

Sororities Plan Open Houses

Panhellenic council announced last night that sororities will hold open house from 2 to 5 p.m. Feb. 17 in the sorority suite rooms. The open house will give girls who are interested in going sorority an opportunity to meet members of the sororities. All rushees must have a one all-college average, and freshman are not permitted to rush. Margaret Ann Bratt was appointed publicity chairman for open house.

Plans for holding a Panhellenic workshop which would include other colleges were discussed at the council meeting. Ella Louise Williams is general chairman for the proposed workshop, which would be held either this spring or next fall. Chairmen of other committees are Lyn Levitt, correspondence; Patricia Weaver, food; Geraldine Dosey, housing; Isabel Cooper, program; and Natalie Adler, entertainment. Further discussion of the workshop was tabled until the next meeting.

Bettina DePalma and Janet Rosen will assist Ruth Grotzky in editing the Panhellenic booklet which will be sent out next summer. The booklet will be sent to girls planning on entering the College in the fall.
