hall on March 19 for a coffee hour and tour of the area.

Guides For Conference

Five guides, all members of the council, will aid the School of Education in its conference for county superintendents and school principals Tuesday. They will conduct guided tours of the area from 4 p.m. until 5:15.

The council approved a motion to have published a set of recommendations on conduct in the dorms presented by one of the residents. James Dunlap was appointed to investigate the possibility of establishing a pickup service for laundry cases being mailed from the area.

A temporary committee to work with the administration on questions involving food service in the West dorm was appointed by president Thomas Durek. John Richards was named chairman, and Bob Fatzinger, Martin Berkowitz, Richard Kerwin and George Salak were named to the group.

William Souleret and Harry Shank were named to an open house committee to secure permission to arrange an affair during the Mother's Day celebration in May.

The social committee asked that the men in the area be reminded to wear coats and ties in the lounges and the snack bar on weekends.

Meeting To Stress Control Of Insects

A display of chemicals and equipment for pest control work will be a new feature of the annual Pest Control Operator's conference Wednesday to Friday at the College.

This year's conference will stress control of termites and other wood-boring insects, Dr. Hubert Frings, co-chairman, said. Several outstanding national leaders will address the session. Dr. D. E. H. Frear, co-chairman, said several manufacturers are providing the exhibit.

GSA Rejects 2 Bids For Burrowes Wings

Bids totaling $1,466,785 for the construction of two new wings to Burrowes building were rejected by the General State authority yesterday. The authority said the bids exceeded the allotment designated for the proposed construction. Plans will be revised now, and new bids will be asked in the future.

Students To Broadcast Interpretation Readings

Two students from the oral interpretation classes will present readings at 8:30 o'clock tonight on WMAJ on the Speech hour.

Dan Wargo will read "The Circus" by William Saroyan, and Lorraine Spitzer will interpret Stephen Vincent Benet's "The Sobb'n' Woman."

AVIATION CADETS Get On Top Stay On Top!

WITH A YEAR OF THE WORLD'S FINEST AVIATION TRAINING IN THE U. S. AIR FORCE

Yes, sir—it takes a full year's training as an Aviation Cadet to earn your commission as an officer and pilot in the U. S. Air Force. But that commission is worth its weight in gold.

And when you strut those wings and bars for the first time you can be sure that you've had the finest instructors and training equipment that any flying man ever had . . . that you are ready and able to carry out any mission assigned.

For the Air Force believes being a good pilot is just one of the qualities necessary . . . you must make a good officer as well . . . capable of commanding the respect of superiors and subordinates alike . . . capable of assuming and discharging the responsibilities of your office . . . capable of being an officer of the U. S. Air Force.

"...a full year's training"

"...earn your wings"

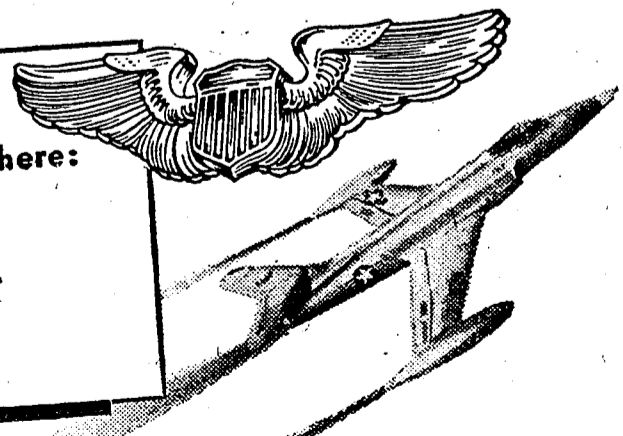

"...get going fast"

So...
FIREWALL IT!
NEEDLE IT!
CROWD THE MACH!

In jet-pilot language that means . . . GET GOING AND GET GOING FAST! Your take-off point is the Aviation Cadet Selection Team which will soon visit your own college campus. See if you can qualify. If you can . . . you're on the way up to the top. First stop . . . aviation cadet training school. First pay . . . $105 a month for one year with all clothing, food, medical and dental care provided free. First commission . . . 2nd Lt. in the U. S. Air Force Reserve. Beginning salary close to $5,000 a year. You've got a top job and with your training and experience you'll stay on top.
