8th Sem. Women Receive 11 O'Clocks

The dean of women's office today announced that lists of eighth semester senior women have been sent to the dorm hostesses. These girls will receive 11 o'clock permissions every week night until the end of the semester. The lists are made from registration cards sent over by the registrar. Occasionally girls are omitted from the list because the dean's office has received no card. Each eighth semester girl, therefore, should check with her hostess to see if her name is on the list. If it is not, the hostess will contact the dean's office, and the error will be corrected.
