

Students Urged-

 in an essential national enterprise. I urge each of you not to succumb to the uncertainties of our time and thus permit the quality of your work in college to suffer. Do the very best work you can, right up to the moment that you personally learn your services are more essential elsewhere.

"A good many influential national associations are trying to bring about an amendment to the draft law which will permit individuals to enlist in a branch of one of the armed services after their numbers have been reached in the draft processes. I do not know what the opinion on this may be in Congress. Personally, I hope such a provision will be adopted. It would permit a student whose number had been reached to complete the college year and then still enlist.

Tension To Last
 "The tensions, which now cause this nation to arm will most likely be with us for many years. The problem is not one of getting a nasty job done in a hurry and then returning to a normal situation. This makes it imperative, I think, that the maximum number of capable young people achieve as much education and training as they can before they serve their time in the armed forces.

"Conditions, laws, regulations, and procedures may change from day to day. College officers are trying to keep accurately informed and will pass on to students immediately anything which affects their welfare.

Sincerely,
 Milton S. Eisenhower"

Twin Is Wed; Sister Engaged

The marriage of Miss Jean L. McDermott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. McDermott, of Dormont, Pa., and Richard Lyons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Lyons, also of Dormont, was solemnized December 23 in the Dormont Presbyterian Church.

At the same time Mr. and Mrs. McDermott announced the engagement of Jean's twin sister, Anne, and Robert Stottlemeyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Stottlemeyer, of Paradise, Pa. No date has been selected for the wedding.

Jean, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white lace, with a fingertip veil and carried a bouquet of white roses. Anne served as maid of honor for her sister, and another sister, Mrs. Kenneth Hutchison was matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Mary Rowland, Miss Joanne Winston, and Miss Deanie Krebs.

James Hutchison, nephew of the bride was ring-bearer.

David Lockard, of State College, was best man for Mr. Lyons, and the ushers were Thomas McDermott, Wayne Cowder, Walter Gray, Donald Stalcup, Kenneth Hutchison, and Robert Stottlemeyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyons are residing at 117 E. Foster avenue, State College.

Both Jean and Anne are seniors in Home Economics, and are members of Alpha Omicron Pi Sorority. Mr. Lyons is a junior in the pre-veterinary course and is a pledge of Phi Delta Theta fraternity. Mr. Stottlemeyer is a junior in agronomy.

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

Number 10...THE PANDA

"Let's get down to bear facts!"

The sudden rash of quick-trick cigarette tests may have caused panda-monium on the campus — but our scholarly friend was unperturbed. He pondered the facts of the case and decided that one-puff or one-sniff tests . . . single inhale and exhale comparisons are hardly conclusive. Proof of cigarette mildness doesn't come that fast!

And that's exactly why we suggest . . .

The sensible test — the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test which simply asks you to try Camels as your steady smoke — on a pack after pack, day after day basis. No snap judgments needed. After you've enjoyed Camels — and only Camels — for 30 days in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste), we believe you'll know why . . .

More People Smoke Camels than any other cigarette!
