

Vassar Prexy Speaks Apr. 17 At Convocation

Sarah Gibson Blanding, president of Vassar college, will discuss "In the Time of our Lives" at the Women's Student Government association convocation on April 17 at 7 p.m. in Schwab auditorium.

Prior to being elected as Vassar's first woman president, Miss Blanding was dean of the New York State college of Home Economics, and dean of women at the University of Kentucky.

Miss Blanding was appointed by President Truman to the National Commission on Higher Education which published a controversial report on the functions of higher education in democracy. Under the provisions of the Fulbright act, she is now serving on the Board of Foreign Scholarships to select American students and faculty members for study abroad. She is a member of the Board of Trustees of the Committee for Economic Development and the only woman on the Public Advisory board of the Economic Cooperation administration.

Miss Blanding was born in 1898 in Lexington, Ky., where she attended public schools. By teaching, she earned most of the money for her higher education. She attended the University of Kentucky, Columbia university, and the London School of Economics.

Penn State Dames To Present Play

A children's play, "The Clown Who Ran Away," will be presented by the drama group of the Penn State Dames in the State College high school auditorium this Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

There will be no admission charge for the two-act play, which is open to all children of the community. Donations to help defray the cost involved in production will, however, be accepted.

The cast includes several husbands and children of Dame members. The Penn State Dames is an organization of wives of graduate students at the College.

Room Selection

Dormitory room selection will continue tonight in the dean of women's office according to the following schedule:

The schedule for the 6:30 to 7 o'clock period and the schedule for the 8 and 8:30 o'clock period have been changed from that as stated in yesterday's Collegian.

The schedule for tonight: 6:30 to 7 o'clock, all third semester students and second semester students with numbers from 7 to 7:30 o'clock, second semester students with numbers from 86 to 200 inclusive. 7:30 to 8 o'clock second semester students with numbers 201 to 310 inclusive; and 8 to 8:30 o'clock, second semester students with numbers 311 to 320, and all first semester students.

Bleutge Named Panhel Editor

Janet Bleutge has been named Panhel editor of the Newsletter, which will now be a joint publication of the Interfraternity and Panhellenic councils.

The new arrangement was approved with the idea that a more balanced view of the Greek systems on campus might be gained.

Miss Bleutge is a sixth semester journalism major, and was named editor by the Panhellenic Council at a meeting Tuesday night.

Also working with the sorority portion of the newsletter are Jenny Kanauer, assistant to the editor, and Peggy Mayberry on the business staff.

The revised Newsletter is expected to be published at the end of this week.

A Panhellenic banquet will be held Tuesday, April 24, at the Eutaw house. All officers, advisers, the senior rush chairmen and next year's rush chairmen will attend the banquet. The banquet will be informal. New officers will be installed that evening.

At next week's meeting, Tuesday, April 10, the new officers will be elected for the council and discussion for next year's rushing program will begin.

WRA Playoffs Begin; Phi Mu's Down Leonides

The Women's Recreation association playoffs got under way last night as Phi Mu defeated Leonides by a score of 659-604 in the bowling league.

High scorer of the evening in bowling was Evelyn Lanning of the Leonides team who racked up 149 points. Betty Zimmerman and Nellie Lou Bender collected 147 and 146 points respectively for the Phi Mu team.

In the volleyball playoffs Kappa Kappa Gamma defeated Alpha Epsilon Phi 48-22. Alpha Gamma Delta set back Leonides 44-39. The second half was fast moving as the half time score was 29-12 in favor of Alpha Gamma Delta.

Women's building won two and lost one game to Beta Sigma Omicron in the first of the badminton playoffs last night. Delta Delta Delta won three games to defeat Alpha Omicron Pi who won two matches.

"Band Of The Year"

Anthony Uses Miller Style

Ray Anthony's band, which will be featured at the IFC-Panhel ball Friday night, capitalized on popular Glenn Miller stylings to become band of the year for 1950.

Last year's national disc jockey poll cited Anthony's group as the greatest name band since the days of Glenn Miller. In fact, Anthony got his start in 1940 at the age of 17 playing the trumpet with the Miller aggregation.

Anthony will bring his entire group to Recreation hall Friday night for the annual ball. Featured with the band will be Ronnie Deauville, Betty Holliday, and the Skyliners quintet.

The band will play from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Friday. Tickets priced at $4 a couple will go on sale at the Student Union desk in Old Main the day of the dance. Curtis Wesner, dance chairman, said tickets would also be sold at the door for the semi-formal affair.

"Children and Youth in Our Homes" will be the theme of the Home Economics Spring weekend on April 13 and 14.
