

Didn't Even Touch Me

BLOOD SPURTS from West Pointer Jim Donahue's nose during his bout with Penn State's Jim Barr. Barr TKO'd Donahue in 1:59 of the third round. A sophomore, Barr has a record of two wins against a single loss.

Boxing Win Over Cadets Ups Lions' Eastern Rating

By ART BENNING

Pulling one of the season's big surprises in Eastern collegiate boxing circles, the Nittany Lion ring team pounded out a convincing 5½-2½ win over the Black Knights from West Point Saturday night in Rec hall.

The surprise was two-fold. First, it astonished most fans, who had little inkling of the potential in the 1951 boxing lineup. Secondly, the Lion victory surprised Army right out of top contention for Eastern team honors.

The State pugilists made it look like a breeze by taking the first four bouts of the evening, and then breaking even the rest of the way.

Gross Cuts Loose

The man with the dynamite fists, Frank Gross, made it four straight wins in the 135-lb. class, when he scored a TKO at 1:55 seconds of the first round against Army's Mahlon Weed.

After feinting cautiously and watching for the right opening for the first minute, Gross tagged Weed with a left to the chin that staggered the Cadet and sent him reeling almost through the ropes. Seconds later Gross dropped him for a nine count, and scored the final knock-down with two lefts and rights to the head.

Classy Sam Marino got the Lions off on the right foot with a 30-28 decision over Army's unbeaten Don Speirs in the 125-lb. class. After an even-up first round, Marino took command in the second canto to pile up a two-point advantage. Tiring under the blows of a much rangier opponent, Marino still traded blow-for-blow with Speirs in the third round, which ended in a 10-10 tie.

3rd Round TKO

At 130 lbs., Jimmy Barr made his second win a TKO when the referee stopped his bout with Cadet Donahue one second before the end of the third round. Donahue took the first round, 10-9.

John Albarano decided Jim McGee in the 145-lb. bout for his third win in four starts. In winning each round by a 10-9 count, Albarano used a punishing body attack and a good left to keep the aggressive McGee at bay.

Army's veteran Ken Herring decided Captain Pat Heims, 30-27, in the 155-lb. clash. Heims, not using his usually good left to full advantage, stayed on the defensive most of the way.

Koszarek Earns Decision

In the closest fight of the night, Lou Koszarek decided another Army veteran ringman, Lou Morin, 29-28. The two battled on even terms during the first round, with Koszarek the better man in the second. Koszarek took the third period, 10-9.

Jim McInerney won his third fight in four starts for Army when he TKO'd State's Chuck Wilson in the 175-lb. class late in the third period.

Heavyweight Herb Kurtz showed the crowd what they wanted to see in a free-swinging slugfest

Galiffa Hurling 'Pineapple' TD's

KOREA, Feb. 12 (AP)—Lt. Arnold Galiffa, 1949 All-America from West Point, is tossing hand grenades these days instead of footballs.

Fellow officers reported today the former cadet quarterback helped wipe out attacking Reds by hurling a hand grenade 75 yards. That is twice as far as the book says grenades can be thrown accurately.

with Army's Jack Chamblin, which ended in a draw. Kurtz commanded an edge at the end, but could not overtake the lead built up by Chamblin in the first canto.

Present NCAA heavyweight champion of the nation, Chuck Drazenovich, was seated at ringside to watch his former teammates in action. Questioned about his successor, Herb Kurtz, the Draz said he was pleased to see Herb doing so well. "With a little better left, and some straighter punching he could hold his own against them all," the former heavyweight said.

Victorious Over Army, Matmen Seek Sixth Straight Against Syracuse

By GEORGE GLAZER

Syracuse is next on the schedule of the Nittany matmen as they continue undefeated in quest of their first Eastern Intercollegiate Wrestling Association title since 1942. The two teams will tangle at Syracuse this Saturday.

The wrestlers took a big step forward last Saturday when they stretched their season record to 5-0 with a 15-11 win over Army. It was Penn State's eighth straight dual meet triumph since losing to Syracuse last season.

Captain Homer Barr extended his personal dual meet record to 21 without defeat—preserving a 12-11 Nittany lead—when he pushed Army footballer J. D. Kimmel around for an 8-0 decision in the heavyweight bout.

Wouldn't Play Ball

Barr tried hard to pin Kimmel, and did get a near fall in the first period, but Kimmel seemed content to be pushed around the mat on his face by Barr.

Don Frey also kept his win streak intact, but had to be content with a 9-3 decision over Cadet Dan Myers in 147. Previously, Frey had won four straight matches by falls, only once as far as the second period.

Coach Charlie Speidel's other two previously-undefeated matmen, Joe Lemyre, 167, and Mike Rubino, 177, lost decisions to their Cadet opponents.

Mulder Defeats Lemyre

Army Captain Dean Mulder took a 6-2 decision from Lemyre and Rubino lost a 3-0 verdict to Al Paulekas, an ex-PIAA wrestling champion from Farrell, Pa.

Mulder, who finished third in last year's Eastern's, scored the first two points in his match with Lemyre when he dropped the Statemen for a takedown in the first period. The two thrashed about on the mat for most of the first period. Lemyre several times came close to breaking loose, but Mulder, an excellent leg wrestler, held him in check. The Cadet captain reversed on Lemyre to start the second period, running the score to 4-0, and Lemyre finally broke loose for a reverse also in the second. It was Mulder all the way in the final frame.

Rubino's match with Paulekas started out as if blood might be shed at any minute.

Mike Slams Twice

Paulekas, in retaliation to Mike's tactics of pawing his opponent's hair, slapped a little too hard and both were off to the races as the crowd roared its approval. Rubino got some measure of satisfaction by coming up with two body slams in the first period that echoed from one end of Rec hall to the other. Paulekas pulled an escape in the second period and spent most of the time thereafter riding Rubino, adding two-minute's time advantage to his total.

Army's 123-pounder, sophomore Bob Karns, kept his record for the past two seasons unblemished as he pinned Don Watkins with a cradle in 1:40 of the second period.

JOE LEMYRE and Army's wrestling Captain Dean Mulder (face away from camera) struggle for a pin hold during their match at Rec hall Saturday afternoon. Lemyre, a sophomore, lost a 6-2 decision to conclude his unbeaten streak at four wins. State beat Army, 15-11.

State Swimmers Suffer Sixth Straight Setback

By JAKE HIGHTON

That old friend of athletes in, the throes of a losing slump, the law of averages, still refuses to catch up with the Penn State swimmers who suffered their fifth and sixth straight reverses at the hands of Delaware, 39-36, on Saturday and Virginia, 48-27, yesterday in foreign waters.

Harrison Wins In Texas Open

SAN ANTONIO, Feb. 12—(AP)—E. J. (Dutch) Harrison, who has been following the tournament trail longer than most anybody—17 years to be exact—won the Texas Open today from Doug Ford of Briar Cliff, N.Y., a freshman to championship golf.

Harrison, the old Arkansas traveler registered from St. Andrews, Ill., beat Ford by a stroke in an 18-hole play-off necessitated when they tied for first place yesterday with 72-hole scores of 265.

Harrison had a four under par 67 over the 6,400-yard Breckenridge park course.

Delaware, expected to be one of the Lion triumphs this season, proved surprisingly strong in the freestyle events where the Nittanians figured to dominate with their ace crawl swimmers Cas Borowy and Gene Kolber.

Borowy did come up with his first win of the year in the 50-yard dash while Kolber copped first in the 440. But both had to play second place parts to the Blue Hen's George Ester whose lead role featured a double success in Cas's longer distance, the 100, and Gene's shorter, the 220.

Relay Triumph

The only other State victory was registered by Dick Wilson, Bob Long, George Hamilton, and Borowy in the 400-yard relay.

In finishing second, Hamilton chased Delaware's Art Mayer to a new school record in the 200-yard backstroke in 2:22.2 to eclipse by nearly three seconds his old Penn State standard set earlier this campaign.

Kolber Wins

George's win and Kolber's fifth victory against one lone defeat in the 440 were State's sole comfort in the Cavalier rout.

Steady Bobby Kenyon finished in the money for the sixth successive time this season with a second spot against the Virginians off the one meter board.

After his first conquest of the year, Borowy fell back into his bridesmaid position with a couple of seconds in the two sprint events, the 50 and 100-yard.

Rod Waters hit the scoring column with a third in the backstroke as did Bruce Bainbridge in the breaststroke, Bronk in the 440 and Wilson in the 100.

2nd Track Managers

Candidates for second assistant track manager have been asked to report to the Rec hall balcony at 4:30 p.m. today.

Kentucky Rated Nation's Top Five

Wildcats Hold Lead In Sportswriters' Poll

NEW YORK, Feb. 12—(AP)—Kentucky's Wildcats still ranked No. 1 today in the ninth weekly Associated Press poll of the nation's basketball greats—but look out for the Oklahoma Aggies.

Oklahoma A. & M., which came through Kansas, Oklahoma, and Drake with colors flying last week, is on the poll prouf. The Aggies are only 44 points back of Kentucky in the latest tabulation of votes from the nation's sports writers and sportscasters.

A week ago, Kentucky had 78 first place votes to only 15 for Oklahoma A & M. This time it's much closer.

Kentucky, which mauled Georgia Tech in its only game last week, received but 55 votes this week as the No. 1 team, while Oklahoma got 31. In points, Kentucky is ahead by 1,063 to 1,119.

Oklahoma A. & M., now boasting a record of 21 victories and one defeat, undoubtedly picked up heavy support by avenging its only loss to Oklahoma last month.

Oklahoma Aggies Rise In Weekly Tabulation

Last week the Aggies turned the tables, beating the Sooners, 48-45. The Aggies also stopped Kansas, 46-41.

Kansas State (17-2), Columbia (15-0) and St. Louis (18-4) all jumped to new heights, taking third, fourth and fifth places as Old Man Defeat dealt a blow to three of the top 10.

Indiana, upset 61-54 by Minnesota and knocked from the lead in the Big Ten conference, skidded from third to sixth. St. Louis handed Bradley a 72-69 setback, and Bradley was demoted from fifth to eighth place in the balloting.

Villanova, beaten by Toledo, 62-57, fell a notch from ninth to tenth, trading places with North Carolina State. The other member of the top 10, St. John's of Brooklyn, retained the No. 7 spot.
