Model UN Group Best Since '45

Dr. Waldo Chamberlin, one time head of the documents division of the United Nations, praised the model General Assembly of the UN at Beaver college last week as the best since 1945.

A delegation from Penn State's International Relations club attended the meeting.

Dr. Frances Fussell, consultant in the executive office of the President of the United States, and Abraham Feller, general counsel to the United Nations, spoke in the plenary sessions of the model UN.

George Keenan was chairman of the machinery committee, and Robert Alderdice and Jay Headley were members of the committee.

Other delegates were William Klisanin, finance committee; Albert Hand and Jack Palmer, political committee; and Miriam Kugelmann, trusteeship committee.

Dr. Elton Atwater, political science professor and advisor to IRC, accompanied the delegation.

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

Number 16...THE HARLEQUIN DUCK

"I may be a clown—but I'm no fool!"

He might be the merry-andrew of the marshlands, but lately he's been downright glum about these trick cigarette mildness tests. Never one to duck facts, he holds nothing much can be proved by a sniff of one brand or a quick puff from another. Snap judgments can't take the place of regular, day-to-day smoking. That's why so many smokers are turning to . . .

The sensible test . . . the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camels as a steady smoke — on a pack after pack, day after day basis. No snap judgments needed. After you've enjoyed Camels — and only Camels — for 30 days in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste), we believe you'll know why . . .

More People Smoke Camels than any other cigarette!
