparation for the Colgate game this Saturday in Rec hall.

Tuesday night Lawrence Tech downed the Lions, 67-56. State jumped off to an early lead and led 21-13 at the end of the first quarter but Tech fought back in the second stanza and took a halftime advantage of 39-37. From there on the Detroit team gradually lengthened its lead.

Captain Lou Lamie took scoring honors for the evening with 15 points.

In the Spartan tourney the Lions threw a scare into host Michigan State in the first round game but finally bowed, 51-43. Junie Moore paced the Lion scorers with 11 points.

Using a two platoon system, the Lion cagers downed Ohio

State, loser to Princeton, in a second round game, 67-58. Ted Panoplos led the Lion point makers with 19 markers while Lamie hit for 13 and Tiny McMahan scored 10.

Undefeated Princeton won the tournament by beating Michigan State in a second-round game.

For Each Generation . . .

How do the PENN STATE PLAYERS choose a program? This season, for instance, Players are offering eight major productions—four at Schwab Auditorium and four at Center Stage. The choice is not easy. We like to do popular, entertaining things; but we must serve another audience too, even though it is sometimes a smaller and more select one.

There are plays which have in them the great qualities which live forever. Every generation has a right to see these plays. That is why PLAYERS present on January 11, 12 and 13, at Schwab Auditorium

Lion Matmen Prep For Lehigh

Coach Charlie Speidel's wrestlers began practice again yesterday after a vacation layoff in preparation for their opening meet with Lehigh Saturday in Rec hall.

Speidel is still in doubt about starters in three weight classes.

Johnny Reese, Harry Smith and "Judge" Watkins are still battling it out for the starting spot in the 123-pound class. In the 130-pound entry, Jack Driebelbis and Dean Harbold have been wrestling so much together lately that each knows almost exactly what the other is going to do, so that neither one has been able to clinch the position. The same holds true to some extent in the 157-pound class where Bill Slabonik and Cec Irvin are throwing each other around.
