On The Ball'—

By RAY KOEPLER Sports Editor

Greenberg, Leahy Support Crusade

Coming at a time of national emergency when anything even faintly involving the reputation of athletics is magnified ten-fold, last week's basketball scandal has, temporarily at least, knocked sports down for a nine count.

The black-eye handed collegiate basketball because of the corruption of a group of heretofore clean, honest kids and the resultant demand for a cleanup coincides with another current crusade — that involving brotherhood in American sports.

Pitching for the team of racial equality and tolerance are Frank Leahy, Notre Dame athletic department head, and Hank Greenberg, general manager of the Cleveland

"There is nothing more democratic than a football summary or a baseball box score," says Leahy. "In these only the record is printed—not the social prestige of the individuals involved, not the standing of the player's fam-Hank Greenberg ily, but only what the contestant

Indians.

"We in Cleveland have adopted the motto that ability counts, not race, color or creed," says Greenberg. "It is only natural that the Cleveland "Indians" lead the way in judging players on performance only. Our daily lineup includes two Irishmen, an Englishman, a Scotsman, and two Mexicans, Protestants, Catholics and Jews, Negroes and Whites, and all Americans who work and play together in perfect harmony. This speaks for itself."

Cleveland line-up: Roberto Avila, Ray Boone, Lawrence Doby, Luke Easter, Mike Garcia, Jim Hegan, Bob Kennedy, Dale Mitchell, and Al Rosen.

Coming up by train from Washington, D. C. for their basketball game with Penn State, American university's team was stopped by a rather elderly citizen.

"I don't believe that these boys you have here are basketball players," he said to A.U.'s youthful-appearing coach, Staff Cassell. "They look like honest men."

Comes now an Amerk. U. communique requesting that coaches not forget their Leroy "Ish" Ishman, of Bradford, when it comes time to select All-American courtmen.

Ish is not what you might call a pretty-boy. He takes out a fourtooth bridge during ball games; has wild, tousled hair; an abnormal right forearm as the result of a jeep accident in Italy, and he's big, tough and aggressive.

Reminds us of the time a group of New York Yankee ballplayers were arguing among themselves as to which scout in the Bomber chain had obtained Yogi Berra, the Yankee neanderthal.

Lefty Gomez. listening in, said, "No scout got Berra, Frank Buck brought him back alive."

Seen At Saturday Night's Bouts - Johnny Benglian in the company of Glen Hawthorne. Benglian was a Penn State Eastern champion his freshman year in 1945-'46, while Hawthorne arose to national collegiate prominence in 1947-'48 in the 130-pound weight class . . . Bob Keller, a 2nd Lieutenant in a U.S. Armored division. A versatile athlete-scholar, Keller was tribunal chairman and boxed for Leo Houck and Eddie Sulkowski. Now enroute to Yokohama, Japan . . . George "Wild Goose" Vadasz, former Daily Collegian soccer and boxing writer. Now a crime reporter for the Erie Times . . . Don "Duck". Murray at the Sigma Pi house. A fabulous gridder under Bob Higgins, and Joe Bedenk, Murray will always remain in our estimation as one of the best tackles we've ever seen . . . Tom Morgan, last year's Collegian editor and winner of the "Grindstone" Award.

Forfeits, Postponed Games Hinder IM Handball Play

ments and forfeits. Only four rell; Ross Keith and Robert Inma 15, Chi Phi 13; Alpha Chi Sigmatches were completed and two gram; Lewis Shallcross and John 21, Pi Lambda Phi 20 (overothers were won by forfeit.

In the matches played, Bernard Whitehill, Theta Kappa Phi, beat-Richard Waters, Sigma Chi, 15-21, 21-13, 21-15; Philip Benedetti, Delta Upsilon, beat Emerson Knyrim, Delta Chi, 21-7, 21-5; Vincent O'Bara, Phi Delta Theta, beat Robert McFadden, Phi Kappa Tau, 21-4, 21-5; John King, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, beat Jos-eph Reed, Phi Sigma Kappa, 21-5, 21-4. Winners by forfeit were Barr Asplundh, Sigma Chi, over Theodore Pritsker, Pi Lambda Phi; John Bristor, Phi Gamma Delta, over Jerome Silverman, Beta Sigma Rho.

Last night the Independents began their elimination tourna-ment with four matches scheduled to supplement the six frater-

and the state of t

Krupczak.

Nittany Fencers Suffer 4th Loss

By JOHN SHEPPARD

Up-holding their circuit prestige on Saturday afternoon at Rec hall, a surprisingly strong Cornell fencing aggregation vanquished the Nittany Lion duelists, 16-11.

It was the Lion's fourth straight defeat of the season, they having lost their three previous engagements, two by the same count.

In posting its fourth victory of campaign, Coach Georges Cointe's blade contingent had to come from behind after trailing 5-4 at the end of the foil event. Kalanik Triumph Kalanik paced the contact of ches, 5-3, 5-3, and 5-3. Joe Kusick helped up the score by compiling a 2-1 record with the closing seconds, never lost it. piling a 2-1 record, winning 5-4, 5-4 and losing his final duel by the same score. Tom Taylor dropped all three of his engagements by similar 5-4 counts.

The Meyermen, however, began to falter in the epees as Cornell took command, 7-2.

Lou Como slashed his way to 3-2, 3-1 triumphs for State, and captured the saber event 5-4, thus enabling them to salt the victory away. Captain Ed Merek, who had to withdraw from the tuted for Merek, scored an up-set by routine veteran Dick The flashy (Smith, 5-2. Bob Searles copped ist poured 18 one and was jarred twice, while Charley Ricker lost his three fifth successive win.

Next Saturday, the State swordsmen will play host to John Hopkins. The match was directed by Frank Bavuso, a member of the American Fencing associa-

Independent intramural basket-ball games played last Thursday: Ridge Runners 22, Beavers 21; Ath Hall 25, Draft Dodgers 8; Marauders 28, Bees 11; Rockets 12, Pre-Vets 10; DIR 33, Hessians 6; Sea Hawks 18, Crusaders 11; Newmanites (w. by for.), Happy Losers; Keys (w. by for.), Deadwoods: Collegians (w. by for.)

Independent intramural basket-bodged and piled up a 40-25 margin mid-way through the half. The Orange team then went into a possession game just as the Lions began to roll. Always a strong second-half team, the Nittanies began to whittle down the tiring Syracusans' lead.

But they couldn't cop with "Old woods; Collegians (w. by for,) Flunkies.

Independent games played Fri-Lou Lamie, Hardy Williams, and day night: Basketeers (w. by for.) Jeeps; Zone 3 (w. by for.) Skash ers; Jordan Hall 24, Abees 16; Sportsmen 25, Black Sheep 23; Little Five (w. by for.) Capitols; Sinkers 34, Vandals 22; Dorm 8 28, Dorm 36, 12; Dorm 11—Dorm 22 (double for.), Dorm 2, 20, Dorm 34, 12; Dorm 25 (w. by for.) Lions; Radads 21, Allentown Aces 7.

Fraternity games played Friderick Allendors Physics 12 (2012)

day night: Alpha Gamma Rho 11, Weekend action in the intra-nity matches. In competition for mural handball tournament was hindered by several postpone-ments and forfeits. Only four rell Rose Keith and Robert Indian Gamma Rho 11, Sigma Chi 9; Kappa Delta Rho 17, Phi Sigma Kappa 12; Alpha Phi Alpha 15, Sigma Alpha Epsilon 12; Phi Kappa Psi 12, Kappa Sigments and forfeits. Only four rell Rose Keith and Robert Indian Gamma Rho 11, Sigma Chi 9; Kappa Delta Rho 17, Phi Sigma Kappa 12; Alpha Phi Sigma Chi 9; Kappa Delta Rho 17, Phi Sigma Kappa 12; Alpha Epsilon 12; Phi Kappa Psi 12, Kappa Sigma Chi 9; Kappa Delta Rho 17, Phi Sigma Chi 9; Kappa Delta Rho 17, Phi Sigma Chi 9; Kappa Delta Rho 17, Phi Sigma Kappa 12; Alpha Epsilon 12; Phi Kappa Psi 12; Alpha Phi Night Phi Night

Courtmen Edge Colgate, But Lose To Syracuse

Just before Penn State's basketball team left for the Colgate-Syracuse trip last weekend, Coach Elmer Gross was quoted as saying: "We might scare them a little." That was the understatement of the week!

The Lions not only scared Colgate on Friday night but went one step further and beat the Red Raiders, 58-57, on a foul shot by Junie Moore with but five seconds left in the game. Syracuse Freezes

Saturday night, Syracuse had to use a deep freeze and a possession game to turn back the Nittanies, 50-46.

State had to come from behind to nip Colgate which had beaten the Lions in Rec hall earlier in the season. Trailing throughout For State in the foil duels, Ed alanik paced the contact of fought their way into the lead late in the contest and but for the 57-

> Tiny McMahan, who improves with every game, paced the Lions against the Raiders by tossing in 23 points—13 points more than his nearest teammate, Ted Panoplos.

Moore Supplies Punch

With all due respect to Mc Mahan, it was Junie Moore who iced the game for the Lions in lost 3-1. Bob Whitman and Pete the closing seconds of the con-Raidy dropped their three test. Moore only made two points all night, but his last foul con-Cornell Comeback
The Lion Foilsmen continued at 57-57 with five seconds left in to flounder as the Big Red also the game and supplied a Merriwell finish for the Grossmen.

Moving over to Syracuse, the Lions lost a race with the clock and dropped their second game meet because of illness, was to Syracuse this season. Just as in credited with one win and one the first contest, it was Captain loss. Jerry Clauser, who substi- Jack Kiley who upset the Lions

> The flashy Orange set-shot artist poured 18 points through the hoop to lead his mates to their

But things weren't all peaches and cream for the Syracuse five. his team to go into a deep freeze for the rest of the period. Each team managed to drop in a foul shot and the half ended 29-18.

Foul Outs Hurt

Syracuse continued to build on that lead early in the second per-Independent intramural basket- iod and piled up a 40-25 margin

> But they couldn't cop with "Old Man Time" or the loss of Captain

MRS. SHIRLEY WITHERS, above, is shown holding a baseball autographed by members of her brother's former team. the St. Louis Cardinals. Mrs. Withers is the sister of Ron Northey, former Cardinal outfielder, who is now playing for the Chicago Cubs. She lives in Windcrest with her husband, Paul, a student at the College.

Moore on fouls and the rally fell short by four points.

Ted Panoplos took scoring honors for the Lions with 12 markers. McMahan followed with nine. Kiley was high for Syra-cuse with 18, while big Ed Miller followed with 13.

٠	Lamie,f	2	3	7	Alton.f	2	0
,	Sledzik	1	3	5	Roberts	1	1
	Williams,f	2	1	5	Stratton.f	2	0
	Piorkowski	3	0	6	Utz	6	1	1
1	McMahan,c	8	7	23	Dodd.c	4	8
١	Makarewicz	0	0	0	Stacy,g	1	1
ı	Moore,g	0	2	2	Warren,g	6	0	1
	Lynch	0	0	Ō	Sutliff	ĩ	ő	-
	Panoplos,g	4	2	10		_	-
	Totals	20	18	58	Totals	23	11	5
. !	_		_	_
٠	Penn State					Sy	rac	us
•]	FG	\mathbf{F}	Pts		FG	F	Pt
	Lamie,f	2	2	6	Huggins,f	0	1
	Sledzik	3	0	6	Swanson	0	0	- 1
•	Williams,f	1	0	2	Jockle,f	0	. 2	:
	Makarewicz	1	1	3	Stevesky	0	1
	McMahan,c	4	1	9	Hladik	. 1	1
	Moore,g	1	_ 1	3	Miller,c	5	3	1:
١	Gibson	0	0	0	Reddout	0	0	- (
ı	Panoplos,g	4	.4	12	Kiley.g	8	2	1
ı	Piorkowski	2	1	5	Roche	3	2
ı					Supru'wicz,g	: 0	0	4
					Manikas	2	0
	Totals	18	10	46	Totals	19	12	54
-	-				· · · ·		_

ocats (processed MCS-CAFAY) is the archester registered trade mark of the Nestic Company, Inc. to designate its soluble unpaced of agent parts of gare soluble coffee and added pare corbobydrates (destrins, maltase and destrose) added solely