Edinboro Triumphs 80-27

All existing scoring records in intramural basketball were broken Wednesday night when Edinboro, adding 50 points to its first-half total of 30 markers, swamped Simmons Hall by an 80-27 count. Bill Mihalich, Edinboro's ace gunner, hit for 31 points to break the individual scoring record.

The combined mark of 107 points smashed one record, while the 80 tallies by one squad broke another. It was Edinboro's third win in league D. Brown had 17 points for the winners, to take runner-up honors.

Because of the lack of news space, other intramural contests in fraternity and independent campaigns will be published as soon as possible.

Harbold, Santel To Face Virginia

As a result of final elimination matches last night, Bill Santel and Dean Harbold filled the remaining two positions on wrestling coach Charlie Speidel's starting lineup for the match with Virginia tomorrow.

Santel will wrestle 157, Harbold 130.

Wednesday night, Johnny Reese, wrestling with a rubber cast on his right arm and hand, edged Don Watkins in the 123-pound class.

The team leaves State College at 11 o'clock this morning and will arrive in Charlottesville at 8:30 p.m.

Track Managers

A call has been issued for associate management candidates for varsity track. Candidates should report to the balcony in Rec hall at 4 p.m., today.

Minnesota Hosts Pugilists Tonight

In a last-minute move to strengthen the Lion's light heavy and heavyweight classes, boxing coach Eddie Sulkowski announced a change in his previous lineup before leaving Thursday night for Minneapolis where the Lions will meet the University of Minnesota's boxers tonight at 8:15 in Williams Arena.

The change moves Chuck Wilson from the 175 lb. assignment to the heavyweight spot and gives junior Johnny Morgan his first start at 175 against Bill McMoore. The new lineup will give the Lions more experience to pit against veteran heavyweight, Ron Raveling.

At 125 lbs., Sam Marino, a sharp-punching sophomore, will go against Gopher Neil Ofsthun. Austin Marts drew the starting nod at 130. He will meet Dave Mackey, another Minnesota letterman.

Frank Gross, 135, will square off with probable starter, Milt Jacobson. Johnny Albarano, 145, will seek his second win over Minnesota's Joe Mackey. State captain Pat Heims will meet Gene Stevermer or Perry Turgeon at 155. Lou Koszarek will face Minnesota's captain, Ed Williams at 165.

Glennland pool records in either or both the 50-and 100-yard dashes are certain to fall if wily James Reilly, Rutgers swimming mentor, decides to cut loose with his human fish, Bob Nugent, when the Scarlet tankmen clash with Penn State at 7 o'clock tonight.

Nugent, when he sizzled through 100 yards in 51.4 last week, was only four tenths slower than "Tarzan" Johnny Weismuller's best and not far off Yale porpoise Alan Ford's world mark of 49.7.

Spectators will be seated on a first-come first-serve arrangement as seats, some 250, will be about as plentiful as tickets to "South Pacific."

Speaking of New Year's resolutions, my roomy Orval has some good ones. First, he's not going to copy anyone's problems unless he or she has a 2 average or better.

He's also resolved not to smoke hams; or go thru stop signs except at intersections.

His best resolution, tho, is to buy all his gifts at Ethel Meserve's. And that's a good resolution for you too; because Ethel has the greatest collection of gifts to be found between 110 and 114 E. College Ave. Everything from a gay clown beanbag at $1.50 to the world's "finest" purse atomizer.

Your secret weapon

This atomizer looks like a gold plated lipstick container. But squeeze the ends together, and your favorite perfume is atomized in a spray too fine to see. Guaranteed to buckle the knees of any male within shooting distance (roughly six feet). It's a very handsome accessory, precisely crafted to keep you heavenly for a lifetime: certainly worth $3.00.

No, No! not on the rug

You know how embarrassing it is to get rid of cigarette ashes unless you have an ash tray or pant cuff. Ethel comes to your rescue, girls, with a petite ash tray to carry in your purse.

Like a gold sauce pan in miniature, it's equipped with a spring lid to keep ashes from escaping. The bright baked enamel lid in yellow, blue, red, or green, creates a striking piece of jewelry that's practical. Price is little more than a carton of cigarettes; $2.25.

Ethel's in the chips

Here's a real find for a fraternity or individual who needs plenty of poker chips. It's a gorgeous leather case containing four individual matched wood trays. Each tray holds 100 grooved chips that can't tumble or slide. There's room for cards and pads. Tho it does represent a magnificent piece of craftsmanship, it's not for State College at the New York price of $40.00.

So Ethel has chopped the price in half: first 20 steals it.

Who's birthday is it this month? Remember it with an appreciated gift from Ethel Meserve. Stop in anytime for a few hundred suggestions.
