Distillation Topic Discussed By Rose At AICE Meeting

Dr. Arthur Rose, associate professor of chemical engineering, lectured on the "History of Distillation" last Tuesday night at a meeting of the College chapter of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers.

Since a good portion of the research on distillation is being conducted in the laboratories at the College, Dr. Rose discussed the work that is being accomplished here.

A social gathering followed the lecture.

To Attend Meeting

Robert Miller, president of the AICE, revealed that the group is making plans to attend a middle-Atlantic regional of the society meeting at Bucknell university in April. Each chapter will present a paper on an individual piece of research in laboratory or class work. Several members of the Penn State chapter are preparing papers. One of these research papers will be selected for presentation at the regional meeting.

Writers To Compete For Cash Awards

Writers of serious drama, comedy, or short plays have been offered cash awards and possible production by the Dramatists' Alliance of California.

Full length drama and comedies will be awarded $100 and short plays will be awarded $50, plus recommendations and introductions to acting groups.

Theaters of the San Francisco bay area will present the most immediately producible of the plays.

March 25 Is Deadline

The deadline for entries is March 25.

Registration forms can be obtained by writing to Dramatists' Alliance, Box 200 Z, Stanford university, California.

The goal of the association is to offer success in the West because the association feels that provincial eastern producers limit success to New York.

This is the 16th annual contest sponsored by the Dramatists' Alliance.

Rifles To Hold Banquet For 42 Pledges

A formal initiation banquet for the 42 pledges of Company B, Pershing Rifles, military honor society, will be held at the Eutaw house tonight.

The pledges, who have been drilling mornings from 7 to 7:50 a.m., were chosen on the basis of outstanding ROTC grades and recommendations from ROTC instructors. Following the initiation, Col. Lucien E. Bolduc, professor of military science and tactics at the College, will deliver an address.

Nationwide Society

The society which had its beginning in 1892, is now established in colleges and universities all over the country. Gen. John J. Pershing, then a lieutenant at the University of Nebraska, formed a trick drill unit.

At present, the national organization of Pershing Rifles is divided into eight regiments with the headquarters of the fifth regiment at the College. The regiment which is divided into ten companies, is commanded by P/R Col. Carl E. Barefoot and advised by Maj. Robert D. Halpin.

Company B, located on campus, is commanded by P/R Capt. Alan E. Wolfe and advised by Maj. William H. Cox. The company, which has meetings every Wednesday, furnishes men to participate in ceremonies on campus and in town and to act as honor guards for special affairs.

David H. McKinley, professor of economics at the College, last night discussed the life of a young attorney at a meeting of Pi Lambda Sigma, pre-legal honorary.

Alpha Zeta To Initiate Pres. Eisenhower Tonight

President Milton S. Eisenhower will be initiated into honorary membership of Alpha Zeta, professional agriculture fraternity, at a special ceremony to be held in the College chapter house tonight.

The Kansas State chapter of the fraternity originally proposed President Eisenhower's name to the high council while he was president of Kansas State college. The proposition then was to initiate him as an associate member.

'All Have Right To Go To Hell,' Mather Says

"Among the inalienable rights of man is the right to go to hell," said Dr. William G. Mather, professor of sociology at the College, at a recent panel discussion on religion in Pittsburgh.

"Religious freedom is under attack today, as ever, from two camps of political authoritarians of both right and left who would use religion as a tool to control the people, and religious authoritarians who from the kindest motives of saving the souls of others would compel them into their own way," Mather said. After saying this, Mather told both these groups to heed man's right to go to hell.

May Abridge Liberty

"We may use friendly persuasion and example to attract others to our own way of faith," Dr. Mather said, "but every discriminatory law of state or church, every subterfuge or stratagem which would compel or trick others against their most

Because of his outstanding work in the field of education and agriculture, the high council felt that he should be initiated as an honorary member-at-large and planned the ceremony for the biennial convention in Kansas City last December.

President Eisenhower was unable to attend the convention in Kansas City, so the initiation will be held tonight at the College chapter house.

Representatives from many of the 47 chapters of the fraternity will be present. A special team, composed of members of the high council, alumni of Morrill chapter, and active members of that chapter will conduct the initiation.

Among those who will attend will be John Cunningham, dean emeritus of the school of agriculture at Ohio State and co-founder of Alpha Zeta; David Weaver, high chancellor, of North Carolina State college; L. H. Dennis, high treasurer and general secretary, of Washington, D.C.; and Miles Horst, state secretary of agriculture.

Dr. H. R. Albrecht, professor and head of the Department of Agronomy at the College, is high scribe of the fraternity and a member of the high council.

'The Gentle People' Begins 2nd Week

"The Gentle People" goes into its second weekend at Center stage tonight at 8 o'clock.

Tickets, priced at 90 cents for tonight's performance and $1.25 for tomorrow night's, may be purchased at the Student Union desk.

The Irwin Shaw drama stars Fred DeWit, Nick Morkides, Charles Williams, Ruth Johnson, Lorraine Spitzer, and Sonya Tilles.

Ceiga To Present Recital At Schwab

George Ceiga, assistant professor of music at the College, will present an organ recital in Schwab auditorium at 4 p.m., Sunday.

His program will include "Sleepers Awake and Passaglia and Fugue in C Minor" by Bach, "Rhapsody No. 3 in A Minor" on Breton melodies by Saint-Saens, "Divertissement" by Pierné, "Trumpet Voluntary" by Purcell, "Tranquility" from Norwegian tone poems by Torjussen, and "Thou Art The Rock" by Mulet.

completely free will into a semblance of our own religion is an abridgement of religious liberty and has no place in a democratic society."

Mather said that "In the last analysis we must all, from Pope to bar-fly, work out our salvation with fear and trembling."
