

DG, Simmons A, DZ, Victors In IM Volleyball

Delta Gamma continued its volleyball winning streak in WRA intramural competition Thursday night by outscoring Sigma Delta Tau 40-16. Patricia Vester was high scorer with 11 points, while Marilyn Cohn tallied nine for Sigma Delta Tau. Although the Delta Gamma's forfeited once, they have lost no other games.

Simmons A beat Simmons B by a 50-29 score. Nancy Alperin with 12 points was high scorer for Simmons A, while Jane Randall was the game's high scorer with 15 points for Simmons B. Both teams are new to WRA competition.

Delta Zeta Beats Co-op

In the game between the Co-op and Delta Zeta, Delta Zeta scored 37 points to 26 for the Co-op. Mary Ann Krepps scored ten points for the DZ's, and Bernadette McCahill had eight points for the Co-op.

Ronnie Lachman scored ten points as the Alpha Epsilon Phi's defeated Alpha Omicron Pi 44-22. Betty Webber was top scorer for the AOEPI's with 13 points.

Women's building outscored Alpha Xi Delta 48-35. Diane Miller with 13 was high scorer for the winners, while Ruth Widman of Alpha Xi Delta had nine points.

Although Alpha Chi Omega led 15-3 at the end of the half, the Chi Omegas won by a score of 28-25 in the evening's closest game.

KKG Downs Mac Hall

In WRA bowling Kappa Kappa Gamma downed Mac hall 545 to 494. Lois Kenyon scored 131 points for the Kappas while Nancy May had 117 for Mac. Gamma Phi Beta outscored Delta Gamma 463-436, and Kappa Delta beat Kappa Alpha 444-414.

The next WRA games are Monday night when League I teams in both volleyball and bowling will compete.

Panhel Governs 19 Nat'l Sororities Here

By JOAN KUNTZ

Every State coed who is in a sorority on this campus is a member of the Panhellenic association for every national sorority is affiliated with Panhel. All 19 sororities at Penn State are national.

The Panhellenic association here gives three $50 scholarships annually, has a scholarship cup awarded each semester, gives a cup to the winner of the annual Pan Hel-IFC sing, and handles the enormous job of rushing each year.

Two delegates from each sorority, generally the present rush chairman and the girl who will be rush chairman, constitute the Panhellenic council along with the advisers. Miss Frances Brewer, and Mrs. Cyrus French and Mrs. H. Clay Musser, sorority Alumnae act as advisers on the council.

Work Began Last Year

The Panhellenic work for this year was begun last spring when the rushing program had to be set up. Mary Ann Krepps was rush chairman this year for Panhel.

Following rushing, the first major activity of Panhel on campus was the sending of baskets at Thanksgiving, to needy families of this area. This project was carried out in cooperation with the State College community center.

December brought the Panhel workshop in which scholarship, rushing problems, activities, personal development, and public relations were discussed by the Panhellenic delegates.

New Guide Book Planned

The association is planning to publish a new Panhel guide book this spring. The booklet will be sent out in the summer to all new women students coming on campus. Information about sorority life, prominent campus leaders in sororities, and expenses will be found in the new book. It will help a girl understand a little about Penn State sororities and their complicated rushing system before she arrives here.

As to present activities—at the Panhellenic meeting next Tuesday night, the three girls to receive scholarships will be chosen. The award will depend upon a girl's need of financial aid, her scholarship and curriculum.

Open House Was For Everyone

The open house held Feb. 17 was to entertain independent women and not just for the girls who were interested in rushing informally as seemed to be the consensus of opinion. Nancy George, Panhel president, explained. Of the approximate 2000 Penn State women, some 800 or 40% are sorority women.

Officers of the Panhellenic council are Nancy George, president; Lynn Levitt, vice president; Natalie Adler, corresponding secretary; Jean Heidemann, recording secretary; and Janet Evans, treasurer.

Snake's Blood Is Good For Voice

Had your daily shot of snake's blood yet, coeds? Or don't you desire a sweet, low voice... the kind that Shakespeare said was "an excellent thing in woman"? It would seem that the Geisha girls of Japan are one step ahead of the Americans in developing their talents to attract the male. With all their creams, lipsticks and false articles, how many campus beauties have ever gone so far as to improve the quality of their voices with a nip of warm, satisfying snake's blood?

The hebiya, or snake stores of Tokyo have been doing a roaring business lately. According to a recent issue of Hit magazine, snake's blood is sold regularly to the song-and-dance girls, who relish it with the same gusto the queens do their daily coke and cigarette.

The blood must be fresh and preferably warm in order to have the desired medicinal effect. For, in addition to adding that sultry note, snake's blood is believed to be an excellent tonic for all kinds of illness, plus a substitute for the olive, or passion fruit.

So forget about the proverbial doctor and the apple, girls, because "Snake's blood each day keeps the men on the way."

Councils To Hold Post Game Dance

Town council and West dorm council will jointly sponsor a post-athletic dance in the West dorm main lounge following the Penn State-Pittsburgh basketball game tonight.

Ray Evert and his Artists in Melody will provide music for the affair. Weston Tomlinson, West dorm council representative, and Paul Zanoni, Town council representative, are co-chairmen for the dance.

Admission to the affair is free. The dance is open to the public.

Delta Delta Delta

Delta Delta Delta sorority was entertained by Pi Kappa Phi fraternity Wednesday night at a spaghetti dinner at the chapter house.

Sigma Chi

Harold Romig was initiated into Sigma Chi fraternity.

Weekending With The Greeks

Three formal dances and two costume parties have been scheduled by fraternities and sororities for tonight.

Delta Zeta, the only sorority on the list, will hold its annual Rose ball at the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity house. Awards will be made at the dance to the ideal pledge and the dream girl of Delta Zeta. Silhouettes of all the sisters and pledges will be the main feature of the decorations, and Darell Richel's orchestra will play. The dance, which is semi-formal and open, will last from 9 to 12.

The other dance is a strictly formal initiation ball to be given by Zeta Beta Tau. It will be held at the Nittany Lion inn from 9 to 12, and Jack Huber and his orchestra will play. This dance, as well as both of the parties for tonight, is open.

At Delta Sigma Phi the annual Sailor's ball will be held. Everyone is asked to wear either a sailor's costume or old clothes. The decorations are built around a nautical theme, and include a light house, colored flags, a ships bow and steering wheel, and in one corner, "Popeye, the Sailor Man." Music will be furnished by Gene Sprague.

Beta Sigma Rho is holding a house masquerade from 9 to 12. The house will be decorated as a circus, with side show murals around the walls. Guests are asked to wear costumes to the party.

The Sigma Pi's will hold a closed, formal pledge dance tonight. Mr. and Mrs. Rip Engle will be one of the three chaperoning couples. The theme of the dance is initiation.

Engagements

Herstine-Roeder

Mr. and Mrs. Elton M. Roeder, of Bethlehem, announce the engagement of their daughter, Sally Jane, and Robert A. Herstine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Augustus E. Herstine, also of Bethlehem.

Miss Roeder is a sophomore in sociology. Mr. Herstine, a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity, is a junior in agriculture economics.

Phi Mu Alpha Thankful For Use Of White Hall

Phi Mu Alpha, men's honorary music society, wishes to express its thanks to Carl P. Schott, Dean of the School of Physical Education for granting them permission to use White hall for their Musician's ball last night.

Unusual circumstances forced the dance to be moved from Recreation hall where it had originally been scheduled.

Coeds To Meet Candidates For WSGA-WRA

W S G A house of representatives last night planned house meetings to be held in the women's living units next week to introduce the WSGA-WRA candidates.

A May day dance has been planned by the house to be held following the May day festivities on May 12. The dance will be held in Rec hall from 9-12 and will be informal.

Ruth Johnson, Virginia Laudano, and Betty Jo Hill have been selected to work with a committee from senate to investigate the present food situation in the dormitories.

Freshmen girls on May day committees are: elections, Janice Carstensen and Barbara Wertz; ceremonies, Mary Kozelnicky; properties, Joyce Gardner; decorations, Mary Elizabeth Pettigout; music and entertainment, Nancy White; publicity, Jane Reber; costumes, Barbara Wertz; invitations and tickets, Joy Schiller; and tea and open house, Pat Prichard.
