

Ross To Lecture On World Affairs

The director of International Affairs for the Congress of Industrial Organization, Michael Ross, will address the student body in economics and commerce on Tuesday in 121 Sparks at 1:30 p.m.

His topic will be "Labor's Participation in International Affairs."

Ross will speak to the Economics department and the Industrial Relations Research association at a dinner at noon, Tuesday in the Nittany Lion inn before his address in Sparks, John Dale, IRRRA vice president, said yesterday.

Since his appointment as the director of the newly-established CIO Department for International Affairs, Moss has attended numerous international trade union conferences in European countries, representing the CIO in relations with the State department and ECA.

The activities committee of Department of Economics and Commerce and the Penn State student chapter of Industrial Research association are sponsoring Ross' speech.

Michael Ross was born in England and came to the United States in 1932. He worked as research assistant for the La Follette Civil Liberties committee 1936-1937.

Speech Dept. Will Hold 4th In Series Of Reading Hours

The fourth in the 1950-51 series of reading hours sponsored by the Speech department will be held in the home economics living center, 8 p.m., Monday.

Three students will read at the program. Lorraine Spitzer will present Stephen Vincent Benet's "The Sobbin' Women"; Sonya Tilles will read a segment of Sidney Howard's "The Silver Cord"; and Charles Schulte will present a portion of Shakespeare's "Othello." Joada Oswalt will be chairman.

This school year marks the third annual renewal of these programs, under the direction of Harriet D. Nesbitt, assistant professor of speech, and William W. Hamilton, instructor in speech. The readings are open to the public.

Coleman Named Director

Dr. Howard S. Coleman, former instructor in physical science at the College, has been named director of Bausch and Lomb Optical company's scientific bureau.

Later he became research director of the Industrial Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers, and in 1943 became the union's Washington representative.
