FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 1951

Wisconsin Boxers Bring Swim-Bug Hit Borowy At Erie

Jinx Record Here Sat.

In an intercollegiate series as one-sided as they come, Penn State's boxing team meets Wisconsin for the 16th consecutive year tomorrow night in Rec hall at 7 o'clock. The Lions have salvaged only one victory in 17 meets, that one occurring way back in 1937. Two of the matches came in 1945. But the series record will go by the boards tomorrow night when the Lions tangle with a Badger outfit not quite up to par. Graduation cut deeply into Coach Johnny Walsh's wealth of experienced boxers.

1st Six Look Good

The Lions stand a good chance the 130-lb. class and Captain Path Heims can out-punch his rival captain, Dick Murphy at 155-lbs. The Lion ski-men are slated rek earned the Collegian's boxer Snow Ridge, N.Y. of the week award last week for his great showing against Syracuse's Jim Palmiotto.

In the light-heavy class, Chuck Wilson will toss leather with vet-eran Gerald Meath. Heavyweight Herb Kurtz will tangle with the Badger's Bob Ranck. Ranck was NCAA runnerup behind Marty Crandell in 1949, and was not in school last year.

The Nittany Lions are. seeking their third win of the season, having lost two and tied one. Tomorrow night's meet is the last home appearance of the Lions.

Gridders To Meet

All members of the 1950 varsity, jayvee, and freshman football teams, and other interested persons, have been asked to attend a meeting Monday at 7 p.m. in 121 Sparks. Plans for spring practice and other matters will be discussed.

Pa. Boys In Running

Two Pennsylvania boys will be top contenders for 177-pound honors when the Eastern inter-collegiate wrestling champion-ships are held here March 9-10. Mike Rubino, of Dormont who brought Penn State runner un brought Penn State runner-up honors in this division a year ago, was undefeated until Army's Al Paulekas, a Farrell boy, decisioned him two weeks ago.

Hinders Skiers Unless old man winter makes of sweeping the first six bouts providing Jim Barr can get by a hurried return visit. Coach the Badger's Chuck Hopkins, in Sherm Fogg's ski team will be At 125-lbs. Sam Marino meets to trek to Syracuse to meet. the At 125-105. Sam Marino meets to trek to Syracuse to meet the Gene Diamond, who is in his first year of collegiate competition. Frank Gross will be looking for his sixth consecutive win against weekend in a row. Last weekhis sixth consecutive will against veteran Les Paul. Paul failed to win a bout last year, although he drew twice. Albarano Vs. Sreenan Weekend in a row. Last week end's scheduled meet with Army, RPI, and Hamilton at West Point was called off because of un-satisfactory weather conditions.

John Albarano will square off against sophomore Pat Sreenan, er permitting—will take part in brother of former Badger ring the Paul Smith carnival at Paul star, Jim Sreenan. Lou Koszarek, Smith, N.Y. They will wind up unbeaten in five starts, meets the season on March 10 and 11 Dick Rowland at 165-lbs. Kosza- with the Snow Ridge carnival at

All

We Now Feature

Comet Flyers

ATTENTION

Model Builders

HAS INCREASED ITS LARGE LINE

OF SOLID AND FLYING MODELS

Strom BecKer Solid Models

from our complete line today

You Can Get It At Metzgers

Scientific Gas Models

Monogram Speedie-Bilt Flyers

avid water polo section of Pennsylvania. The good fortune being that Casimir Borowy through a yearning for water basketball did plenty of swimming "just dia plenty of swimming just for conditioning." . After that pool baptism, the swim-bug really hit Borowy. He worked hard to make the Erie Tech high school tank team. Fol-lowing three successful seasons there, he came to State College where he is now co-captain of where he is now co-captain of Bill Gutteron's 1951 edition of the Nittany mermen.

Modest, soft-spoken Cas derived pleasure from relating his once in a lifetime thrill.

Race 'Felt' Slow

After winning the 100-yard dash against Syracuse last year, freestyling Cas could think of nothing but how slow the race seemed.

Believing the announcer had said 55.3 Cas burned inwardly for not being a tenth faster—in which case he would have brok-en Bill Schildmacher's Glennen Bhi Schlidmacher's Gleim-land record. Suddenly on the dressing table it struck Cas like a starter's pistol that he had swum 54.3. That gave an elated natator "a big charge

Strong, wash board-stomach-ed Cas is also joint owner of the Penn State 400-yard record set in '49. That year he swam a leg with John McGrory, Jack Senior and Schildmacher. The latter being a crack churner whom Cas spent his entire sophomore year dogging but never passing.

Borowy, brown capped, starts a session with eight leg strengthening laps using a kick board. This is followed by eight more turns with feet rubbertubed to increase arm power. Next he swims eight warmups without impediments.

PAGE SEVEN

Release

Following Coach Gutteron's sage advice, Cas relaxes on the poolside, but soon he is off for "channel practice" over-distance or rapidly repeated windsprints.

or rapidly repeated windsprints. Three times varsity 'S' win-ner, Borowy last year paced his mates with 84 points scored by sprinting; then culminated a banner campaign with a fifth place in the ECSA 50-yard dash. Trudgeon Strokes Casa is a Dalta Sirokes

Cas is a Delta Sigma Phi in commerce and finance. Ladies. he's 24, six one, and a hand-some 180... Appropriately, Cas-imir spends his summers as a boys' water front supervisor . . . An orthodox six beat crawl swimmer, Cas has a habit of constantly shaking himself before a race "to stay loose." Too bad, Coach, he is in his nowhere.

where-brother you ain't from

By JAKE HIGHTON Luckily for Penn State swim schemes. Erie and vicinity is an

