At 137, Bob Hartman of Columbia will meet Ed Barnes of F&M and Syracuse's Bob Bury will meet the Nittany's Don Maurey. Hartman took an 8-1 decision from Army's John Wasson, and Barnes proved to be the Cinderella man of the division. Yesterday afternoon he decisioned fourthseeded Dick Gregory, in the first period, but the match took a sharp turnabout in the early minutes of the second period when Santel had things pretty much his own way. Orser turned it on late in the second period and in the third and Santel dropped out. Santel had a season record of 7-1, Orser a log of 4-1-1. Orser will meet Columbia's Gene Manfrini in the semi-finals this aftered fourthseeded Dick Gregory,

State's EIBA Hopes Drop As Heims, Marino Lose By ART BENNING Sharin To The Daily Collegion

Special To The Daily Collegian

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., March 9 - Penn State's chances for the team title in the EIBA matches here took two sudden turns for the worse tonight when Len Coiner, of Virginia, and Bill Miller, of Syracuse, scored TKO's, both in the second round, over Sam Marino and Pat Heims, respectively.

Marino's bout was stopped at 1:02 when the 125-pounder suffered a cut over the right eye. Marino had come out fast but got

The fact that Homer's match was on the mat at the far end of Rec hall didn't phase the fans. They moved en masse to see one of the greatest wrest-lers ever to don Penn State

From the looks of first-round results, Penn State has developed a "murderers' row." Don Frey, 147-pounder, Rusty Santel, 157, Joe Lemyre, 167, and Mike Rubino, 177, scored successive pins in yesterday's preliminaries.

President Milton S. Eisenhower, Wilmer E. Kenworthy, director of student affairs, Carl P. Schott, dean of the School of Physical Education and Athletics, and William S. Hoffman, former burgess and registrar, took in the matches from "President's Perch"-first

Jack Dreibelbis, Lion 130pounder, really "used his bean" in winning his preliminary match.
He and Ed Maloni of Columbia collided heads during the bout and had to take a short rest period

until both recovered.

Lehigh Ready

Lehigh is really up for this tournament. There were 492 tickets reportedly sold in Bethlehem. From the sound of things in Rechall, all 492 ticket holders are here to watch the Engineers perform. Before each Lehigh wrestler goes on the mat, the entire team gathers around to wish him luck. Yes, sir, they want this championship!

Mike DiBatista, who is doing some of the refereeing at the tourney, is a three-time Eastern champion in the 175-pound class. Mike did his wrestling for Penn in 1941, '42, and '43.

Gene Manfrini, Columbia's blind 157-pound grappler, is proof enough that you don't need to see to wrestle. After being taken down by Virginia's Harvie Fitzgerald, the Lion matmen scored a reverse and almost maneuvered Fitzgerald into a pinning position M.anfrini went on to win the match 6-2.
