

IM Cage Squads Win Third Games

Fraternity leagues A, B, and F went into action last Friday night with Pi Kappa Phi, Theta Chi, Sigma Chi and Alpha Gamma Rho capturing their third loop battles without a loss.

Walt Gruver and Ray Koehler scored 10 and 9 markers respectively to set the pace for Pi Kappa Phi as they dumped Omega Psi Phi, 29-15. Other contests in league A saw Sigma Phi Alpha down Theta Xi, 17-10, as Dick Horikawa banked 8 points, and Phi Epsilon Pi won a forfeit victory from Delta Theta Sigma.

In league B Theta Chi beat Tau Phi Delta, 17-9, with Herb Kurtz contributing 6 points for the winners. Alpha Epsilon Pi lost a 10-7 halftime lead to eventually bow to Lambda Chi Alpha in a 17-16 thriller.

Alpha Gamma Rho won its third game by defeating Kappa Sigma, 12-9; Phi Kappa Psi eked out a 14-13 win over Phi Sigma Kappa with Gordon Robinson leading the way with 6 points; Delta Sigma Phi outscored Alpha Phi Alpha in another low-scoring, 13-8, and in the final league F tilt, Kappa Delta Rho dropped a 25-16 decision to Sigma Chi as Bill West dunked 10 markers.

Lehigh Wrestlers Bow To Lion Freshmen, 23-11

Coach Charlie Ridenour's freshman wrestlers opened their season with a one-sided 23-11 decision over Lehigh Saturday afternoon on the Rec hall mats.

In gaining the victory State won five of the eight possible matches. The Lions were victorious in the 130, 147, 157, 167, and the heavyweight divisions. Of these five wins Penn State gained four falls. These performances were turned in by Dick Lemyre, Jerry Maurey, Bill Krebs, and Joe Pascarella. The other victor was Budd Whitehill in the 167-lb. class.

State clinched the decision before the final two matches were started. The Lion held an 18-8 edge as the next-to-the-last match started. Lehigh, however, could do no better than score three points against State's five.

Ringmen Invade

At 155 the Blue and White should be able to contend with the best. Captain Pat Heims, the cinderella boy who surprised the nation by going into the finals of the nationals last spring before losing out to Eli Thomas of Gonzaga, has cinched a starting berth over three good 155'ers.

Veteran Lou Koszarek, 3-2-1 last year, will start at 165. Chuck Wilson, who fought one bout last year, will start at 175. The heavyweight battle is between footballers Mario Santangelo and Herb Kurtz.
