

India Week—

textiles, paintings, and books will be featured in the Pattee Library during "India Week," Miss Allen said.

One of the movies to be shown is entitled "Kalpana," an Indian movie with English titles portraying the development of mankind in the form of modern Indian dancing. The film was directed and produced by the Indian dancer Udayshankas.

Indian Movie

A movie on India depicting the life of the people, their customs, art, music and dancing, as well as a movie about Kashmir and other scenic parts of India, will be shown.

The dates and places for these events will be announced later, Miss Allen said.

Four students and faculty members at the College who come from India have been working on plans for the week. They are Tara Purshottam, graduate student in chemistry; Minocher Karkhanavaleaves any such conclusion open to question.

9 Offices—

In the fall of 1949, the State party won all six offices, only to suffer a resounding defeat in the ensuing spring elections. It was then that All-College President Robert Davis defeated State party candidate Blair Green, polling 77 per cent of the votes cast for the office. Other Lion party candidates all won by substantial margins.

With the nomination of candidates two weeks off, party leaders will be working hectically behind the scenes, organizing the campaign, selecting candidates, raising funds, and preparing platforms. They will not, however, be able to ignore the lessons of past elections.

"We're not going to rush because we want to do a good job," he said.

Vaughan explained that the success of the first issue would decide the future of the magazine.

"If, after the magazine is published and either the English Composition department or some other department won't subsidize it, we won't continue to publish," Vaughan said.

Call For Candidates

Fenton said that a call for editorial candidates could be made next week.

Owen Landon, business manager, reported that a limited number of advertisers have been contacted and the response has been good.

Landon explained that advertising would be kept at a minimum and wouldn't be counted on too heavily to support the magazine.

Speaker: Dr. Bernard C. Clausen,
Former Minister Euclid Avenue Baptist Church, Cleveland, Ohio
Topic: "The Song of the Tea-Kettle"
Choir: "Open Our Eyes" — MacFarlane

"The fundamental crisis in each life is found in one's personal relationship to God. Only the individual who recognizes this and establishes a righteous relationship with God through faith ever attains true maturity. The Church of Jesus Christ is a fellowship of people committed to reach maturity God's way. Come, join with us!
