

Reese To Wrestle At 123 State-Syracuse Boxing Match For Penn State Matmen Could Decide Eastern Champ At Syracuse Tomorrow

Coach Charlie Speidel made only one lineup change as the Nittany Lion wrestlers wound up their practice sessions last night in preparation for the match with EIWA champion Syracuse tomorrow afternoon at Syracuse.

Johnny Reese, who for five weeks has been wearing a cast to protect a fractured right thumb, will take over the 123-pound spot from Don Watkins.

According to team trainer Chuck Medlar, Reese's thumb is completely healed and he should have no trouble with it on the mats. Reese had the cast removed at the end of last week and has been practicing and getting back into shape all this week.

No Other Changes

Otherwise, Speidel will stick with the same lineup that has been victorious in five straight meets this season.

Following Reese, in the 130-pound class, will be Jack Dreibelbis, who has a season record of two wins and one loss. Dreibelbis' best match of the season came in last week's 15-11 win over Army when he took an 11-3 verdict from Thor Sundt.

Don Maurey, who now has four straight wins to his credit after losing his opening match with Lehigh's Eastern Intercollegiate Wrestling association champion George Feuerbach, goes in 137.

Frey Defends Streak

Unbeaten sophomore Don Frey, who had his streak of four straight pins broken last week in the Army match, will hold down the 147 spot. Frey had to be content with a 9-3 decision over the Cadet's Dan Myers.

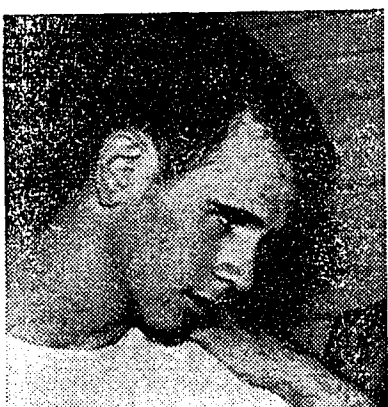

In 157, Bill Santel takes a 3-2 record into the match with him. Santel last week outlasted the Army's Don Swygert in a 6-4 verdict. Swygert last year was a fourth place finisher in the EIWA's.

Joe Lemyre, another sophomore, will try to get back into the win column in the 167-pound tussle. Lemyre had his four-meet string broken when Cadet Captain Dean Mulder came up with a 6-2 decision.

Mike Rubino, in 177, will also try to start another win string against the Orangemen, after losing his first of the season to Cadet Al Paulekas in a 3-0 match. Previous to his defeat by Paulekas, Rubino was working with a seven-match victory skein, with four victories this year and three last season.

Two-time EIWA champion Captain Homer Barr takes his 21-match dual meet victory string to the mats in the meet's finale

Faces Orange Foe

Don Maurey

Panthers Topple Lion Fresh, 71-40

The Pittsburgh freshman basketball team last night upset Penn State's spirited frosh, 71-40, at Pittsburgh, sending the Nittany Lion youngsters down to third consecutive defeat.

The guns of Ed Brown and Bill Gilman, who scored ten and 18 points respectively, proved to be too much for the Lion defense.

Ted Jackson, rangy Lion center, scored six points in the contest to raise his total to 76, high for the team. The summary:

Pittsburgh			Penn State
Player	FG	FT	Player	FG	FT
Burch, f	1	2	Miller, f	3	0
Brown, f	4	2	Sherry, f	3	3
Dressel, f	1	3	Lewis, f	1	0
Kraft, f	1	2	Poser, f	1	4
Artman, f	2	1	Jackson, c	2	2
Deitrich, c	2	2	Ross, c	0	2
Jones, c	0	2	Corbin, g	1	0
Schenz, c	1	0	Rizzo, g	2	0
Gilman, g	8	2	Carr, g	0	1
Hood, g	4	1	Seigel, g	0	2
Novakovic, g	3	0
Totals	27	17	Totals	13	14

tomorrow in the heavyweight class.

The team will leave by chartered bus from the Hotel State College at 12:45 p.m. today and is expected to arrive in Syracuse about 7 p.m. At 7:45, they will weigh in and have a short practice session in Syracuse's new Archbold stadium.

Tomorrow night should tell the story of just who is the boxing power in the East this year. The Nittany Lions leave today for the perennially strong boxing encampment at Syracuse, N.Y., where they will meet the Orangemen tomorrow night.

Currently the two teams rate about even. Both hold wins over Army, Penn State winning by the more decisive score, and both have met Catholic U., the Lions tying, 4-4, and Syracuse winning, 4½-3½.

Win Would Boost Stock

Should the Lions come up with a victory or a tie against the Orange, their stock for an Eastern championship would soar.

Coach Eddie Sulkowski says he will probably go along with the same lineup that brought him two straight wins the past two weeks over W. Maryland and Army.

At 125-lbs., Sam Marino will be seeking his third straight win after dropping a decision to Minnesota's Neil Ofsthun. He will meet Jim Huba, current Eastern titlist.

Sophomore Jimmy Barr meets the Orange's Tom Coulter or Norm Mosberg in the 130-lb. class. Barr has a 2-1 record.

Gross Undeclared

Frank Gross, who is undefeated this season, will meet Eddie Martin, a sophomore. Gross will be punching for his fifth straight win in the 135 lb. bout.

In what could be the top fight of the night, State's John Albarano meets Ben Dolphin, national runnerup in the 145-lb. class. Dolphin scored a knockout against Army in his only fight this year. Albarano has a 3-1 record to date.

Captain Pat Heims will attempt to hit the win trail again when he meets either Jim Palmiotto or Bill Miller at 155-lbs. Miller defeated Army's Lou Morin at 165 in the season opener, and dropped a weight against Catholic U. last week.

Veteran puncher Lou Koszarek will square off against the alternate at 165-lbs. Koszarek has won two and has two draws.

Wilson vs. Kartalian

Football end, Chuck Wilson, 175-lbs. will toss leather with George Kartalian, the Orange's light heavy. Wilson has a 1-3 record.

Former heavyweight champ, Marty Crandell, back on the victory trail, will slug it out with State's Herb Kurtz. Kurtz, still looking for that elusive first victory, has two draws and a loss thus far.

* * * * *

That's No Shadow, Boxing

SHOWN HERE facing one of the toughest sophomore boxers to arrive in the Nittany camp in recent years, Penn State's Sam Marino, 125 lbs., glares at a reflection of himself in the shadow boxing mirror in Rec hall. Marino seeks win number four against Syracuse tomorrow night.

The CITRUS Dope

By BOB SCHOELLKOPF

Vern (Junior) Stephens, hard-hitting shortstop for the Boston Red Sox, has signed his 1951 contract, Boston officials disclosed yesterday, which left only four key players unsigned.

Two of them, outfielder Dom DiMaggio and pitcher Maury McDermott, were said to be in the Red Sox Sarasota, Fla., training camp, awaiting the arrival of General Manager Joe Cronin, who is due there early next week.

Southpaw ace Mel Parnell and catcher Matty Batts, who is supposed to have the inside track on the regular backstop berth for the red hose, also are unsigned.

With the annual baseball players' golf tournament beginning today at the Miami Springs course, it looks like rookie pitcher Ken Yount of the Niagara Falls club in the Middle Atlantic league is the man to beat.

Yount, who once hurled for Joe Bedenk's Lion nine, shot a par 70 three days ago—the first time he ever saw the course—and yesterday fired a 73, which was the best practice score of the day among the active ball players.

Pete Harris, former pitcher with Columbus of the American association who has won the tournament the past two years, cannot defend his crown with the active players. He must compete in a newly-created division for inactive players. Harris shot a 71 in practice yesterday.

The second-place Brooklyn Dodgers had all contract worries abolished yesterday except one, as they announced the receipt of signed contracts from 19-game-winner Preacher Roe and utility infielder Eddie Miksis.

Roe, the slim southpaw control artist, who headed the Dodger staff in both percentage and earned-run average, last season, signed for an estimated $20,000 to $25,000, which was described as a "substantial raise."

Mlkvy, Groat Threaten Hoop Records

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Both Bill Mlkvy of Temple and Dick Groat, Duke's sensational guard, appear to be on their way to new college basketball scoring records if they retain their form through the rapidly dwindling season.

Mlkvy had scored 514 points in the Owls' 19 games through last Saturday, giving the smooth-shooting forward an average of 27.1 per contest. All he needs is 155 points in Temple's final six games, an average of 25.8 per evening, to break the record of 26.7 set in 1944 by Ernie Calverley of Rhode Island State.

Player	G	FG	FT	PTS	AVG
Mlkvy, Temple	19	210	94	514	27.1
White, Long Is. U.	21	200	153	553	26.3
Workman, W. Vir.	21	218	109	545	26.0
Groat, Duke	24	197	195	589	24.5
Slaughter, S. C.	19	184	92	460	24.2
Lovellette, Kas.	17	181	36	398	23.4
Handlan, W. Lee	18	146	119	411	22.8
Zawoluk, St. John	20	152	136	440	22.0
Ove, Valparaiso	17	129	114	372	21.9
Hennessey, Vil.	20	192	44	428	21.4

Groat, called by some the greatest player in Southern Conference history, appears virtually certain to shatter the record of 215 free throws, sunk in one season. Tony Lavelli set the mark two years ago for Yale, and Paul Arizin of Villanova tied it last season.

Through last week Groat had hit the hoop with 195 fouls tossed in 24 games, and he still had six games remaining in which to rack up a new standard. Groat also is within shooting distance of the total point record of 740 for a season, set two years ago by Chet Giermak of William & Mary.

Sherm White Bill Mlkvy

Groat leads the present field with 589.

Figures compiled by the NCAA Service bureau through last Saturday's games show that, besides Mlkvy and Groat, only three other players on major teams had passed the 500 point mark. They were Sherman White of Long Island U., Mark Workman of West Virginia and Sammy Ranzino of North Carolina State.

Nick McGuire of Villanova led the field in field goal percentage, having clicked on 51.8 percent of his shots from the floor. Other leaders included Aaron Preece of Bradley, with an average of 89.1 from the free throw line; Mlkvy, with an average of 19.3 rebounds per game,

State To Fence Unbeaten Navy

The Nittany Lion fencing squad will invade foreign soil on Saturday afternoon when it meets undefeated Navy at Annapolis.

In Navy they will be facing a team which captured second place in the Eastern Intercollegiate Fencing tournament last year, having lost to the NYU combine, 73½-72½.

Led by the near flawless fencing of Captain Jerry Stuart, the Sailors record thus far is 5-0. They hold victories over Princeton, NYU, and Columbia, among others. Last week's 15-12 win over Columbia dropped the pale blue from the ranks of the unbeaten and also halted their winning streak at eight.

The Midshipmen will provide top competition for the Meyer-men. The State swordsmen lost to a talent-laden NYU team last Saturday and in their initial appearance they were beaten by Lehigh.