

Phi Delts Pace IM Point Race

Phi Delta Theta has advanced from third to first place in the race for the intramural point award, according to the latest standings released by Eugene Bischoff, director of the intramural department.

The Delts, by capturing 100 points in the handball tournament, brought their total to 380 to replace Sigma Nu, which previously held down their top position. With 355 points, Sigma Nu, is currently in second place.

Teke's Move Up

The biggest gain in points was made by Tau Kappa Epsilon, which won the basketball crown, worth 175 points. This increase enabled them to jump from 29th to 6th in the standings.

Pi Kappa Alpha, by winning the handball championship, picked up 100 points and advanced from the thirteenth position to seventh. They have a total of 255 points.

Delta Upsilon, last year's winner, holds down the number three spot with a total of 327½ points.

In fourth place is Sigma Chi with 275 points. The first five is rounded out with Beta Theta Pi, which has 272½ points.

Top Ten

The standings of the remaining houses in the big ten are Phi Kappa, 250 points for eighth place and Phi Kappa Sigma, 245 points for ninth place. Two houses, Pi Kappa Phi and Sigma Phi Epsilon, are tied for tenth place, both with 200 points.

These standings are the second of four which are released during the year. They include six of the 17 different tournaments which are played off in a school year. Included in the present standings are touch football, swimming, boxing, medal tournament in golf, basketball, and the handball singles. Going on at the present time are the wrestling, volleyball, and handball doubles tournaments.

Many Inexperienced Trackmen Among Werner's 120 Aspirants

Of the nearly 120 candidates who have reported for Chick Werner's track and field squad, only about one-fifth belong in the tried-and-true class.

The great majority are just an amorphous mass. But hidden among them to be brought out by coaches Werner and Norm Gordon there may be one or two Ewells, Gehrdes, Stones, or Ashenfelters to keep Penn State in the focus of the track world.

Included in the group are several freshmen who recorded terrific clockings in high school but who will not be eligible to compete for the varsity this season.

Although it is a shame that an outstanding track team as Penn State's doesn't even have a tune-up before the Penn Relays on April 27-28, with the weather the way it has been, it is a good thing no meet has been scheduled.

Tuesday's snow flurries forced Werner to chase the entire team to the showers early. But the cold weather, which is hardly conducive to loose track muscles, let up yesterday so the thinly-clad could run without warm-ups for the first time this spring.

The track and jumping pits are still a bit soggy from the excessive amount of rain but they are as sure to come around to top form as the athletes themselves.

Yesterday, Werner took advantage of the brilliant sunshine to send the runners through a drill on an all-important aspect of running distances longer than sprints—pacing.

Aiming to hit a 62 second flat quarter, it took a veteran campaigner like Don Ashenfelter to know the pace. The smooth-striding miler stopped the watch at a near perfect 62.1.

Less experienced runners like Sam Hamilton and Bob Roessler had a tougher time trying to hit the mark. Hamilton pulled up with a 63.5 and Roessler with a 60.8.

Four Lettermen To Start For W. Maryland Nine

Jim Boyer's Western Maryland Green Terrors will arrive here shortly before noon tomorrow to help the Bedenk-coached Lion baseball squad usher in the 1951 season at New Beaver Field. The game will begin at 2:30.

Only three of State's starting nine are veterans of last year's team which finished with a record of 15 and 5. The three men who were in the opening array in 1950 (also against Western Maryland) are pitcher Owen Dougherty, left-fielder Henny Albright, and third-base-man Chris Tonnerly. Dougherty, however, played right field in last spring's initial contest.

The Western Maryland squad from Westminster, Maryland, weren't at all what their nickname indicates in the 1950 battle. The Lion nine scored five runs in both the second and third innings, and added an extra marker in the fourth to rout the Marylanders, 11-0. The game was halted after six innings because of a small snow storm. The Terrors collected just three hits from the offerings of Nittany hurlers Al Tkac and Dalton Rumberger. Captain and first baseman Dick Wertz and catcher Jack Kurty blasted home runs.

Terror Line-up

AGR-B. Zeta Beta Tau-B started out by beating Triangle-B 15-5, but the engineers came up with 15-0 and 15-9 wins in the last two games.

Sigma Phi Alpha-A beat Alpha Zeta-A; Alpha Chi Rho-B dumped Alpha Chi Sigma-B; and Sigma Pi-B fell before the Phi Sigma Delta B team.

Two matches were forfeited. Alpha Phi Delta-B lost to Theta Chi-B and Alpha Sigma Phi-B lost to TKE-B.

son, pitcher. Kaufman, Tereshenski, Shook, and Spencer were in the opening line-up in last year's game.

In the Lion camp, the word from Bedenk is that the line-up issued Wednesday remains the same.

25 Wrestlers Advance In IM

The action flew fast and furious at Rec hall last night as 25 IM wrestlers advanced to the quarter finals.

The best match of them all, however, was a 155 lb. bout between John Hull, Beta Theta Pi, and Don Fields, Phi Sigma Kappa. Hull held a slim 2-0 lead until Fields suddenly turned the tables with a pin in 4:59. Other bouts in this class saw Vic Straub, Phi Kappa, pin Ken Tomlinson, AGR, in another top match. Also, Bill Hendrickson, Chi Phi, defeated Bob McFadden, Phi Kappa Tau, 3-2; John Bristor pinned Dick Mattoon in 0:36; and Don Amig, defending 145-lb. champion, won a referee's decision from John Miller.

In the 165-lb. class, Marv Borning took a 3-0 decision from Joe Rynewicz; Dave Harmon decisioned Dave Evans, 5-4; Ken Shearer defeated Dave Spur, 9-4; and Bob Farquhar defeated Bernie Adams, 3-0.

In the 175-lb. class, Stan Silberman decisioned Ed Burger, 5-2; Dick Hughes defeated Rogers Bender, 8-7; and Jim Diehl won from Bob Smith via the fall route in 2:12 with a body press.
