

Penn State Cagers Meet Georgetown In D.C. Tonite

Penn State's basketball team will attempt to keep a three-game winning streak alive tonight when it takes on Georgetown university on the Hoyas' home court in Washington, D.C. Tomorrow night Coach Elmer Gross' men will hop to Annapolis for a game with the men of the U.S. Naval Academy.

Boxers Outpunch W. Maryland, 7-1

By ART BENNING

In keeping with Coach Eddie Sulkowski's early season prediction that the Nittany Lion boxing team would get better as the season progressed, the ringmen showed marked improvement in battering Western Maryland for a 7-1 victory at Westminster, Md., Saturday night.

The victory followed the season opening loss to Minnesota and a 4-4 draw with Catholic University.

Scoring four technical knockouts, the Lion mittmen tuned up for this weekend's battle with Army, by narrowly missing a shutout. Heavyweight Herb Kurtz lost a 23-27 decision to Western Maryland's Watson Solomon, although he finished strong to take the third round by a 10-8 count.

Sam Marino, State's sophomore find in the 125-lb. class, racked up his second victory when he TKO'd Jerry Grandea in 51 seconds of the second round. John Albarano, 145; Lou Koszarek, 165; and Charley Wilson, 175, were the other TKO winners.

Wilson turned the trick in one minute, eight seconds of the first round against Jack Molesworth. Koszarek landed his lethal right on Jack Kelley's chin after one minute and 42 seconds. Albarano (Continued on page eight)

Gymnasts Trip N.C., 74½-33½

Taking six out of seven first places and sweeping two events completely, the Penn State gymnasts trampled the North Carolina Tarheels, 74½-33½, at Chapel Hill, Saturday.

The Nittanians were in College Park, Md. last night seeking their second victory from the University of Maryland.

Tumbling and the sidehorse events went easily to the Lions as Captain Rudy Valentino and Dave Benner gained top honors. Owen Wilkinson and Al Grazier finished second and third behind Valentino, while Dick Shaffer and Larry Jamieson helped Benner earn a clean sweep on the sidehorse.

Campbell Wins

Tom Campbell, 1949 PIAA horizontal bars champion, won that event for Coach Gene Wettstone's group. The only event that the North Carolinians could wrest from the Lions was the trampoline, which is not recognized by the Eastern Gymnastic Association. Wilkinson took second.

Jim Hazen captured first place on the flying rings. Dave Douglas, parallel bars, and Dave Schultz, rope climb, were the other individual winners in the intersectional meet.

The Tarheels are coached by Bill Meade, a former Eastern tumbling titleholder recently graduated from Penn State. In addition to being limited to one first place the Chapel Hill squad could garner only two second places.

Skiers Star In Tri-State Test

A trio of Penn State skiers came through in surprisingly good style in the men's cross-country race of the Tri-State Ski championships at Ligonier, Pa., on Jan. 27 and 28.

Lion Captain Bud Bankert turned in an exceptional job when he breezed over the rugged course in 49:01 to capture second place behind Egil Eide of the Cleveland Ski club, who finished in 47:52.

State's John Kirch and Ike Weiler finished fourth and sixth.

Saturday night in Rec hall the Lions added insult to injury by doing an about face against Bucknell university—outplaying the Bisons at their own game and notching their seventh win of the year. 37-53.

After using a Hardy Williams deep freeze to beat Bucknell in the first meeting, the Lions, sparked by Hardy Williams who played probably the best game of his college career, proved that they could beat Bucknell anyway they pleased to play. By passing their usual possession game, the Nittanians combined a zone defense with a fast break to turn back Coach Jack Guy's men for the second straight time.

Williams proved the driving force in the Lions' "new style" as the slim forward took scoring honors with 18 points while playing a demon backboard game.

Penn State's "scoring twins," Captain Lou Lamie and Ted Panoplos, continued neck and neck in the season scoring race as the two tossed in 17 and 15 points, respectively.

Whitey Makarewicz came in for some praise with his fine spot work—filling in for Tiny McMahan at the center position. If the performances of Williams and Makarewicz are any indication of things to come, Penn State will have a greatly improved basketball team.

The summary:

Penn State				Bucknell
	FG	F	T	FG	F	T
Lamie, f	5	7	17	Gallagher, f	5	11
Williams, f	7	4	18	Strassner, f	3	6
McMahan, c	3	0	6	Deloia, c	2	3
Moore, g	2	2	6	Strella, g	3	2
Panoplos, g	7	1	15	Webber, g	5	2
Makarewicz, c	1	3	5	Lavin, f	0	1
Stedzik, g	0	0	0	Reichman, g	1	0
Totals	25	17	67	Totals	19	53

Cornell, Pirates Top Swimmers

Saturday at Seton Hall, Lion swimmers took up where they left off two weeks ago—a 45-30 defeat by Cornell—and dropped their fourth straight, 46-29, to the Pirate's ECSA champion aggregation.

Distance man Gene Kolber continued to shine in Coach Bill Gutteron's losing swim picture. Gene wasn't pushed en route to his third 440 victory of the season, but could only cop a second in half that distance.

Against Cornell, Kolber cracked two Penn State team records the same day. In the quarter mile Gene lowered his own record to 5:19 and in the 220 by winning in 2:24 he clipped three tenths from former Captain John McGroary's standard set last year.

Against Seton Hall Cas Borowy, who has been swimming well but against top flight competition, had ill fortune thwart his first win of the campaign. Cas was streaking toward a swift 100-yard freestyle triumph when on the last turn a bad shadow effect, caused by poor lighting, made him foul. Forced to retake the turn, State's co-captain still (Continued on page eight)

Wrestlers Extend Win Streak To Four; Frey Pins Fourth Foe

By GEORGE GLAZER

Two more victories have been added to the Penn State skein this season, bringing the Nittany mat record to a spotless 4-0 mark.

Saturday night, on the Rec hall mats, the Lions soundly trounced a comparatively weak Maryland squad, 30-0, and as classes ended two weeks ago, bounced Pitt, 21-9. Penn State's Don Frey also furthered his personal streak by garnering two more pins in the 147-pound class to make it four falls in four attempts.

South America - Here We Come

— Collegian Photo by McNeillie

DICK LEMYRE (left) and Jerry Maurey (right) won themselves a trip south of the border when they came out victorious in the Pan American tryouts at Lehigh. Using Olympic weight divisions, Lemyre wrestled in the 125.5-lb. class while Maurey wrestled in the 136.5-lb. division.

J. Maurey, D. Lemyre Win Pan American Mat Tryouts

Two members of Penn State's freshman wrestling team, Dick Lemyre and Jerry Maurey, earned themselves a trip to South America as they swept to victory in the Pan American tryouts held over the weekend at Lehigh university.

Lemyre, who usually wrestles in the 130-lb. division, took top honors in the 125.5 class. Maurey also wrestled out of his class when he grabbed laurels in the 136.5-lb. spot.

Of the two, Maurey had the tougher going. One of his victims was Murray Adleman, of the McBurney YMCA in N.Y., whom Maurey decisively defeated in the finals, 7-3. Adleman, a former national YMCA titlist, had previously downed Pete Huey, also of the Lion freshman team, and had won by default over George Feurbach of Lehigh. Maurey was also the only Lion in any of the preliminary matches.

Lemyre opened his string of triumphs with a default in the quarter-final round. After that came a 12-1 decision over Harold Dunham, whom Lemyre had defeated in a match against the Pitt frosh. In the finals Lemyre, whose older brother Joe is on the Lion varsity wrestling squad, pinned Jim Lee of Harvard.

Other State freshman wrestlers who made the trip to Lehigh—Bill Krebs, Budd Whitehill, and Pete Huey—didn't fair as well. Of these, Krebs finished third in the 147.5 class. Whitehill and Huey, however, lost in quarter-final bouts.

Watkins Earns Decision

The Lions took command from the beginning against Maryland. Don Watkins opened with a 3-0 decision in 123. Jack Dreibelbis took 30 seconds of the second period to pin his man with a half nelson and crotch, and Don Maurey stretched the Lion lead to 11-0 with a 10-5 decision in 137.

Frey dropped Ken Scott, Maryland captain, in 1:47 of the second period with a half nelson and crotch, and Bill Santel bested Joel Adelburg, 9-3, in the 157-lb. match. Joe Lemyre took a 6-0 decision at 167 to make it 22-0.

Rubino Comes Through

Mike Rubino had to wait until the second period before making the crowd cheer with one of his renowned body slams. He then took the match with a 10-2 decision.

Captain Homer Barr got five points for a forfeit in the heavy-weight division.

At Pittsburgh the Panthers took a short-lived 6-0 lead as both Watkins and Dreibelbis lost decisions in the lighter weights. Maurey put the Lions back in the fray with a pin in 55 seconds of the second period using a half nelson and crotch. Frey didn't wait as long as he pulled down his man in 1:30 of the first period, also with a half nelson and crotch.

Lemyre Holds Lead

Santel lost a 7-4 decision in 157, leaving the Lions with a slim 10-9 lead. Lemyre protected it with a 4-2 decision in 167, and Rubino chipped in with three more points in decisioning his rival, 8-3.

Barr finished the match on a bright note, pinning the Pitt heavy in 2:16 of the first period with a key lock.

Varsity Baseball

Coach Joe Bedenk has asked that all members of last year's varsity baseball team report to him in his Rec hall office as soon as possible.

Bedenk said that practice for the coming season would begin for pitchers and catchers Monday.

New Record At Bucknell

The 25-15 victory Penn State scored over Bucknell last Wednesday was the lowest scoring game played in Davis gymnasium since it opened in 1939.

Have You Answered These Questions?

1. Who Is Jesus Christ?
2. What Was Christ's Mission?
3. What Is Eternal Life?
4. Who Has Eternal Life?

Hear Bob Smoot of Baltimore, Md.

Feb. 6, 7, 8, 9, 7:30 - 8:45 P. M. 405 Old Main

Campus Bible Conference

Penn State Bible Fellowship